The ideal life, the life of full completion, haunts us all. We feel the thing we ought to be, beating beneath the thing we are.—Phillip Brooks.

Judge Eakin decides that the Grande anti-gambling ordinance is valid, and the fines imposed under it must be paid.

The establishment of a special Dairy Department in the Oregon Agricultural College, adds a much needed branch to this institution.

A newspaper for Pilot Rock and municipal government to be given Helix, are two advance items of Thanksgiving for Umatilla county.

With freight rates reduced between Portland and Eastern Oregon points, another figure will be added to our bank accounts, east of the Cascades.

If the scientists advance in the next two years as they have in the two years just past, Tom Johnson can make his next campaign in the flying machine, instead of the automobile.

The tide has turned. It is no longer the "uncivilized west." The train robberies, burglaries, murders and disgraceful escapades of the East have made the epithet most appropriate to that section.

The equilibrium of the prison population is fully maintained. Union and Baker counties have lost four members through jail breaks, but the Walla Walla penitentiary gained 17 in one day, to offset the shortage.

Vol. 1, No. 1, of The Exposition, a magazine published in Portland, in the interest of the Lewis and Clark fair, is now before the public. It is edited by Mrs. Edith Tozier Wethered, and is neat, picturesque and timely.

Many exchanges are now discussing the various means of reducing crime. Down in the Choctaw nation they neither fine nor imprison a criminal; they whip him for a small offense and shoot him for the greater one. It is an effective antidote for crime.

The Heppner Gazette wails: "Tomorrow county, with a vast territory in need of irrigation, has not a representative at the irrigation convention." Never mind, brother, you were taken care of by your friends. You can come to Pendleton in a body next year, and your score will be even.

Oregon, Illinois and Iowa have no state debts, that are matured and payable. Oregon has about $1000 outstanding against her in small items. Illinois and Iowa have a transient account of $18,000 each, but there is no great state debt in either of these states. Alabama has an indebtedness of $9,500,000 and Pennsylvania, $7,800,000.

The bill before the French chamber of deputies forbidding the marriage of the "halt, lame, blind and helpless," is not original with the French. Representative Carter, of Jackson county, Oregon, had such a bill in his inside pocket at the last session of the legislature, but on account of there being so many unmarried men among the members, it was not introduced.

The smoke from the senatorial fight is already spreading over the state. Whatever else the legislature does, it should be good. The people voted five to one for the initiative and referendum and this is only a foretaste of the legislation that will follow, if the costly farce at the capital does not cease. Please let patriotism give the state a good man, and a good appropriation for the fair.

A man named Jackson was elected to congress from the 13th Ohio district this year in an extraordinary manner. He is a democrat, but the district is 90-9 republican. Jackson owns a factory and employs 2000 girls. Just before election he gave them a two week's holiday with no loss of time. He made them a neat little speech, recounting the pleasant feeling that had always existed in the factory. The result was that he was elected by 2000 majority.

The failure of the special session, project will serve to harmonize the conflicting elements of the regular session. The Fair appropriation and the election of a United States senator will bring the different sections of the state into closer sympathy. The patriotism of the legislature should forbid any unpleasant division, in the presence of such a glorious undertaking as the '05 fair, in which we expect to be aided and encouraged by the entire Northwest.

On December 2, a special election will be held in the city of San Francisco, to decide whether that city and county shall be bonded for the sum of $700,000, for the purpose of building a street railway system. It will be one of the most important events in the history of California, as it will in a measure, decide the status of the public ownership idea in California politics. The hearty support given to Mayor Schmitz, a labor leader, indicates that voters are much more independent in San Francisco than in other cities of its proportions and situation.

INDIAN WAR VETERANS.

The Oregon legislature, at its coming session, is to be asked to issue $300,000 in state bonds bearing 4 per cent interest, to be used in payment of the services of surviving veterans of the Indian wars of 1855-6.

The Oregon territorial legislature at the session of 1855-6, passed a measure promising to pay soldiers participating in the Indian campaigns of the time, $2 per day for their services. The muster rolls show that the Indian fighters served in all 371,449 days under the terms of the act. Neither the territory of Oregon, however, nor the state of Oregon, after its admission to the Union, has ever redeemed the pledge.

Subsequently, however, the federal government paid the veterans a sum equal to 55 cents per day for the time each served. The balance now due under the arrangement is about $520,000. The veterans figure that two-fifths of their number have died without leaving widows or orphans, and they believe about $300,000 would be a proper sum to square off the old account.—Roseburg Review.

LOOK OUT FOR CATARRH

The cold-wave flag means zero weather, icy, moisture-laden winds, and the beginning of winter in earnest. To Catarrh sufferers there is nothing cheering in these climatic changes, for with the return of cold weather, all the disagreeable symptoms of Catarrh appear: blinding headaches, dizziness, a stuffy feeling about the nose, that makes breathing difficult, chest pains, and as the disease progresses, a discharge of nauseating matter from the throat and nose keeps one continually hawking and spitting. Catarrh is a most disgusting disease. The foul mucous secretions that are constantly dropping back into the stomach contaminate and poison the blood and is distributed throughout the body, and it then becomes a deep-seated, systemic, persistent disease that must be treated through the blood, for it is beyond the reach of sprays, washes, powders or external treatment of any kind.

S. S. S. soon clears the system of all Catarrhal matter and purges the blood of the irritating poisons, thus effectually checking the further progress of this serious and far reaching disease.

Look out for Catarrh in winter, for cold stirs the blood and causes excessive secretion of mucus and brings to life all the slumbering poisons that make Catarrh the most abominable of all diseases. S. S. S. keeps the blood in such perfect order that cold waves cause no alarm and change from the heat of summer to the rigors of winter produce no hurtful effects. Write us if you have Catarrh, and our Physicians will advise you without charge. Book on Blood and Skin Diseases free.

not an honor to be refused by anyone," says W. R. Hearst. "You say it is said that the presidential candidate two years from now appears to meet with favor among laboring people. If so, I am very glad of it, not only for the reason that it might help to gratify any ambition which I may be held to cherish toward the presidency, but because it indicates that the much I have striven to do and the little I have accomplished for American labor has been appreciated by those for whom I sought and still seek to aid.

"This labor question has not been a fad with me. As a large employer of labor for years, I have given the subject all the consideration I was capable of, and I think the fact that I have never had any serious difficulty with any of my employees is in some degree attributable to the fact that I have tried to put into practice some of the theories I hold."
