

WB

Erect Form

The long hip form is the original long hip corset. It has set the mode in corset styles. The long hip gives that deep graceful dip, rounds off the hips into graceful curves, takes all strain from the abdomen and chest and places it upon the hips and back muscles. Absolutely hygienic. The only corset for the new style skirts.

Form 989 $1.00. Erect Form 990 $1.00
Form 973 $1.25. Erect Form 992 $1.50

There are numerous other models of the WB sets of which you will also find at our store. Complete assortment of styles and sizes.

THE CATHOLIC FAIR

R. ALEXANDER AWARDED THE GOLD-HEADED CANE.

George R. Demott Was Given the Gold-Headed Umbrella—Tonight a Diamond Ring Will Be Given Away.

The Catholic fair continues to draw immense crowds every evening. The Armory hall was crowded last evening until there was not standing room. With the crowds increasing each evening the rest of the week the donations towards the fund for the finishing of the new hospital building grows and at the end of the week when the festivities are closed at the hall, the sisters will have a larger amount of money than the most enthusiastic dreamed of being possible from such a source. All in all, the fair is proving to be far beyond the expectations of the most sanguine.

The rush for articles at the booths increases night after night and last night one or two booths had to close up on account of having no other articles to dispose of.

The event during the evening which attracted the most attention was that of deciding the most popular groceryman and merchant for the cane and umbrella. There were a number of contestants for each and the voting was very spirited, especially for the gold-headed cane, which was to be given to the most popular merchant. R. Alexander came out on top in this contest, and Leon Cohen was second best, with Lee Teutsch third. George R. Demott won the groceryman's prize of a gold-headed umbrella.

The contest for the free room and nursing to be given to the most popular secret society, opened last night and the voting started off very brisk, although it is expected that tonight and tomorrow night will see a great pile of votes rolling in for the different orders. This contest remains open until the close of the fair Saturday evening.

Tonight the contest for the diamond ring will occur. This ring is to be given to the young lady receiving the most votes.

All the articles which have been put up for raffle during the Catholic fair will be raffled off this evening and tomorrow evening and all holding tickets on any article are requested to be present.

A MOUNTAIN SHEEP LUNCH.

Will Be Served at the Sideboard Saturday Evening—Everybody Invited.

Joe Hoch, proprietor of the Sideboard, invites his friends down to his place Saturday evening to eat mountain sheep, which will be free to his customers. It is seldom that the citizens of Pendleton have the chance to partake of this delicious wild meat and it is expected that a rush will be made for the Sideboard tomorrow evening. The sheep was sent down from Idaho by a friend of Mr. Hoch, who captured a doe last spring and raised the one which was killed and shipped here.

IN POLICE COURT.

Two Indians and One White Man Contributed $15 to the City.

Fifteen dollars were contributed to the running expenses of the city this morning at the request of Police Justice Thomas Fitz Gerald by three drunks. They were Albert Barnhart and Henry Pond, Umatilla Indians, picked up in an intoxicated condition last night and lodged in jail, and John Myers, white. Each contributed $5.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy, robust blacksmith, of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50 cents at Tallmann & Co's. drug store.

A Neat Addition.

Brock & McComas, the progressive druggists, have just placed in their store a set of the Improved Springer torsion balance scales which are a very valuable addition to the prescription department. These scales insure the utmost accuracy in the weighing of drugs as they are so perfect in adjustment that the smallest trifle of difference in weight is perceptible. The scales are silver plated and are kept enclosed in a dustproof glass case.

Patrick Bolan, a porter of the Holland House, New York city, was arrested Thursday in a pawnshop, where he was offering a $2500 pearl necklace for $35.

The state land board has approved 38 applications for loans amounting to $49,600.
