PENDLETONIANS ABROAD.

Umatilla County a Happy Theme for Discussion.

Several Pendleton people are in town today, and they tell a story of prosperity in that part of the state. Judge John J. Balleray, who is here on legal business, said: "Conditions in Umatilla county are ideal in most respects. Wheat today is selling at 80 cents a bushel for the club variety, and probably all has been sold in the county excepting about 750,000 bushels. "Sixty cents a bushel for wheat means a good margin of profit to the grower, who has usually sold his wheat for less than 50 cents, although at 50 cents there is a fair profit." Besides Judge Balleray, John McCourt, T. G. Halley and C. H. Carter, attorneys of Pendleton, are in the city. Mr. Halley is accompanied by Mrs. Halley. Mr. Halley is mayor of Pendleton as well as being district attorney of the sixth judicial district, comprising Umatilla and Morrow counties.—Oregon Daily Journal.

Annual Poultry Show.

The executive committee of the Oregon State Poultry Association met in the offices of the Pacific Farmer last Tuesday evening in Portland and perfected plans for the eighth annual poultry exhibition to be held in that city the second week in December. The prize and entry lists were drawn up, and other necessary arrangements were made.

One of the novelties that will be an attraction there will be a cat show, such as are now popular in the Eastern poultry associations. There will be 59 classes for exhibition cats, 27 of which will be for long-haired cats, 26 for long-haired kittens, and 6 for kittens, it being understood that the term kitten means an animal under six months old. A competent cat judge will be secured, and the association hopes that, in after years, this department will be a feature of the annual shows.—Medford Success.

Heir Looked for in Italy.

Berlin, Nov. 5.—It develops that the postponement of the emperor's visit to Italy, which was to have taken place this month, is due to the delicate condition of the queen of Italy, whose accouchment is expected within the next few weeks. The emperor's visit has been deferred until February, when he will join the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, at Genoa, and visit the king of Italy at Naples and the Duke and Duchess of Sparta at Athens.

Charged With Dodging Alimony.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 5.—The case of Frederick N. Innes, who was arrested last week in Jersey City, on a charge of attempting to leave the state in an effort to avoid the payment of alimony, was called up for argument today before Justice Collins. The complainant in the case is Georgia F. Innes, formerly his wife, who obtained a divorce in New York in June last. The court gave Mrs. Innes $25 a week alimony. She alleges that Innes left the state to avoid payment, and now owes her $500.

Tacoma Exports.

The Evening News, Tacoma, Wash., sends out a mailing card announcing that the increase in exports from that city for the six months of 1902 amounts to more than $5,125,000 or twice as great a gain as was shown in the exports of San Francisco, Seattle and Portland, Ore., during the same period.

To Succeed Congressman Russell.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 5.—A special election is being held today in the Third congressional district to choose a successor to the late Congressman Charles A. Russell, and also to fill the latter's unexpired term. All indications point to the election of the republican candidate, Fran B. Brandegee, of New London.

The wife and child of Charles Campbell, who lives 70 miles south of The Dalles, were killed Saturday near South Amity by a wagon overturning on them.
