FREE MAIL DELIVERY

WILL BE BEGUN MONDAY MORNING.

Telegram Received From Washington by Postmaster Livermore—Hours of Delivery and Location of Mail Boxes.

Postmaster Lot Livermore received a telegram from Washington, D. C., at 4:15 Friday announcing that the free delivery would be begun in Pendleton Monday morning.

This was good news to the postmaster, as he had promised the people the free delivery by the first of December, but had just about made up his mind that the thing would again be postponed.

The names of the carriers have not yet been given out. The local post-office employees know them, but refuse to give the names until it is ascertained whether or not the ones selected by the government will accept. Some of those who took the examinations are in some other vocation, which they will not want to give up for the government job. If any of them refuse to take the position, others will have to be appointed and it is thought best not to give the names until it is sure they will take their places.

The posts have been set and the boxes will be placed Monday morning. Thereafter all who have their mail addressed with their street and numbers will have it brought to their doors without further delay. Otherwise residents will have to make proper application for the delivery. Application blanks are at the postoffice for all to fill out who wish their mail delivered. When mail has no street or number these blanks will have to be filled out and returned to the postoffice before the mail can be delivered.

Hours of Delivery.
 There will be three distributions daily. The first delivery will leave the postoffice at 6:45 a. m. and go only into the business portion. The second will leave at 9 a. m., which will go to all the resident and business portions, while the third delivery will leave the office at 6:45 p. m. and will be to the business houses only.

There will be no Sunday delivery, but citizens may get their mail by calling at the office at the same hours the windows are open now.

Registered letters will be delivered and carriers will also collect mail if stamped properly, but the carriers will not be allowed to take money with which to put the stamps on after arriving at the office. All mail to go to the postoffice must be handed to the carriers or put in the boxes at the various corners, where they will be located.

Mail Boxes.

There will be one dozen of these boxes, situated as follows: One at Court and Stonewall Jackson streets, Court and Vincent, Court and Johnson, Main and Webb, Main and Alta, Alta and Alta, Calvin and Alta, Maple and Webb, Bush and Jackson, College and Webb, Cosbie and Bluff, Hope and Court.

With the establishment of free delivery all one cent letters will be abolished. Any letter to be delivered in the city must have two cents on it or it will be held for more postage.

FOOTBALL THIS AFTERNOON.

Pendleton Academy and Milton College Combat for Honors on the Local Field.

A contest is on this afternoon between the Pendleton Academy and the Milton College football teams, on the Alta street football grounds.

The college eleven arrived on the afternoon mixed train and were taken from the depot to the grounds in a bus provided by the academy management. The visitors were all ready dressed for the fray. This is the second game between these two teams. One week ago the academy played the college team on their own grounds and defeated them by a score of six to nothing. The academy team has strengthened considerably since that time and it is thought to be a harder foe to cope with than when the first game was played. The college team is also said to be much stronger than when the first game was played and this is making the game more interesting.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED.

Judge Fitz Gerald Gives Young Man an Opportunity to Improve His Conduct.

Frank Sherban, charged by William Harrison with breaking windows out of his home, was released by Justice Fitz Gerald Friday afternoon pending good behavior. Harrison swore out a warrant for the young man early yesterday forenoon saying that Sherban had been annoying him considerably lately and he wished to have it stopped. Some of the witnesses were sure they saw Sherban throw a stone through Harrison's window while others were just as sure that it was not Sherban. In view of the counter evidence, sentence was suspended pending Sherban's good behavior.

Comet to Pass Near Mercury.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 29.—Calculations made at the Harvard University show that the comet B. 1902, this evening will pass within 1,644,000,000 miles of Mercury. Effects of the disturbance upon the planet can, therefore be determined so accurately that a good value of the mass may be obtained. It is expected the comet will be visible after passing its perihelion.
