FINCH AND OMANS

BOTH BOUND OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT.

Omans Secures Bail and is Released —Finch Waives Examination and is in Jail.

V. E. Finch, the Pendleton forger, and Loss Omans, his accomplice, were bound over to the circuit court yesterday afternoon by Judge Fitz Gerald. Finch's bond was fixed at $250, and Omans' at $150. It was expected by Omans and his friends, his innocence would be established at trial, but it was shown by the evidence that he had made a remark to Finch, when they were attempting to cash the check, which proved that he had a knowledge of the criminal intent of Finch. Omans' bond was furnished by his father and he was released from custody.

Finch waived examination and as his bond has not been secured he is still in jail.

WILL PENDLETON SCHOOLS COMPETE FOR PRIZE?

State Historical Society Offers an Opportunity for Essay Writing—List of Subjects.

The Oregon Society of Sons of the American Revolution has offered $10 respectively, for the best essay written by any student in the public schools in Oregon, on any one of the following subjects:

1. The Battle of Bunker Hill.
2. The Burgoyne Campaign.
3. The Treason of Benedict Arnold.
4. The Partisan Warfare in the Carolinas: Marion, Sumpter and Pickens.

Essays are limited in length to 2500 words; must be written on legal cap on one side of the paper in the student's own handwriting and must be accompanied by the certificate of the principal of the school attended by the author, to the effect that the author is a bona fide student of the school and has been in attendance thereon not less than six weeks during the school year of 1902-3. Essays must be forwarded to the chairman of the committee in charge, Wallace McCamant, 34 Concord Building, Portland, so as to reach him not later than January 15, 1903. In awarding the prizes the committee will be governed by these three considerations:

1. Historical accuracy.
2. Manner of treatment.
3. Orthography, grammar, syntax and punctuation.

Any additional information relative to the competition which may be desired, will be cheerfully furnished by the chairman of the committee. The essay which is awarded the first prize, will be published in full, with the name of the author, in the public press.

The society is making every effort to advertise this competition and will mail notice of the contest to every public school in the state. The decision of the judges will be announced at the annual meeting of the society, which will be held on Washington's birthday, February 22 next.

W. OF W. IN FOR PRIZE.

Hold a Social Session and Listen to Speeches.

At a meeting of the Women of Woodcraft this week it was unanimously decided that the lodge should make a fight for the free room and nursing at the Sisters' hospital for the coming year. It will be remembered that the hospital authorities have offered to give a year's free care and room to the most popular secret society in the city. The contest is to be decided by votes at 10 cents each, the voting to be done at the Sisters' fair, which is to be given soon to raise money for the work on the new hospital. The lodge that receives the most votes will be awarded this prize, which will mean $750 to the order winning. The ladies have the support of the Woodmen of the World and between the two they stand a good show of coming out of the fight with the prize.

After the business session several hours were spent in a social way. Stephen A. Lowell gave the welcome address and his speech was taken very kindly by the ladies at whom he throw many bouquets. Singing and recitations were then listened to, while some indulged in playing cards. To finish up the evening's festivities refreshments were served and all expressed themselves as having had an excellent time.

A Big Scenic Production.

W. B. Lawrence has provided entirely new scenery and costumes for "On the Stroke of 12," and with a carefully selected cast will play it through the West this season. It has been one of the best money-getters in the popular priced houses of the East for three successive seasons. It will be presented in this city at the Frazier next Tuesday, November 11, at the following prices: 25c, 50c, 75c and $1. Seats now on sale at Frazier's book store.

HARDLY KNEW HIS BROTHER

Two Brothers, Separated for Twelve Years, Meet in Pendleton.

After having not seen each other for 12 years, G. S. Andrus, a prominent stockman of the John Day, and C. W. Andrus, of Walla Walla, brothers, met at the St. George hotel last night and recognized each other.

It was a pleasant surprise for each of them. They had lost track of each other and neither was thinking of the other when they met in the hotel lobby. G. S. Andrus recognized his brother first and after looking at him a moment the first word he spoke was: "Charlie, give an account of yourself." Then it was George's turn to be astonished for a minute. He could hardly believe his eyes.
