

15,000 LIVES LOST

President of Guatemala Trying to Conceal the True State of Affairs.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE IN ABSOLUTE DARKNESS SINCE 25TH.

Thousands Lie Beneath the Ashes and Their Bodies Will Never be Recovered—Santa Maria Has Blown Its Head Off.

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—Further details of the disaster in the region of Santa Maria, Guatemala, warrant the belief that the loss of life has been much greater than at first reported.

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—Further details of the disaster in the region of Santa Maria, Guatemala, warrant the belief that the loss of life has been much greater than at first reported.

The volcano of Santa Maria has blown its head off, like Krakatoa and Mt. Pelée, bearing destruction over a great country. It has thrown its ruins flourishing towns and villages, and brought death to their inhabitants in numbers not yet to be known.

Another account of the eruption is given by Dr. Herman Rowe from the station of Chococila, near Mazatenango. Dr. Rowe says that General Barrios was not killed, as was reported, but was insane. Dr. Sapper, an eminent German geologist, has just been heard from, and it is feared he has perished.

Today's Gridiron Battles. New York, Nov. 22.—Of all the ball battles which are to be fought this afternoon, none ranks in importance with the Yale-Harvard contest.

Harvard crimson and the Yale blue are the prominent colors today. From a football standpoint all eyes are turned to the field at New Haven.

Yale appears to be the popular favorite. The team from Cambridge is led by a host of admirers, who expect they will be able to outperform the Yale colors in the dust.

The two elevens are fairly well matched and having accidents the Yale is expected to prove one of the best of the season. Whichever team goes, however, there is no lack of enthusiasm during the game and no end of jollification is in prospect.

The other prominent event scheduled for this afternoon is the contest between Wesleyan and Dartmouth and Brown, at Amherst, and the contest between the University of Virginia and the College of William and Mary, at Norfolk.

At Ithaca, the Yale-Northwestern and Illinois-Chicago, Michigan and Cornell at Ann Arbor, and Nebraska-Columbia University, at Omaha, are the smaller colleges which will be seen in the gridiron, though some have been turned to leave the date open in anticipation of a hard game on Saturday day.

Arrangements of Historical Event. Baltimore, Md., Nov. 22.—Arrangements have been concluded by the Maryland Agricultural College for the annual celebration and banquet to be held this evening at the University of Maryland.

The speaker of the evening is to be President Sylvester Wright, of the Maryland Agricultural College, which is marked on the calendar as St. Cecilia's, has a doubtless place for the society, as it is the anniversary of the sailing of the Ark and Dove from Cowes, England, in 1632. This vessel was the one from which disembarked the first settlers of Maryland who were led by Lord Baltimore.

Today is the 269th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth, Mass.

Cross-Country Running. New York, Nov. 22.—Interest in the annual six-mile championship cross-country run of the Intercollegiate Association, which takes place over the Morris course and has as contestants Cornell, Princeton, Yale and Pennsylvania.

Krupp Dead. New York, Nov. 22.—Baron Krupp, the great industrialist, died at his home in Essen this afternoon.

INVESTIGATE POINT LOMA.

Commission of Immigration Wires to Withhold Action on Mrs. Tingley's Colony.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Commissioner of Immigration Frank P. Sargent is at Point Loma, investigating the Tingley school this afternoon. He wired the treasury department to withhold all action in the case until his return to Washington next Saturday. He states that he is in possession of important information. The department will accede to his request.

CZARINA DYING.

American Physician Called For Consultation, Declared That Medicine Was Useless.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 22.—The condition of the czarina, who has been dangerously ill for several weeks is now regarded as hopeless. Dr. Hulan, of New York, who was brought for a special consultation with the court physicians, today declared that medicine was useless.

SARGENT RETICENT.

Says From Outward Appearances. Point Loma is All Right, But Gives No Hint of His Report.

San Diego, Nov. 22.—Commissioner Sargent and Congressman Daniels spent last night at the Universal Brotherhood at Point Loma and are now waiting for testimony against the institution. Daniels expressed his strong approval of the institution and said Sargent says from all appearances the institution is all right, but declines to forecast his official report.

SUMPTER NATIONAL BANK.

Well Known Citizens of Eastern Oregon Launch New Business.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The controller of the currency has authorized the organization of the First National Bank of Sumpter, Ore.; capital, $25,000; incorporators, R. H. Miller, J. W. Scriber, N. C. Richards, J. H. Robbins, Ed W. Mueller.

Got Little Booty.

Chicago, Nov. 22.—The Rock Island official report of the Davenport train robbery says that the five robbers secured only $50 from the company and the contents of a small express safe, amount unknown, but it is believed to be small.

WAS UNPROVOKED

FITZGERALD ATTACKS HUNTER IN GUATEMALA CITY.

Son of American Minister Kills Fitzgerald, Who Had Snapped His Pistol in His Face.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The state department received a telegram from Minister Hunter of Guatemala today. He says his son and Bailey were talking when Fitzgerald attacked them unprovoked, and snapped his pistol in his son's face, when the latter shot and killed him.

To Consecrate Russian Church.

New York, Nov. 22.—Tomorrow will mark an epoch in the history and progress of the Russian Orthodox church in the western world. The occasion will be the consecration of the new Russian Orthodox church of St. Nicholas. The Russian bishop of the United States, Bishop Tikhon, has come from the Pacific coast to officiate at the ceremony, and nearly all the Russian priests of the country will be present. The consecration service is expected to last fully three hours. Seats will be provided for the invited guests, among whom will be the Russian ambassador and consul, but ordinarily there are no seats in Russian churches, the congregation standing or kneeling throughout the long services. The new church edifice was erected at a cost of $140,000, much of the money having been given by the Holy synod of Russia and the czar. The architecture is of the pure Byzantine type, the structure being surmounted by the five domes which are always to be seen on the Greek Catholic churches. While it will be the place of worship for the Russians residing in this city, it is also designed to be the eastern seat of Bishop Tikhon, and apartments have been provided for him in the minister's residence adjoining the church.

STILL EAT AT MEACHAM.

Temporary Arrangements Made to Feed Passengers at Eating Station.

Passengers on train No. 6, will still be furnished breakfast at Meacham, although the Log Cabin is now a heap of ashes. Arrangements have been made, temporarily, with B. F. Martin, of the Meacham hotel, to serve breakfast at that place until further permanent buildings are erected at Meacham, or the eating station discontinued. It will greatly inconvenience the traveling public to miss the regulation Log Cabin breakfast, which has been served without interruption for the past eight years. The O. R. & N. has not yet determined on future plans with regard to rebuilding.

ARBITRATION COMMISSION ADJOURNS TO DECEMBER 3

Coal Operators Will Attempt to Bring the Miners to Satisfactory Terms Before That Date.

NON-UNIONISTS ARE HIGHLY GRATIFIED WITH THE CHANCE OF OUTSIDE SETTLEMENT.

Burns Declares That a Condition of Anarchy Exists in the Mining Region—Insists on an Expression from the Commission—In the Independent Mines the Men He Says Get an Average of $700—Union Miners Are Silent.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 22.—When the arbitration commission met this morning, Attorney Darrow announced that the questions at issue had been taken up last night and all parties had hopes of a settlement outside of the commission, therefore he asked for adjournment. Judge Gray said that he would fix the date for December third.

A surprise came when Attorney Burns for the independent operators said that his clients had not been consulted regarding the settlement, that they were parties to the issue before the court and had been regularly admitted as such, therefore he wanted the issue threshed out before the commission. He argued that an agreement reached before the commission would be more lasting.

Judge Gray interposed and declared that the independents were anticipating the issue of the commission's attitude as that of viewing the proceedings contemplated as a step in the right direction in which it held itself at all times ready to assist.

Burns then read a statement placing the attitude of the independents on record and said that neither the wage issue nor the recognition of the union were considered vital points in the minds of the clients. He further said that the condition of anarchy existed in the mining regions and it was the purpose of the independents to insist on an expression from the American people through the commission, thereby placing the seal of disapproval on all future acts of lawlessness, intimidation and terrorism.

He said that he would also dispute the statements concerning the wages, and would show that the miners of the independent companies receive on some cases as high as $700 yearly on some cases as high as $1200. He said they wanted something more than temporary peace.

Wilcox, counsel for the Delaware & Hudson railroad denied that the last night's meeting was a formal one, but said it was only for the purpose of making an attempt for outside settlement between now and December 3rd.

Lannahan, counsel for the non-unionists said that his clients were highly gratified with the chance of an outside settlement.

Darrow said that there was no disposition to debar the independents from the meeting of the counsel. Judge Gray appointed E. E. Clark, T. H. Watkins and E. W. Parker on a committee to remain and assist in the conciliation of operators and miners and then declared adjournment until December 3rd.

GOT $3000.

WHAT FEDERATION MEANS.

An Extract From President Gompers' Address Before the Labor Convention at New Orleans.

"We meet in solid phalanx, regardless of creed, regardless of dogma. With national pride, but without international prejudice. The world is our field of action, and man is our brother. We not only proclaim, under the unsullied and untarnished banner of trade unionism, but live the principles of liberty, equality, fraternity and justice. Ours is an affiliation of men of like interests, and of a kindred spirit. It is the natural growth of sentiment for unity that binds and seals the compact for harmony, fidelity and fellowship. Our cause demands that there is no worker so deep down in the abyss of misery and despair that we dare refuse to extend a helping hand in his uplifting; that there is no high pinnacle of grandeur to which the toiling masses should not aspire to attain. The trade unions are of, by, and for the wage-workers primarily, but there is no effort which we in our movement can make but what will have its beneficent, salutary influence upon all our people. The misery of the past, the struggles of the present, and the duty for the future demand that no effort be left untried, that all energy be exercised, and opportunity taken advantage of, to organize the toilers of our country upon the broad platform of the trade union, in full affiliation with the American Federation of Labor. The dim, dismal past, with all its pain and travail, must give way to the better and brighter future for which the workers have borne the burdens, and made the sacrifice that the people of our time, and for all time, may be truly free."

CONVENIENT CURRENCY.

Bill to be Presented, Which Will Facilitate the Sending of Money Through Mail.

The fifty-seventh congress will reassemble in a few weeks and it is widely hoped that a part of its work will be the passage of the Post Check Currency bill, which provides a practical and convenient method of sending small sums of money by mail. A great deal has been written on this subject, and there are a few who do not know that this method is simply an issue of currency that can be circulated as cash and also be safely remitted by mail, because when mailed it will be made payable only to the person whose name is written in the blank space that is left for that purpose.

Under the present money order system safety can be assured only at the sacrifice of convenience, and convenience can be consulted only by disregarding the element of safety. The Post Check plan is both convenient and safe, and, being so, it is just what the public needs in its line. The business interests and the press favor it with virtual if not actual unanimity, and, in fact, the full measure of popularity it has won is a warrant, if not an order, for its adoption by congress.

BILLIONS OF GOLD DISAPPEAR.

Fowler Says Under Present System Europe Can Shovel All it Wants From Our Treasury.

Congressman Fowler delivered a significant speech on withdrawals of gold by Europe before the American Bankers' Association at New Orleans. He said in part: "During the past five years—which has been a wonderful period in the history of this country—the balance of trade in favor of the United States has been $2,700,000,000. Add to that our production of gold of about $300,000,000 and the grand total is $3,000,000,000. Judging from that we ought to have $3,000,000,000 more than we had in 1898. How much have we added? We have added just $200,000,000 as a matter of fact. We have approximately $1,500,000,000 of money and we have on the other side coming due in the next three or four months about $300,000,000 of obligations.

"How are we going to stop the gold going to England? It is impossible. The whole of Europe can come into our treasury and shovel it out by the bucketful. Such a condition would not exist if the United States notes were retired and the burden was thrown on the banks.

"Never was there a greater need than now for a financial system in this country. What we have is simply a catch as catch can, go as you please sort of arrangement. The 30,000,000 people in this country who are converting their products into $20,000,000,000 annually and sending exchange bounding above the hundred billion mark are entitled to a system that is above the caprice of a secretary of the treasury."

Mrs. Dearborn—They tell me your cook is an angel. Mr. Wabash—I reckon she is. She tried to light the fire with kerosene this morning.—Yonkers Statesman.

Mrs. Julia Dent Grant, widow of the late President Grant, is seriously ill at her home in Washington, D. C.

PRESIDENT IN PHILADELPHIA.

Will Attend the Founders' Day Banquet of the Union League Club.

Philadelphia, Nov. 22.—For the second time within a few weeks, President Roosevelt is a guest of the city of Philadelphia. The president, accompanied by nearly all the members of his official family, reached the city from Washington at noon today and was met at the Broad Street station by a distinguished reception committee. The primary object of the chief executive's visit is to attend the Founders' Day banquet of the Union League Club, but as this function does not take place until this evening, the distinguished visitors spent a portion of the afternoon in attending the dedication of the new boys' high school. The president was given an enthusiastic welcome by the pupils and in the course of an hour spent at the school he delivered a brief informal talk to the scholars, teachers, alumni and others who were present. Later in the afternoon the president and his cabinet officers were guests at luncheon given by former Postmaster-General Charles Emory Smith, and this function was followed by a reception at the home of Edward T. Stotesbury.

The banquet at the Union League Club this evening promises to be one of the most brilliant affairs of the kind Philadelphia has seen in a long time. In addition to the president and other distinguished visitors from Washington, the guests will include the state officials of Pennsylvania and other men of prominence. Joseph G. Darlington, president of the club, will act as toastmaster and the speakers will all be men of national prominence.

England Orders Machinery Here.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 22.—American electrical machinery is to be installed on an extensive scale in several of the more important English and Welsh collieries, contracts having just been closed with a Pittsburg company, which will represent an expenditure of considerably over $1,000,000. The principal contract call for a 4000-horse power plant to be erected in the collieries of the Staveley Coal & Iron Company, of Chesterfield, English Midlands. Another important contract is from the Sney Colliery Company, at Burslem, Staffordsire, where a 1500-horse power equipment will be used. The Byers Green colliery at Auckland, north of England, has also ordered from the same firm an extensive electric coal cutting equipment.

YALE'S BIG SCORE

Football Enthusiasts Treated to a Good Game, Despite Harvard's Goose Egg.

CROWD LUSTILY CHEERS THE GIANT RIVALS.

Delightful Weather Adds to the Gaiety Appearance of the Battle Royal Today.

New Haven, Nov. 22.—The football game here today between Yale and Harvard ended in a score of 23 to 0 in favor of Yale. The weather was fine and an immense crowd witnessed the game which was a very fine exhibition regardless of the high score run up by the Yale team.

In the first half Yale scored 12 points by some of the most brilliant plays ever witnessed in Chicago on the football gridiron. The last half was almost as sensational and 10 points were made by the Yale boys. Considerable money changed hands on the game. The betting was strong up to the middle of the last half of the game, the friends of the Harvard team refusing to acknowledge defeat until the contest was finally ended.

Illinois 17; Northwestern 0. Chicago, Nov. 22.—The Illinois independent team played the Northwestern League eleven here today, which resulted in a score of 17 to 0 in favor of the Illinois team. This game was a very exciting one and up to the beginning of the last half honors were even with the favors slightly on the side of the Northwestern League team. In the last half the tables turned against them and the Illinois boys won an easy victory.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY. Starts Out to Hunt Trouble and Contributes to Judge Fitz Gerald's Account.

A man who gave his name as L. C. Brown, but whose real name is withheld, was fined $10 in police court Friday for being drunk and disorderly. "Brown" is a clerk in the grocery store on Court street and he concluded that he was the whole show after having filled up on fighting booze. However, he did not get out and offer to fight any men, but proceeded to clean out everyone in sight with his pocketknife. This was easily done as none cared to stand up in front of him and he carried. He had an ugly looking knife in his hand and threatened to kill everyone he saw. The police were called and they soon landed him and after he sobered up he was duly repentant. Judge Fitz Gerald gave him a wholesome lecture on the "evils of his way," and it is not likely that "Brown" will again go wrong.

Squaws Fight. Two infuriated Indian squaws started in to settle their difficulties in a regular hair-pulling encounter in the middle of Court street this afternoon. When pulled apart little damage was noticeable on either combatant, but both were bespattered with mud until they were unrecognizable by their own people.

County Court in Session. County court is in session today for the purpose of acting on the application of Helix to become incorporated. The date of the special election is fixed for December 10, and if a majority of the citizens vote for the incorporation the court will approve the vote and the town will be duly incorporated.

Indians Galore. The town is filled with Indians today who came in to root for their favorites at the football game. The W. & C. R. train brought 25 or 30 women and men from along its line and many came in on horseback. They all have on their team colors which is red and yellow.

Sheep to Huntington. Twenty-five cars of sheep will leave the O. R. & N. yard this evening for Huntington. They are sheep which have been bought up from Umatilla county sheep men by Minger & McDonald.

THE SOUTH POLE MINE is now working a large force of men on tunnels No. 1 and 2. All supplies for the winter are now at the mine and from the increased showing resulting from last two weeks' work, the management will be justified in raising the price of stock within a few weeks. We own 4941 feet on the celebrated North Pole Hill. Our present tunnel and workings show our mine to be the richest on the entire mother lode. Present Price 15c Per Share. Maps, photographs.
