WHEAT IS 59 CENTS; EAST-ERN MARKET ADVANCED.
Flour Still Going Up—Eggs Scarce and Butter is Out of Reach.
The local markets are at a standstill with the exception of some very slight changes in flour, cheese, butter and onions.
The local wheat market remains at 59 cents and there is absolutely nothing doing in wheat at all. Although eastern markets have advanced slightly within the past two days owing to the reported Armour corner in Chicago, it has not affected the local market in the least and there is little likelihood of such good luck coming to the farmers unless the corner materializes and proves of much more magnitude than is anticipated on the Pacific Coast.
The continued high price of wheat, however, keeps flour jumping up. One week ago it was selling in the local market for $3.60 a barrel and today is quoted at $3.65 with a still higher tendency. Unless wheat drops pretty soon, flour will be $3.75 locally within the next few days and those who have not laid in their winter supply will have to pay a larger price for flour than they have paid for four years.
Eggs remain at 35 cents and it is impossible to get anything but the crated article to fill the demand. Of course, there are some local fresh eggs, but more of them are those which have been packed, and while they are good eggs, they are not the freshest product.
Butter—country butter—has gone up a notch and is now quoted at 55 cents instead of 50. Dairy butter is still 80 cents and it cannot advance much more without going out of reach. With eggs and butter so high many a man who has to pay the bills for the table is wondering where he is going to get off and is hoping for the lions and cows to call off the strike.
Cheese has advanced from 20 cents a pound to 25 cents. Onions have dropped. The fall crop is now in the market and prices have been forced down a half cent. Instead of being two cents today they are now one and a half cent.
The following shows the prices paid on the local market:
Pineapples, $6 a dozen.
Parsnips, 75c per sack.
Cabbage, 2c per pound.
Cheese, per pound 25c.

Wheat Market.
Portland, Nov. 20.—There is nothing new in the wheat situation at present. Sellers are scarce and the majority of them have withdrawn what grain they have for sale and are waiting to receive more money. Warehouses in the country are filled up with wheat and it is shipped to tide-water whenever the exporter requires any or has room on dock for same. Sales of small lots have been reported daily, but the principal buyers are millers, as they pay from 2 to 3 cents per bushel more than exporters for fancy lots. European markets are slow and have declined on the week that exporters here do not care to buy any more stock at ruling prices. We hear no more of new charters to South Africa, and it looks as if that country has secured all the grain they need. Australian demand in this market has flattened out and only oc-

casual rumors come from California of vessels having been chartered there. The market from now on will be of a dragging character, as fully 80 per cent of the crop has been secured by millers and exporters. The balance will be carried probably over until early spring, with occasional sales made. Quotations for club are from 68c to 70c per bushel; bluestem, 73 to 74c, and valley, 71c per bushel.
San Francisco, Nov. 20.—The deadlock between buyers and sellers on the price of wheat in this market continues. Shipping interests maintain they are firm in their position not to pay more than $1.32 1/2 for choice shipping, as the market abroad does not warrant higher prices. Holders are equally firm as to their views in letting go at these prices and will sell only at $1.35, hence a deadlock between buyer and seller. Rumors have been thick that the latter figure is being paid in the interior, but it is difficult to find any exporter who is claiming that he paid same. Exporters are loading tonnage quite freely, and some good sized lots have come down from Oregon and Washington to fill up vessels on berth. Quotations range from $1.32 1/2 to $1.35 per cental for shipping grades; $1.40 to $1.45 for milling.
Wool Markets.
Boston, Nov. 18.—There continues to be a very active demand for all grades of wool here. There has been more inquiry from manufacturers, and they have been buying freely. The demand has been pretty well distributed over this market all desirable wools being in demand. The market is becoming well cleaned up on scour-wools at the prices recently ruling. The whole situation is one of great firmness, with stocks unusually small for the season. Fine staple territory wools continue in active demand, with prices firmer, and dealers talking at least 5 per cent advance. The tendency is upward, with a very good movement to the mills. Fine staple territory, 56 to 60c; strictly fine, 50 to 55c; fine and medium, 50 to 55c; medium, 45 to 47c. There is a good movement in California wools with prices firm and tending upward. Northern county, cleaned basis, 32 to 55c; middle counties, 48 to 50c; Southern, 45 to 47c; six to eight months, 13 to 14c less. Fine fleece wools were in a very firm position, with sales at full quotations. Australian wools are rather quiet, owing to the small stocks here and light offerings. Comb- ing choice, secured basis, 75 to 80c good, 73 to 76c; average, 72 to 74c.
St. Louis, Nov. 18.—Wool—Un- changed.
Skins, Hides and Pelts.

Roebling-Estabrook.
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 20.—A wedding of note in Chicago today was that of Miss Blanche Estabrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Estabrook, and Mr. Carl P. Roebling, a member of the famous Roebling family of Trenton, N. J., builders of the Brooklyn bridge and other mammoth structures of the kind. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents in Dearborn avenue and was witnessed by a distinguished gathering of society folk from numerous cities. Miss Grace Sanger was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Katherine Grosceup, of Chicago; Miss Geraldine Fearons, of New York; Miss Lillian Wetmore, of New Britain, Connecticut; and Miss Helen Peck, of Omaha. The best man was F. W. Roebling, of New York, and the ushers were Thomas Riggs, Jr., of Washington, Dr. Thomas Smith, of Trenton, and Edward Ford Johnson, of Chicago.
Railroad Matters Discussed.

Railroad Matters Discussed.
Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 20.—The Southern and Southwestern Railroad Club held its annual meeting at Kimball today with a good attendance of representatives of the leading railroads of the territory covered by the association. Among the matters discussed were the following: "Nozzle vs. Diameter," "Steam Heat vs. Stoves," and "The Vanderbilt Fire Box and Tender."

casual rumors come from California of vessels having been chartered there. The market from now on will be of a dragging character, as fully 80 per cent of the crop has been secured by millers and exporters. The balance will be carried probably over until early spring, with occasional sales made. Quotations for club are from 68c to 70c per bushel; bluestem, 73 to 74c, and valley, 71c per bushel.
San Francisco, Nov. 20.—The deadlock between buyers and sellers on the price of wheat in this market continues. Shipping interests maintain they are firm in their position not to pay more than $1.32 1/2 for choice shipping, as the market abroad does not warrant higher prices. Holders are equally firm as to their views in letting go at these prices and will sell only at $1.35, hence a deadlock between buyer and seller. Rumors have been thick that the latter figure is being paid in the interior, but it is difficult to find any exporter who is claiming that he paid same. Exporters are loading tonnage quite freely, and some good sized lots have come down from Oregon and Washington to fill up vessels on berth. Quotations range from $1.32 1/2 to $1.35 per cental for shipping grades; $1.40 to $1.45 for milling.
Wool Markets.
