ILLITERATE CHILDREN.

Native Born Children of Foreign Born Parents Best Educated.

A dispatch from Washington says: The census office has just issued a statement giving a compilation of figures regarding illiteracy among children of immigrants and children of natives. The statement says:

A Surprising Difference.

"Confirming the comparison of children between the ages of 10 and 14 years in the United States, 97.96 per cent of the native white children of native parents and 99.1 per cent of the native children of foreign born parents are able to read and write. This surprising difference in favor of the children of the foreign born population is due largely to the fact that the children of the foreign born immigrants live mainly in the northern and western states, where the public school system has already reached a high degree of efficiency, while great numbers of white native children of native parents live in the southern states and in that region about 10 per cent of such children are illiterate.

By Geographic Divisions.

"When the comparison is carried out by geographical divisions, the difference between the two classes in each part of the United States except the south Atlantic states, is found to be much less than in the whole country. Yet these figures indicate that in every region except the North Atlantic states the literate children of immigrant whites are a larger per cent of the whole number of children than the literate children of native whites.

Clustering of Immigrants.

"This is plainly explained by the clustering of immigrants and their children mainly in cities of the north, while the native white children live more generally in the rural districts. Thus, in the north Atlantic division there are 996,951 native white children 10 to 14 years old and born of native parents, of whom 32 per cent live in cities having at least 25,000 inhabitants. On the other hand, among the 731,730 native white children 10 to 14 years of age and born of foreign born parents who live in the same group of states, 62 per cent live in similar cities. There is no reason to infer from the census figures that the children of illiterate immigrants are constituting a permanent illiterate class in the population.

Too Early to Determine.

"It will be noticed, however, that the foregoing figures relate exclusively to immigrants who have been in the country long enough for their children born here to have reached the age of 10 years. Whether among the children of immigrants who have arrived since 1890 there is the same eagerness to acquire at least an elementary education, it is still too early to determine from census figures.

A PRESENT FOR MITCHELL.

Grateful Miners Give Him a Gold Watch and Badge.

Sunday afternoon President Mitchell was presented with a gold badge and gold watch by the Polish, Lithuanian and Slavish members of the United Mineworkers. The badge bears the monogram "J. M." in diamonds on the back. Below this is a button of the United Mineworkers of America. The seal of the organization is the form of a breaker boy standing in the midst of a bank of coal. The presentation took place at President Mitchell's headquarters, and a large crowd listened to the speeches of presentation and acceptance. Mr. Mitchell, in the course of his remarks said:

"I shall regard it a great favor if you will express to the Polish, Lithuanian and Slavonian people my gratitude for the confidence they have so freely given me. I beg you to say to them that my highest ambition shall be to promote the welfare and advance the interests of all the men and women in their labor for a livelihood.

"I look forward to the time when strikes shall be no more; when peace and justice and right shall be secured for those who toil; when labor and capital, each recognizing its right and obligations to society, shall work in harmony for the common welfare of our country and the general good of all our people.

"Gentlemen, I thank you with all my heart. I cannot express my feelings to you properly at this time."

District Presidents Nicholls, Duffy and Fahey and other leaders also made brief addresses.

Shortly before 4 o'clock Mr. Mitchell left headquarters for the Lehigh Valley depot. He was accompanied to the station by a large and enthusiastic crowd, and when he boarded the train he was cheered and wished God-speed.

A movement is said to be on foot among the Polish, Lithuanian and Slavish miners to raise a large sum of money for Mr. Mitchell.

Fraternal Choppers.

Boone, Iowa, Oct. 29.—About 125 local camps are represented at the first biennial meeting of the Fraternal Choppers of America, which will be in session here during the remainder of this week. Several proposed changes in the constitution and by-laws of the order are to be considered and acted upon at the meeting and the question of the permanent location of the head camp is also up for decision. Several cities are bidding for the headquarters and the outlook is for a spirited contest before a decision is reached.
