SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Ranchers Engage in Fight and One Is Killed.

River valley near Huntington, was shot Tuesday evening by John 1. White, a neighbor rancher. Mr. Hall had been in Huntington for several days previous, and on his return took a few bottles of old "booze" with him to cheer him on his way, and on reaching Mr. White's home he stopped to share with him the contents of the precious flasks. During the course of the jubilee a difficulty arose between them, whereupon Hall made an attempt to extricate an implement of war from his pocket, but his adversary proved his superior, as he immediately produced a shot gun from behind the door. Hall starte! to run, but White had been too deeply him in this manner, so he fired, the shot taking effect in Hall's legs. It is thought the wounds will not prove serious, yet quite painful. White gave himself up to the authorities.

Mamma's Angel.—"Now Willie," said the careful mother, "I don't want you to associate with those Smith boys—they are so rough and rude."
"Not 't me, they ain't. Why, I picked a fight an' Heked 'em as soon as I struck de neighborhood."—Baltimore
