Small Audience Greeted the Threadbare Theme at Frazer's Last Night.
The James Boys in Missouri was presented at the Frazer last night to an average audience, although the house was not packed as usual. The least said about the play the better. Some of the specialties were fairly good, especially those of Lige and Eliza, the colored specialists, but to take the cast as a whole it was second class. In the first place it is questionable whether or not such a play should be allowed on the American stage. It has been prohibited in many cities in the East and savors of blood and thunder. There is a hint of rowdyism all through it, which is not elevating to the young.

TODAY'S FOOTBALL

INDIANS COMPETE WITH HIGH SCHOOL TEAM.

Game Now in Progress, One of the Most Interesting of the Season—Both Teams in Pink of Condition.
Today the fight is on between the Umatilla Indians and the local high school football team for supremacy in the football field. The game was called at 2:30, but was too late for any report of the results to be published today. The Indians are in fine fettle and went into the ring with the determination, usual among the Red men, aiming to win or go down to defeat in one of the hardest struggles of their lives.
The high school boys are also in the pink of condition. They are at least 15 pounds to the man lighter than the Indians, but they expect to make up this disadvantage with skill. The game will mean much to strengthen the high school team for the fray with the Baker City team on Thanksgiving.
From all indications the Baker and the local high school teams are evenly matched and one of the fiercest battles of the season is looked forward to Thursday. The locals defeated the Westor Normal team here two weeks ago by a score of 6 to 0 and the Baker City team defeated the Normal team by the same score which it will be a battle royal for the honors.
The Baker City team has carried off 175 honors in the past, but the local high school team has the strongest team it has ever had and it expects to win the day this time, thereby winning back some of the lost honors.
A full report of the game will be given Monday.

Pendleton Wins—6 to 0.
As the forms are being closed, the football game ends with a score of 6 to 0 in favor of the Pendleton high school team. The Umatilla team put up an excellent game, but were a little slow.

WESTON ITEMS.

Hollenshead Returned to His Home—Dr. House Arrives—Deep Snow in the Mountains.
Weston, Nov. 22.—William Hollenshead was detained here by the officers and returned to his home in Prescott, Wash., his friends claiming that he was in a demented condition. Hollenshead came to Weston last Sunday and Tuesday he began to work with a carpenter crew on some of the new houses going up there. A few hours after going to work a telephone message was received from Frederick inquiring for him.
When asked where he came from the man could not tell. Otherwise he acted sane enough and was well dressed. He had left his home two weeks ago, going to Walla Walla with a friend. While in that city he became unbalanced and wandered away, landing in this city.
Dr. William House has arrived from Pendleton to take the medical practice of Dr. J. A. Best. Dr. House at once began his work and made a favorable impression on Weston's people. He has taken Dr. Best's former office and home and his wife will arrive soon to join the doctor.
Teamsters from Fletcher's mill, in the mountains, report that there is a three and a half feet of snow at the mill. Eight miles from Weston the snow is reported to be a foot deep and two feet is said to have fallen on Wild Horse mountain. This surely has the ring of winter and many are predicting no more seeding this fall.
Word comes from Miss Fannie Wilson, formerly connected with the normal school here, saying that she is now principal of the high school at Charles City, Iowa.

ADAMS NOTES.

Citizen's Ticket in the Field Headed by B. A. Marquis—Land Sells for $50 an Acre.
Adams, Nov. 22.—A citizen's ticket has been placed in the field to be voted upon at the coming city election. Not a large crowd was present but the unanimous consent of the meeting was for the nomination of B. A. Marquis as mayor of the town to succeed J. T. Lousallen. The other nominations were: J. E. Cherry, city treasurer; F. B. Willis, marshal; F. W. Kimberk, J. O. Hales, William Baker, John Winn and I. T. Lousallen, councilmen.
Leonard G. Pell, of the firm of Harala, Hendrickson & Co., has purchased the interests of the other two members of the firm and will conduct the general merchandise business alone in the future.
Eugene Dehaven, an extensive farmer until recently of the Greer Spring neighborhood has sold his Greer Spring farm of 160 acres for $50 an acre and has purchased a large tract of land near Yeakum station, where he will hereafter reside.
B. L. Simpson, who was very sick with typhoid fever for several weeks, is now able to be up and about the house, but he has not yet ventured down town.
The suits for the Adams' football team have arrived and it is expected arrangements will soon be made for a game with some of Umatilla county's alleged champions.
Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, of Pendleton, is visiting friends in Adams.
Fined $10.
John Williams was fined $10 by Police Judge Fitz Gerald this afternoon for being drunk and disorderly. Williams is a stranger here, but has plenty of money. The police took nearly $300 in cash from him when he was arrested and a deposit check on a Seattle bank for $200 more.

"Pennsylvania" will have its first production here at the Frazer theater next Tuesday, Nov. 24 at 8:15. The piece is the joint work of Daniel L. Hart, whose "Parish Priest" scored such a hit last season, and C. F. Callahan, who has been writing popular plays for the past 25 years. The scenes are laid in the neighborhood of Wilkesbarre, and deal with mining life in that locality. The play requires a large cast and includes such sterling players as Willis Marble, Jr., Jew Kelley, Fred Fairbanks and Rance Darcy. Seats will be on sale at Frazer's book store Monday morning at 5 o'clock.
