gions working with an increased output of coal and the output of thing a very strong case has made out for the miners.

TYPICAL FRENCH AFFAIR.

Count and Editor Fight a Duel With Swords—Lasted Nine Rounds.

Paris, Nov. 4.—A duel between Comte de Dion and Geraule Richard, the editor, because the latter kicked the count's shins in the chamber of deputies recently, took place at Neuilly this morning. It was a typical French affair. They fought with swords before 150 spectators and lasted nine rounds. Richard received a scratch on the forearm and the count declared himself as satisfied.

Later.

The men fought two hours. Richards was always cool, but the count was excited. The count says he is still unconquered.

FAVORS GOVERNMENT CONTROL

Greely, of the Signal Office, Urges That the United States Own the Pacific Cable.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The report of Lieutenant Greely, chief signal officer, was made public today. He reviews his work in Alaska and the Philippines, where great improvement has been made. He urges governmental control of the Pacific cable both in peace and war, and thinks that in war it would be worth half a dozen battleships.

In regard to experiments in wireless telegraphy, he says the best results are obtained from the De Forrest system, although owing to unfortunate conditions, it interfered with the Marconi experiments.

DISSATISFIED WITH MORGAN.

"Nothing on Earth Could Induce Them to Continue Business Relations."

London, Nov. 4.—George White, chairman of the London United Tramways, whose differences with Morgan led to Yerkes' victory yesterday, has issued a letter in which he says that the reasons given by Morgan for a split are mythical.

He says, "the facts are that after an experience with J. Pierpont Morgan & Company extending over four months we have determined that nothing on earth could induce us to continue business relations with that firm."

Washington Vote Light.

Tacoma, Nov. 4.—The weather is clear and there is a large vote in the city of Tacoma. The state vote is lighter than two years ago. The republicans will likely elect three congressmen and one supreme judge.

GIVES £8,000,000

ENGLAND GIVES AID TO THE TRANSVAAL PEOPLE.

£3,000,000 Goes to Assist in the Restitution of the Burghers' Homes.

London, Nov. 4.—An additional appropriation required for the year ending March, 1903, to grant aid to the Transvaal and the Orange River Colony, was presented this morning. The total appropriation was £3,000,000, of which £3,000,000 goes to assist the Burghers in the restoration of their homes, £2,000,000 to pay the losses of other persons, and £3,000,000 for loans to needy Burghers.

CAR CRASHED INTO SALOON.

Two Killed at Kansas City and Several Badly Injured.

Kansas City, Nov. 4.—An observation park electric car got beyond control, rushed down a steep grade and crashed into a saloon this afternoon.
The killed are Mrs. Margaret Cryst, Olathe, Kan., and Charles Johnson, of Topeka, Kan.
Miss Millie Cryst was fatally injured and the motorman, Clarence Mc-Millan and three others were badly injured.

RIVAL CANDIDATES FOUGHT.

140 Arrests Made for Illegal Voting in New York.

New York, Nov. 4.—One hundred and forty arrests have been made for illegal voting. A free-for-all fight occurred in one of the Bowery election booths. A mob charged the policemen with prisoners and one escaped.
Rival candidates pummeled each other. None were seriously hurt.

Pimlico Meeting.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 4.—The Maryland Steeplechase Association opened its third fall meeting at Pimlico today under auspicious conditions. Seventeen races are down for decision during the three days' racing. Both flat races and steeplechases are to be run.
The purses range in value from $250 to $400 in added money.

ELECTIONS TODAY ARE BEING HELD IN FORTY-TWO STATES

Under the Twelfth Census the Total Membership of the Fifty-eighth Congress will Be 386.

FULL TICKETS OF EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND REPRESENTATIVES ARE TO BE ELECTED IN 21 STATES.

One Hundred and Seventy Districts Are Admitted as Democratic—With 15 Doubtful Districts, the Margin for the Republicans Is Conceded to Be Exceedingly Close—To Win the Control the Republicans Must Elect 194 Members.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—In every state of the Union, excepting Maine, Oregon and Vermont, an election of some sort is in progress today. In 21 states full tickets of state executive officers and legislatures are to be elected, minor executive officers in 11, and legislatures in two. It is an off-year in politics and the election is involved in much uncertainty. To the usual influences of an off-year have been added the effects of the miners' strike and of a growing feeling against the Dingley tariff.

Forty-two states are voting for representatives to the Fifty-eighth congress, 378 in all, the total membership having been increased by the reapportionment under the twelfth census to 386. Eight members, all republicans, have already been elected —four from Maine and two each from Oregon and Vermont. For congress there are 370 democratic nominees, while the republicans have 333, and the prohibitionists 96 in 16 states.
The democrats made no nominations in two New York districts and in four Philadelphia districts, while the republicans put up no congressional candidates in Florida, Georgia, Mississippi and South Carolina, and in only one district in Arkansas, one in Kentucky, one in Louisiana, three in Illinois, three in Tennessee, five in Texas and two in Virginia. Two women are among the candidates. They are Mrs. Mary Burkhart, the nominee of the prohibitionists in the Tenth Kentucky district, and Miss Ida Hazlett, the socialist candidate for congress-at-large from Colorado.

A non-partisan poll of the entire country leads to a belief that the republicans will probably be able to control the organization of the house, though by a very narrow majority. To win the control the republicans must elect 194 members. One hundred and seventy districts are admitted as reasonably certain to go democratic, and with 15 doubtful districts, the margin for the republicans is conceded to be exceedingly close. A general democratic drift in the East, accompanied by a heavy vote for Coler in New York, approaching the 111,000 majority which Cleveland received ten years ago, would sweep the republican majority in the house away entirely, giving the democrats control.

The statements of the chairman of the congressional campaign committees of the two parties reflect this estimate of the closeness of the result.
Representative Babcock, chairman of the republican congressional committee, says: "The republicans will elect a majority of the next house of representatives. The majority will not be that of the last presidential election, but will be somewhat reduced. I think it will be greater than the majority in 1898, which was 13."

In his estimate of the probable result of today's election, Chairman Griggs, of the democratic congressional committee, says: "I believe the next house of representatives will be democratic by a good working majority. The country is ripe for a revolt against republican policies. The whole country demands tariff revision and reduction, especially on trust made and trust controlled goods. I have no fear that the people will register their protest and chastise the party responsible for these wrongs. All of this means a democratic house of representatives."

Alabama.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 4.—Heretofore Alabama has held its state election in August, but under the provisions of its new constitution, the first election to be held in November is on today. A governor and other state officers are to be elected for a term of four years. There are three regularly nominated state tickets in the field. Governor William D. Jelks, is a candidate for re-election on the democratic ticket, while the republican ticket is headed by J. A. W. Smith and the prohibitionists by W. D.

Gay. The legislature to be chosen will be called upon to elect a successor to United States Senator Pettus, whose term expires next March. The election of a full democratic congressional ticket is assured.

Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 4.—Arkansas has already elected its state officers this year and today's election is for congressmen only. The democrats will carry every district in the state, the republicans having put up no opposition except in one district.

California.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 4.—The republicans of California expect to carry their state ticket today by from 15,000 to 20,000. The fight for governor between Dr. George C. Pardee, republican, and Franklin K. Lane, democrat, is conceded to be very close by both parties. The republicans expect to elect the legislature which will choose a successor to Senator Perkins. The most interesting congressional contests is that in the Fifth district, where Congressman Loud, republican, is likely to be defeated by Mr. Wynn, who is a trades unionist.

Colorado.

Denver, Col., Nov. 4.—For the first time in its history Colorado is voting this year for three representatives.
For the first time in many years the democrats have a straight ticket, having refused to fuse with the populists, silver republicans, etc. The socialists also have a straight ticket in the field.
Both the democrats and republicans claim the victory. The democratic candidate for governor is Edward S.
Stimson and the republican, James H.
Peabody. The democrats have conducted an unusually vigorous campaign in the interest of their congressional candidates. A state legislature, which will elect a United States senator to succeed Henry M. Teller, will also be elected. The democrats have endorsed the candidacy of Senator Teller, and if they win the fight he will succeed himself. Several proposed constitutional amendments are also being voted for, among them being provisions for municipal home rule and an eight-hour workday for miners and smelters.

Senator Teller is having the battle of his life today. Voting towards noon was heavy. The outcome is uncertain.

Connecticut.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 4.—Uncertainty marks today's state election in Connecticut. Complications of an unusual character, local rather than national, add to the uncertainty. There are four tickets in the field—democratic, republican, prohibitionist and socialist. There is apparently more harmony among the democrats than for a number of years past, and they believe that Melbert E. Cary will defeat Comptroller Abram Chamberlain for governor. The situation as regards the congressional candidates is uncertain, both sides claiming the victory. The legislature to be chosen will select a successor to United States Senator Platt.

Heavy vote; neither side claiming victory.

Delaware.

Dover, Del., Nov. 4.—Today Delaware elects minor state officers and a legislature which will be called upon to choose two United States senators.
The fight principally is to defeat J.
Edward Addicks for United States senator.

Florida.
Tallahassee, Fla., Nov. 4.—The election in Florida is for a legislature which will choose a successor to United States Senator Stephen R.
Mallory, whose term of office will expire next March.

Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.—Georgia elected its state officers last month and the balloting today is for congressmen only. There are no contests in any of the 11 districts, and the only change will be in the Tenth district, where W. H. Fleming will be succeeded by T. W. Hardwick.

Idaho.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 4.—Idaho elects a full state ticket today. The democratic ticket is headed by Governor Frank W. Hunt. His republican opponent is John T. Morrison. Charges of malfeasance in office have been brought against the state administration and the campaign has been a bitterly personal one. The republicans appear confident of success. The congressional contest is between Joseph H. Hutchinson, democrat, and Burton L. French, republican.

Boise, Nov. 4.—There is a heavy vote throughout the state. Results are doubtful. Probably mixed. Hunt, democratic candidate for governor, is running ahead.

Illinois.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 4.—Illinois votes today for congressmen, minor state officers and a legislature that will choose a successor to Senator Mason.
The campaign has been marked by general apathy. Both parties claim victory in the congressional contests, while the republicans have high hopes of electing their state ticket and the legislature. The republican state convention declared in favor of Congressman A. J. Hopkins for the senatorship and he probably will succeed Senator Mason in the event of republican success.

State reports show a heavy vote, both sides claiming victory in the city of Chicago, where the vote was early and strong.

Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 4.—This state elects this year minor state officers, congressmen and a legislature that will select a successor to Senator Fairbanks. The state is living up to its reputation as a doubtful state and both sides are claiming victory.
In several of the districts the congressional contests are very close. A republican legislature will choose Senator Fairbanks to succeed himself.

ENGINEERS KILLED

REAR-END COLLISION
ON BALTIMORE & OHIO.

Besides the Engineers, a Fireman Was Killed—Two Others Injured.

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 4.—A rear-end freight train collision on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad occurred near here this morning. Engineer and Engineer Sugram of Conneville, CANDIDATE MURDERED.

In a Quarrel Over Some Chickens, Was Shot by a Neighbor.

Oblong, Ill., Nov. 4.—Word has just been received from Ills that Hon.
Hale Johnson, vice-presidential candidate on the national prohibition ticket in 1900, was murdered last night.
Johnson accompanied an officer to levy on some chickens which had been attached. Charles Harris, owner of the chickens, resented the levy and a quarrel ensued in which Harris shot Johnson, instantly killing him.

French Miners Confer.

Paris, Nov. 4.—The operators' and miners' representatives met twice today at the office of the ministry of public works and discussed the strike.
An announcement is expected tomorow.

Re-open Negotiations.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Secretary Hay and Conchas have reopened negotiations for the Panama canal rights this morning.

Revolution Crushed.

Caracas, Nov. 4.—The revolution has been totally crushed by a final victory. General Matos is a fugitive.

$11,000 Stolen.

Marshfield, Wis., Nov. 4.—The Bank of Greenwood had its vault blown last night and $11,000 stolen.

JEKYLL-HYDE CASE

A well Known Harvard Graduate Arrested Charged with Murdering two Young Women.

WAS AT ONE TIME INMATE
OF AN INSANE ASYLUM.

Allen G. Mason, of the Mason & Hamblin Piano Firm, Accused of Being "Jack, the Slugger"—A Noted Athlete and Musician.

Boston, Nov. 4.—Allen G. Mason, a prominent club man, Harvard graduate and a member of the piano establishment of Mason & Hamblin, was arrested here this morning charged with being "Jack, the Slugger."

Nine murderous attacks and two murders are laid to him. The last victim was Miss Morton, who was killed with a piece of gas pipe which followed close on the murder of Agnes McPhee, whose death occurred in the same manner.

The arrest was made by state officials who have circumstantial evidence pointing in all cases to Mason as the insane perpetrator.

The prisoner was at one time an inmate of the Waverly asylum for mel-ancholia. His arrest created a great sensation.

Mason claims that he can prove an alibi. The state police say that they can prove that he was absent from home at the time Miss Morton was murdered and also know where he got the gas pipe with which the deed was committed.

He was eating breakfast when the police entered, and said: "I suppose you come to arrest me for this slugger business?"

The murders were committed by a left-handed man. Mason is a brilliant left-handed golf player, and an athlete of considerable note as well as a musician. He was president of the Harvard Glee Club of the class of '86. He is a cousin of Actor John Mason and a grandson of the late Lowell Mason, the famous composer and musician of the last century. It is believed to be a typical Jekyll-Hyde case.

EXAMINER AGAINST LANE.

Vary Quiet Election in San Francisco —Early Vote Very Heavy.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—This is the quietest election day in San Francisco ever known. All saloons are closed and the streets are as quiet as Sunday. Police are at every booth. The early vote is very heavy.
The Examiner this morning came out strong for Pardee, the republican nominee for governor, and for Reeves as state treasurer.

TAKEN TO JAIL.

Irish Members of Parliament Imprisoned for Incendiary Speech.

Dublin, Ireland, Nov. 4.—William Redmond, the national member of parliament, was arrested on his arrival at Kingstown this morning and taken to the Kilmainham jail, where he will be imprisoned six months for an incendiary speech made early in the campaign.

Athletes at Polls of New York.

New York, Nov. 4.—A hundred under graduates of Columbia College are serving as watchers at the polls for republicans today. They are stationed in the roughest part of the city, many being in the Bowery districts. All the students are athletes.
