President Mitchell's legal advisers think a very strong case has been made out for the miners in the complaint just filed with the arbitration commission.

A burglar entered the home of Editor C. A. Fay, of Clinton, Ia., and after lighting the gas, made the family give up money and diamonds to the value of $1300.

Baker City is greatly excited over the rumor that the division headquarters and yards of the O. S. L. are to be moved from Huntington to that city.

Two Italians, en route to Italy, to spend the remainder of their lives, blew out the gas in a New York lodging house. They were dead when the door was broken in.

Sam Harris, a negro who killed Mrs. George Meadows, and her 18-year-old daughter, near Salem, Ala., recently, afterwards robbing the house, was shot to death by a mob.

Practically every foundry in Cleveland manufacturing light gray iron was closed down Monday, as a result of the moulders going on a strike for higher wages. About 700 men are affected.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST NEWS.

Alvin Oleson, of Walla Walla, broke his shoulder Monday, by a fall from his wheel.

Harry and Charles Gray were arrested at Union Tuesday, for drawing a gun on Rufus Wright.

A fire in the asylum outbuildings Monday night, destroyed sheds and unoccupied buildings valued at $2000.

The state game warden has sent a deputy to Mount Scott, Or., to stop a wholesale slaughter of beavers, which has been reported.

J. M. Baker sold 160 acres of unimproved land near Thornton, Wash., for $31.75 per acre. This land was worth but $20 per acre last spring.

Two men followed J. E. Weston out of a Spokane saloon at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning and robbed him of $40. He was choked and beaten severely.

J. M. Hutchins, who discovered the Yosemite Valley and opened it for tourists, has been killed by his team going over the grade on his way into the famous valley. Mr. Hutchins was nearly 90 years of age, and until recently spent every winter in the Yosemite.

Michael J. Dugan, proprietor of the Chamber of Commerce saloon, and well-known citizen of Helena, Mont., committed suicide Sunday. He had been drinking heavily, and was said to have been intoxicated at the time the deed was done. Dugan shot himself in the head.

The body of Jennie Madison, a white woman of questionable character, was found in an alley in Anaconda Monday morning, covered with snow. The woman, apparently, had been strangled to death. Her husband, a negro, was suspected of the crime, and when the officers surprised him in hiding he plunged a knife into his throat. The officers grappled with him, but Madison, who was of gigantic stature, threw them off and again plunged the knife into his throat with deadly effect, and he died in the arms of the police.

MANY TRAVELERS

PASS THROUGH PENDLETON IN THE COURSE OF A YEAR.

Baggage Master Turner Handled 4327 Pieces During the Past Month.

There are few people in Pendleton who realize just the importance of the travel through this place every day from one year's end to another. Five passenger trains pass in and out of Pendleton over the O. R. & N. every day, besides a mixed train which runs between here and Walla Walla which carries more or less passengers. In addition to these, one coach full of people comes into Pendleton and goes out over the W. & C. R. road every day.

To give an idea of just the amount of travel in and out from the O. R. & N. depot it is only necessary to give the number of pieces of baggage handled. Baggage Master Turner has just made out his report for October and finds that he handled 4327 pieces during the month. This was what came in and went out on tickets and mileage and does not contain the number of pieces transferred. To count all the pieces handled during the month, baggage transferred and all, would run the number up to the enormous number of 5827.

The above will give the readers of the East Oregonian a better idea of the importance of the railroads to Pendleton. The man who does not keep a close watch on the travel has no idea of the people passing in and out each day. Even the man who meets every train and sees almost every man and woman who goes through, cannot realize the magnitude of travel.

WAITING HOMESEEKERS.

Demand for Houses in Inland Empire Unprecedented.

The good times in the Inland Empire are reflected by the urgent demand for houses in cities, towns and villages. There has never been found a time when newcomers found so much difficulty in getting comfortable accommodations. Houses which were vacant during the period of depression have long since been filled, and new construction has not kept pace with the demand. There was never greater activity in building than during the present year, and yet reports come in from all quarters that the supply is not yet equal to the demand. In towns both old and new arrivals have experienced considerable difficulty in getting under roof at all. There are few of these prosperous places where would-be tenants have not been obliged to wait till residences could be built for them.—Dalles Chronicle.

A Large Onion Yield.

J. M. Bentley has one of the largest onion yields in Pendleton for many a day, displayed in his window. The onion was grown by H. C. Chessman, of Milton, and weighs almost two pounds. Mr. Chessman says he had one acre of these onions this season, which made just 654 sacks.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

Hall's Family Pills are the best. Deafness cannot be cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Round-up Finished at Butter Creek.

A. B. Thomson, who is in town today from his stock ranch on Butter Creek, says that all the cattle in that country are being fed. The fall round-ups have been made and beef as well as stock cattle are in their winter quarters. Mr. Thomson says the number of beef cattle now on Butter Creek will exceed the number fed there last winter by a few hundred, making the total between 4000 and 5000. Very few are being disposed of, as stockmen are holding for higher prices.

Timber on Indian Lands.

The United States supreme court has handed down a batch of decisions affecting the rights of Indians on reservations and the relations of the reservation and the public. One decision which applies to Umatilla county, declares that contracts with individual Indians for the cutting of a designated quantity of dead and down timber on the Indian reservation does not authorize the removal of all timber of that character on the reservation.

The dance given last night in Music hall by the local order of United Artisans, was not so well attended as it might have been, owing to other attractions. Those present had a good time and enjoyed the evening's entertainment. Kirkman's orchestra furnished the music.

UNBEARABLE ITCHING

Felt It Would Be a Relief to Tear Skin From Back. Cured by CUTICURA.

I had a breaking out all over my back. The itching was almost unbearable, and at times I felt that it would be a relief to tear the skin off my back. I tried doctors' prescriptions, and several remedies, without even relief. I read of your CUTICURA remedy in the Indianapolis News. After three applications, my back quit itching, and by the time the box of CUTICURA Ointment was half used the breaking out had all disappeared.
