TOOK THE MONEY

WM. HICKEY PLAYS THE POLICEMAN ROLE.

Induces Stranger to Leave His Money in His Care—Told the Man He Was a Deputy Sheriff.

The East Oregonian was informed by William Hickey Wednesday that the man who claimed to have been robbed here a few days previous had left his money with the Penland Bros. He further stated that the man deposited the money and left next morning without calling for the same, and that he could get it by calling at the lodging house.

The truth of the matter is that Mr. Hickey took the stranger to Penland's lodging house, displayed a star and revolver and took $148.30 from the man for safe keeping, after posing as a deputy sheriff.

Next morning the stranger failed to locate Mr. Hickey and went to Walla Walla without recovering the money.

The sheriff, apprised of the fact that Mr. Hickey had posed as an officer, hunted him up to get an explanation. Hickey promised to come to town and turn over the money, but failed to do so. Instead of this, he went to Walla Walla in search of the man whose money he held.

On Wednesday evening this stranger again appeared in this city and succeeded in recovering most of the money left with Hickey.

The version of the story told by Mr. Hickey placed the responsibility of holding the stranger's money on Penland Bros., who had nothing whatever to do with the proceeding. The actions of Hickey, to say the least, are very strange. He has on several occasions posed as a special officer, and it seems on this occasion used this would-be authority to a bad purpose.

OMAN AND MORRIS HELD OVER TO NEXT COURT.

Young Finch Pleads Guilty of Forgery and Implicates Loss Oman as His Accomplice—Bennett and Jordan Sentenced.

This afternoon five men were taken before Judge W. R. Ellis, of the district court to plead to charges of crimes. Loss Oman was the first one to be called before the court. He is charged jointly with V. E. Finch with uttering forged checks. He pleaded not guilty and his trial will come up at the next term of court.

Finch, his co-partner and the leader in the check forging business, was up next. He pleaded guilty and in doing so implicated Oman, saying that Oman was with him when he wrote the checks and that the money was divided between them.

Morris, Bennett, and Jordan were then asked to plead on the charge of larceny from a store, they being the men who are charged with entering D. B. Richardson's store at Helix and taking a lot of cheap jewelry therefrom. Morris pleaded not guilty, while Jordan and Bennett pleaded guilty. The judge then sentenced them to six years each in state's prison. Finch waived time and will be sentenced at 10 o'clock Monday.

In sentencing Bennett and Jordan Judge Ellis gave them a wholesome lecture. One of these men is an old man and the judge said it was particularly sad to have to pass sentence upon an old man. He said there was an honest pathway open for all men who wanted to work for a living.

Morris will have his trial at the next term of court and it is likely that he will get about twice as heavy a sentence as his partners in crime, as the charge of burglary will be lodged against him as well as that of larceny from a building.

UMATILLA COUNTY MINES.

T. L. Brophy, Pioneer Mining Man, Believes Vast Nitrate Deposits Exist in This County.

Thomas L. Brophy, a mining expert and veteran metallurgist of Eastern Oregon, now located in Spokane, spent Thursday in this city. Mr. Brophy has been for 20 years a firm and tireless advocate of the great richness of the Umatilla county nitrate deposits and is hopeful as ever of the ultimate establishment of the nitrate industry as one of our most valued business acquisitions.

The Use of Nitrates.

Nitrates enter into the manufacture of black powder and at the present time, the vast amount of this mineral used in the United States is imported from Chili. The demand for it is so great that the Chilean mines are taxed to their utmost capacity and orders for their output for years in advance are now being filled. The mining of the nitrates does not require the heavy and expensive machinery used in gold and silver mining. It is an inexpensive process and can be handled by local capital. Nitrates comprise one-third of the ingredients of common black powder. The other component parts being powdered charcoal and flour of sulphur. It is also used in the manufacture of dynamite, nitric acid and other chemical properties and has a high market value.

WITH ENTHUSIASM

PENDELTON PEOPLE HANDLE CLUB HOUSE PROPOSITION.

Lot Can be Purchased for $5,000 and Building Can be Erected for $15,000
Great enthusiasm prevailed Wednesday evening, at the mass meeting held in the club rooms of the Commercial Association for the purpose of talking over the new club house proposition.

Jesse Failling, chairman of the committee appointed from the Commercial Association, reported that his committee has examined the plans drawn by Architect Troutman and that they were found to be satisfactory. He stated that the lot selected could be purchased for $5,000, the building erected for $12,000 and furnished for $3,000. This makes a total of $20,000 necessary for the success of the undertaking.

George Hartman, Jr., then reported as chairman of the committee from the young men, and said that his committee was favorably impressed with the plans as drawn and that they would endorse them. He felt sure that the building could be erected if every one interested would take hold and work.

The consensus of opinion of those present was that the organization be incorporated for $20,000. It was also decided that a committee should be appointed to solicit subscriptions and to see how much money could be raised.

This committee has not yet been named as President Cohen wished to have time to select suitable men.

There was an exquisitely decorated salad set in new school designs; a Haviland bread tray with fillet gold bands and elaborate scrolls; a cake set, consisting of a large square shape plate with cut-out corners, and center richly decorated with floral spray, and six small plates to match. Other equally artistic creations in china were scattered over the table. We could not help but notice that the paper wrappers were marked
