Bangor. Me., Dec. 1.—The Christmas tree industry has got an early start in Maine this year, and already carloads and even vessel loads are going forward to the large cities. Only a few years ago the fir tree was loked upon as rather a nuisance in this state, because it grew as rank as burdock, crowding out better growths, and was of no earthly use, save as it might be considered an ornament to the landscape. Now the fir no longer despised, is a source of considerable pounds, no brand visible. the landscape.
