COUNTY DONATES

TOWARD RAISING BANKS OF THE WALLA WALLA.

The county court has donated $150 toward raising the banks of the Walla Walla River, at Milton, to keep it from overflowing this winter and destroying valuable lands and property along the river bottom.

It will be remembered that a meeting was held between the Umatilla and Walla Walla county commissioners a few months ago to determine what steps should be taken by the two counties in protecting this land. Each winter the water overflows and damages more or less very valuable property and it was decided to have the railroad company build a bridge at that point to prevent obstruction in the river. As the railroad company will not build a bridge now, the citizens living along the river decided that they would do what they could to protect themselves temporarily this winter. The two counties were asked to donate toward this repairing and Umatilla gave $150. What Walla Walla county will give, has not been made known, but the contract has already been let for the building of a wing dam above the railroad bridge and what is needed in excess of the donations from the two counties will be furnished by the citizens interested. This dam will only cost about $600.

WAS WOMAN ASSAULTED?

Ed Gaston, Charged With Rape, is Now in Jail.

Ed Gaston, colored, was arrested last night on the charge of rape, sworn out by a woman giving her name as Wilson, although her real name is Jackson.

Mrs. Jackson is from Walla Walla. She came here a few weeks ago looking for employment. She got work in the lodging house over the Last Chance saloon. Last night she claims as she was coming out of her room to go to dinner, about 7 o'clock, she was met at the door by Gaston, who dragged her back into the room. He threatened to kill her if she called for help.

The night bartender came up from the saloon to show a lodger a room, and Mrs. Jackson, hearing them, screamed. Gaston made his escape from the building and about 10 o'clock last night was arrested on the charge of rape.

He claims that he had been going to see the woman and that he had been spending all his money on her, but for some reason she became angry and preferred the charge against him. Gaston is now in jail awaiting trial.

Name the Farm.

A delightful innovation might be made in our country districts at very small expense. How much would it add to the beauty and home-like appearance of Umatilla county to have a name for each farm. It would cost but little and its value would be lasting. It would show the originality and individuality of every farmer in the county. It would give the appearance of a permanent and contented home-loving people. Just a plain, suggestive name of the owner's choice placed over the great barnyard gate, would be sufficient. We name all our other possessions. The steamboat, the blooded colt and calf, the dog, cow, horse and mule are all christened. Our streets are named, our Pullman cars have titles that reach up and down the entire category of saints; our rivers, mountains, valleys and towns all have distinguishing cognomens—yet that pride of the American heart, the home, goes through the world without the semblance of a title. How delightful it would be to the visitor, to ride through the great Umatilla wheat belt and find the homes of our citizens so revered and loved, as to be named as sweetly as the twins and the shepherd dog. Name the farms without delay.

Moody a Delegate.

It is stated on good authority that Hon. Malcolm A. Moody will be appointed by Governor Geer a state delegate to the irrigation convention to be held in Portland November 19 and 20. The appointment will be a judicious one, as Mr. Moody was a member of the committee on public lands at Washington that reported the national irrigation law.—Dailies Chronicle.

Silver Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Younger celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary today, by giving a quiet dinner party. The house was elaborately decorated with autumn leaves and the tables were set with vases filled with beautiful flowers. They received many valuable presents from their friends.

CITY COUNCIL.

Sewerage Will Be Submitted to Vote—Usual Bills Allowed.

At the regular council meeting last night Chairman F. B. Clifton, of the sewer committee, made his report and recommended that a special election be held for the voters to decide whether or not a $30,000 bond be voted by the city for a sewerage system.

City Attorney C. H. Carter was instructed to draw up the necessary papers preparatory to the election and report at the next council meeting. Then the date for the special election will be set, probably in December.

It is thought that $30,000 will be ample for the purpose of installing a sewer system. It has been decided by the city that a new system should be installed and the council was unanimous in saying that the sooner this was done the better for the town and those who owned property here. The $30,000 bonds, if voted by the citizens, will draw interest of not more than 5 per cent.

The time is coming when the principal streets will have to be paved or macadamized. If this is done before the sewer pipes are put in, it would be necessary to tear up the paved streets in many places to allow the excavating for the sewer and this would not only make the laying of the sewer more difficult, but would add many dollars to the cost of again repairing the streets. If the sewer pipes are laid first, then when the streets are paved the work will be completed.

Little other business was transacted by the council other than the following of the following bills:

- Mat Carney, $2; W. J. Clarke & Co., $3.75; Pendleton Machine Shops, 50c; G. B. Waffle, $3.50; Van Orsdall & Moulte, 75c; Tom Scott, 75c; George R. DeMott & Co., $6.70; W. S. Wells, $273.35; Frank Day, 6; T. C. Taylor, $3; S. R. Baker, $1; Charles C. Sharp, $1.63; street work, $199.50; medicine, $3; M. B. Keys, $1.50; Pendleton Tribune, $4.50; E. E. Turner, $1; H. J. Stillman, $7.50; Charles Semple, $51; James McKay, $1; labor on streets, $76.80; Thompson Hardware Company, $20; Mary Porter, $11.95; water rent, $130; Pendleton Placing Mills, $124.54; Laatz Bros., $3; T. T. Nelson, $38.65; L. G. Frazier, $2.70; Thompson Hardware Company, $514.95.

SECOND CROP OF BERRIES.

Strawberries From Weston Mountain Now on the Market Large Size and Matured.

Strawberries in the market on the 5th day of November and the mercury down to the 30 mark, with heavy frosts and the ground frozen would be a revelation to many people living in less favorable climates than Umatilla county.

Nevertheless, this is just what was seen in Pendleton Wednesday. F. S. Younger & Son had several crates of these delicacies. They were grown on the Weston mountain and are the second crop from the same vines. This last statement would also be denied by people who are not familiar with the Oregon climate. To say that strawberries will blossom and grow fine fruit early in the spring and repeat the same thing in the fall, making two crops a year, can hardly be believed by those who have not seen it actually occur.

These strawberries, although out of season, are just as fine as can be found in any country at any time of year. They have grown to large size and matured well.
