INCREASE IN BUSINESS.

First National Bank Statement Shows Steady Increase for Period of Three Years.

As an indication of the business prosperity of Umatilla county for the past three years, it is only necessary to glance at the financial statements of the First National Bank, for that period, which has just been issued. At the close of business September 5, 1900, the deposits amounted to $517,153.66, the surplus and undivided profits, $60,497.64; on December 10, 1901, the deposits amounted to $569,225.49, the surplus and undivided profits, $88,030.43; on November 25, 1902, the deposits amounted to $671,144.16, the surplus and undivided profits, $104,610.98. This increase in deposits since September 5, 1900, amounts to $153,990.49, and the resources have increased in that time from $708,835.64 to $937,908.82.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Three Deeds Recorded, Aggregating $13,500.

Three deeds were recorded with County Recorder Folsom this forenoon, which aggregated $13,500. They were:

From W. J. Furnish and wife to James R. Brown, 800 acres of land lying near Barnhart station. Consideration $6000, and one-third interests in the 1903 crop, which is to be delivered at the warehouse.

From W. H. Isaac to W. J. Furnish, 800 acres in township 2, north of range 31, E. W. M. Consideration $5500.

From James R. Brown and wife to W. J. Furnish, 160 acres in township 5, north of range 32. Consideration $2000.

JOKE ON POSTMASTER.

Free Delivery Don't Reach Out in Districts With No Sidewalks.

Postmaster Lot Livermore continues to carry his own mail home, although the free delivery system has been distributing its blessings for a week.

One of the stringent regulations of the system is that no mail will be delivered by carriers, beyond the limits of the sidewalk, and as the residence of the postmaster is a block from the main walk, he is out of the zone of free delivery. Out of respect for the postmaster, the carrier who covers the district in which he lives offered to break the rule and deliver his mail, but his kind offer was declined. So while his neighbors are waiting for the carrier to bring the mail to the parlor door, the man who kept the wire between Pendleton and Washington at a melting temperature for a week in order to get the system inaugurated at the promised time, carries his own mail home and thinks none the less of the rigid rule that so decrees.

MAIL BOX DEFACED.

Time Card Taken From One of the New Mail Receivers on the North Side.

Already some of the cards on the new mail boxes have been defaced and torn off. This morning one of the boxes on the north of the river, was found without the card showing when mail would be gathered from the box, it having been torn off during the night by some unprincipled person or some small boy whose propensities to destroy has been somewhat overdeveloped.

This is a very serious offense. To deface any of the property belonging to Uncle Sam is laying the guilty liable to a very heavy fine as well as to a sentence on McNeil's Island. Close watch will be kept on these boxes and if anyone is caught defacing any of the lettering on them or in any way damaging them, they will be dealt with by Uncle Sam without mercy.

If it is a person old enough to know better they will suffer and if it is some child the parents will be liable under the rules of the government for not bringing their children up to a better realization of right from wrong.

STORE CHANGES OWNERS.

S. L. Wakefield & Company Sell Their Court Street Business to L. E. Therkelsen, Formerly of Portland.

The music store of S. L. Wakefield & Co., on Court street, yesterday passed into the possession of L. E. Therkelsen, of Portland, the result of a deal which has been negotiating for several days.

Mr. Therkelsen is an experienced music dealer and has been engaged in the business for the past five years. Prior to coming here to take a position with S. L. Wakefield & Co., Mr. Therkelsen was connected with Eller's piano house and also Wilby B. Allen, of Portland, and is in a position to handle his new business intelligently.

Some extensive improvements will be made in the store, which will add greatly to the appearance. The new proprietor will continue to handle pianos, organs and musical supplies of all kinds and is in a position to save money for his patrons.

MALHEUR IN LINE.

County Irrigation Association Organized and Plans Will Be Presented to Government.

Ontario, Or., Dec. 5.—At a meeting held at Ontario yesterday, preliminary steps were taken towards the formation of a county organization for the promotion of the investigation in Malheur county and the securing of the county of its rightful share of the government appropriation made for irrigation work.

A committee consisting of W. R. King, J. W. McCulloch, W. N. Shilling, C. H. Brown and F. W. Metcalf was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws.

Another committee consisting of W. R. King, J. W. McCulloch and C. W. Mallett was appointed to outline a report as to available reservoir sites, land to be reclaimed, etc., which report is eventually to be sent to the state organization for incorporation in the report to the government.
