Passenger Agents Meet.
St. Louis, Oct. 28.—The troublesome question of passes is again agitating the minds of railroad passenger officials. The trunk line agreement entered into a year ago has not worked as satisfactorily as the promoters of the plan expected. Several of the signatory roads have openly violated the agreement, while Western roads complain that it has been interpreted in favor of the Eastern lines and consequently has worked an injustice to the Western lines. On the whole, however, the agreement seems to be regarded as a good thing by the railroads, judging from opinions expressed by the representatives gathered here today to discuss the future policy concerning passes. It is probable that the obvious defects in the old agreement will be remedied and steps taken to strengthen it and insure its enforcement throughout the country.

Its Thirty-Fourth Convention.
Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 28.—The thirty-fourth annual convention of the New York State Woman's Suffrage Association opened in Buffalo today with a considerable attendance of delegates and visitors from various parts of the state. The convention program covers three days and calls for addresses by such noted equal rights leaders as Miss Susan B. Anthony, the Rev. Anna Howard Shaw, and Mrs. Percy Widington, of England.

South Texas Truckers.
Beeville, Texas, Oct. 28.—The South Texas Truck and Fruit Growers' Association began an interesting two days' meeting here today. "Celery Culture," "Packing Vegetables," "Cooperation in Truck Growing," and "The Fig as a Money Crop for South Texas" were some of the subjects discussed today.

Nasal CATARRH
In its stages there should be cleanliness. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly. Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Drugists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 46 Warren Street, New York.

WORKED THE CITY.

City of Walla Walla Loses What it Supposed Was a Valuable Water Right.

Walla Walla, Oct. 28.—A special meeting of the city council was held yesterday to consider matters in connection with the proposed extension of the water system at Thomas Springs, and some sensational developments were brought to light, or at least hinted at in positive language.

The city purchased several years ago a tract of land said to contain large springs, for $10,000, and during the past year has spent about $2000 in developing a flow of water from the land. It was represented to the people last spring that a sufficient flow had been secured and the city was asked to vote bonds in the sum of $100,000 the funds to be used in constructing a pipe line and reservoir. The bonds were defeated by a large majority.

Now it has come to light that at least a large part of the water has been drained from irrigation ditches and surface springy land, and cannot be considered good water for domestic use. These facts were brought about by the closing of irrigating ditches on the Thomas lands, when the flow in the city pipes would at once decrease and remain at low mark until the ditches were again opened. Mayor Hunt became acquainted with the facts and brought the matter before the council yesterday.

Just what action will be taken is unknown. An investigation is being carried on today, the city officials being at the Thomas springs in the hope of being able to discover the true situation. It will take a number of experiments to establish the facts as to how much water is secured from irrigating ditches, but the work will be done at once, and as soon as the facts can be had action looking to the permanent settlement of the difficulty will be taken.

In the meantime the city is agitated over the prospect of losing what was supposed to be a valuable water right, and the possibility of an abundant supply of spring water at a nominal expense to the taxpayer.

Democrats Highly Pleased.

Walla Walla, Oct. 28.—Yesterday was an unusually lively day politically in this city, and two large audiences gathered at the opera house, one in the afternoon and another at night. In the afternoon Governor McBride spoke to a packed house, discussing at length the question of railroad legislation, and supporting the railroad commission idea with considerable force. Mr. McBride spoke for over an hour and held the close attention of his audience. Senator Warburton, of Tacoma, also spoke on state issues. In the evening the democrats held forth. Senator George Turner addressing a large audience, Mr. Turner took up national issues, briefly, and closed with a strong discussion of local matters and state politics. This was the largest meeting of the campaign from a democratic standpoint, and the local party leaders were highly pleased with the outcome. The Walla Walla band furnished music for both gatherings.

The Place to Live.

Weston is among the prettiest home towns in Oregon and has the only state educational institution—the Eastern Oregon State Normal School—in this part of the state. Weston is abundantly supplied with pure water and has granted free water for household purposes for 10 years to all persons who build houses prior to April 1, 1903. You can obtain a good building site on Normal Heights, with water, sidewalks, grading and shade trees free, at a low figure. If you are seeking a pleasant home at an educational center. Address the Weston Improvement Co., Weston, Or.
