WHEAT 59 CENTS

WITH NO SELLERS.

Although Wheat is Lower, the Millers Continue to Force Up the Price of

There is little change in the markets other than the price of flour and sugar. The high figure which wheat has been quoted at has forced mill stuffs to go to the highest figure it has reached for several years and as a consequence those having to buy flour are the ones to pay the enormous price. Although wheat is quoted at one cent less than it was a week ago, flour has jumped from $3.40 market at present is dull and very lit-kins University; W . D. Foulke, of the the doing. Exporters appear to have a surfeit of wheat on hand and are not very anxious buyers at present prices. They seem to have all the wheat required for chartered tonnage on hand and to arrive. The wheat remaining unseld in the country will maining unsold in the country will hardly exceed 8,000,000 bushels, that is what growers have to sell, and this in the strong hands, and higher tives of the leading educational instihave all the grain purchased they cussion are: "The College Curriculation of a College Kingdom there is very little call and freights will have to come down marked they cussion are: "The College Curriculation of a College From the United lum." terially to do any more new busi-ness as prices asked are entirely too high considering the price that shippers paid for wheat. It is doubtful whether 20 shillings for a vessel to the United Kingdom could be obtained. The outlook for any more activity this year is problematical, in the meantime trade is becoming dull and exporters attending more to loading vessels than in the purchase of more supplies at fancy figures. We quote club wheat 63@70c, bluestem. 73@74c and valley 70@71c per bushel.

Wheat at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.-San Fran cisco exporters are endeavoring to bring the wheat market down to to lower level in prices, but all their efforts so far have been fruitless. Sellers are not willing to release any of their holdings unless they obtain prices asked for. They are well aware to $3.60 a barrel and there is no reason why it has done so only that sellers are forcing it up. Wheat was 60 cents a week ago and today it is being quoted at 59 cents with no sell-being quoted at 59 cents with no sell-bei that a number of grain men are short ers and no buyers, but instead of flour tage of the situation to ship wheat dropping or even remaining at what and flour to that point. Wheat Shipments. William Goedeck, who has been at-tending warehouses along the line of the W. & C. R. road during the sum-mer and fall, is in town. Mr. Goed-eck says all of the wheat is in the warehouses and the only thing now is that they are waiting for cars to ship. He will return to Vansycle and Cannon, where he will load 25,000 or 30,000 sacks of wheat for Tacoma for transportation on the water as fast as cars can be secured by the W. & C. R. company.
