Erect Form

The long hip form is the original long hip corset. It has set the mode in corset styles. The long hip gives that deep graceful dip, rounds off the hips into graceful curves, takes all strain from the abdomen and chest and places it upon the hips and back muscles. Absolutely hygienic. The only corset for the new style skirts.

Form 989 $1.00. Erect Form 990 $1.00
Form 973 $1.25. Erect Form 992 $1.50

There are numerous other models of the W B corsets of which you will also find at our store. Complete assortment of styles and sizes.

COLD SNAP CRIMES

EPIDEMIC OF OVERCOAT STEALING HITS SPOKANE.

Five Men, Driven by Cold Weather, Increase Their Wardrobes and Their Troubles.

With the cold weather an overcoat stealing fad seems to have struck Spokane. The police records of yesterday show five men all charged with the same offense. Three were arraigned in court and two more arrested later in the afternoon. Charles Simons, who gives his occupation as a gambler at the Owl, was taken into custody just before 5 o'clock. He was charged by Mrs. Reitz, who resides at the Gandy building, on Sprague avenue, with taking an overcoat from the hall and walking off with it. Simons put up a $50 cash bond for his appearance this afternoon.

Thomas McCarth was found coming out of a room in the Argo block with a woman's astrakhan cloak in his possession about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The landlord stopped him and telephoned the police, who took the offender into custody. The coat is alleged to be the property of Mrs. Dickinson, who resides in the building.

Didn't Steal, Only Took It.

Frank Cole and Frank Borgessa admitted taking a coat from the Cineograph theater Saturday night. They were brought before Judge Kennan yesterday afternoon and said they would plead "guilty of having the coat, but not guilty of stealing it." When questioned, they say that they saw the coat lying there with no apparent owner, and needing a coat, took it along with no thought of wrongdoing. William McKnight, who owned the coat, told of leaving it on a seat while watching the show. At the conclusion of the performance he returned and found it gone. The two young men were given a fine of $50 each.

C. H. Holstrom did not deny that he took a coat belonging to R. M. Hadwin from the hall of the Pedicord hotel, but claimed he did so by mistake. After Mr. Hadwin had told of leaving his coat when he went to dinner, and not finding it on his return, the judge decided to continue the case until tomorrow at the request of the prosecution. Deputy Barnhart stating that he could show other thefts by the defendant on the same day.—Spokesman Review.

A SOCIAL MEETING.

Maccabees Held Delightful Session in Their Hall Last Night—Refreshments Served.

Last night the local lodge of Maccabees held a very delightful social session in their hall. One of the largest crowds for several months was out and a good time was had playing ping pong, cards and other games. Refreshments were served after the festivities of the evening were concluded and among them was a five-gallon keg of fine sweet cider which was relished by all present. The Maccabees are contemplating holding a social session each month for the enjoyment of the members and to help in keeping up the interest in the order.

It was thought by many of our local stockmen that prices paid for blooded stock during the stay of the Hereford Association stock in this city last spring, were enormous. At the sales of the Indianapolis Livestock Co. in that city last week, 104 head of Hereford cattle sold for $44,334.25, an average of $407.06 per head. Ninety-four cows averaged $419.84 each.
