COMMERCE - TRADE

FARMERS NOW HOLDING GRAIN FOR 65 CENTS.

An Exceptional Demand for Bluestem —Millers of the Northwest and the South African Millers Are Booming the Market.

The local wheat market is yet at a standstill. For the past month only a very few scattering lots have passed from the hands of the farmers into the hands of the local dealers for export trade. Millers have bought a few lots but most of their 1902-3 supply was bought several weeks ago and before the price reached the 60-cent mark.

When any quotations are given out at all by local dealers they refuse to quote anything above 62 cents, but it is said that some farmers have been offered a little higher figure than this. In fact, several lots have sold for a few cents higher figure and others who have not sold are holding for 64 cents and 65 cents a bushel, confidently believing that it will reach this notch or, perhaps, more before it again drops.

The price of wheat has effected the price of flour considerably and it is quoted at the highest figure today that it has reached for the past three years. Two weeks ago flour was quoted locally at $3.65 a barrel and today it is selling at $4. Local dealers and mill men refuse to state whether they think it will still go higher or not, but from the wise look they get on their faces when the matter is mentioned it is evident that they think the top notch has not yet been reached.

Sugar is the only other staple article of the local market that has advanced in price. It is now quoted at $5.70 a sack against $5.50 a week ago. Instead of the local dealer selling the consumer 16 pounds for $1 they will only sell 15 pounds for this price now. At one time and for several months, sugar was down to $5 a sack, for the very best grade of granulated. This was caused by a fight between refiners and jobbers but they have patched up their differences and sugar is again resuming its normal price.

The following shows the prices paid on the local market: Pineapples, $6 a dozen.
Parsnips, 75c per sack.
Cabbage, 2c per pound.
Cheese, per pound 25c.
Onions, 1 1/2c per pound.
Green onions, 25c per doz.
Beets, per pound, 1 1/2c.
Potatoes, $1 per hundred.
Garlic, 12 1/2c per pound.
Pendleton Live Stock and Poultry.
Chickens, hens, per dozen, $2.50 to $3.50.
Turkeys, per lb., 10c.
Geese, per doz., $9.
Spring chickens, per doz., $2.50 and $3.
Ducks, per doz., $3.75.
Pigeons, per doz., $1.50.

San Francisco, Dec. 4.—There has been a reaction from the sharp activity in this market and prices have declined somewhat. There is no doubt that a great many of the exporters here are short of wheat and to dislodge the same from farmers' granaries fancy or extreme prices will have to be paid. The markets abroad do not warrant paying over $1.40 per cental, but higher prices were paid recently to secure the grain. The demand from Australia has revived, and buyers are endeavoring to secure wheat in the State of California or from its northern neighbors. About 150,000 bushels of wheat were received here the past few weeks, and there is more to follow. Millers are having a hard time in obtaining wheat and have paid from $1.45 to $1.47 1/2 per cental. Shipping quotations range about $1.40 per cental.

In Honor of Justice Holmes.
Boston, Mass., Dec. 3.—Anticipating the speedy confirmation by the United States senate of the appointment of Chief Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, of Massachusetts, as a justice of the supreme court of the United States, the Bar Association of Mid-dlessex county will give a banquet in his honor this evening. The state officials and the judges of the supreme and superior courts of Massachusetts have accepted invitations to be present.

"No," said the decided girl, "I never will marry a man to reform him."
"Perhaps it isn't wise," replied the demure little thing, "but wouldn't you hate to marry a man that some other girl had reformed?"—Chicago Evening Post.

MANHOOD RESTORED "CUPIDINE"
The Villager, the prescription of a famous French physician, will restore to you nervous or diseased of the generative organs, such as Loss of Manhood, Impotence, Falls in the Back, Seminal Emissions, Nervous Debility, Protrusion of the Prostate, Varicose Veins, Hemorrhoids and Constipation.
It stops all losses by day or night. Prevents quickness of emission, which if unchecked leads to spermatorrhea and all the horrors of impotency. It restores the life, the activity and the virility of all impotent men.
