Charles Green Knocked Out in the First Round by James Lavinge -Amateur Preliminary Bout.

A large crowd witnessed the glove contest in the basement of the Hendricks building Saturday night between James Laginve and Charles Green preliminary bout was between The: Orcar Peterson and James Ogleby. This was to have been a four-round bout, but was cut a little short. Neither of the boys were knocked out and gave a very pretty contest for amateurs. Following them Frank Robinson announced the real contestants, Green and Lavinge. Referee Bogart then stepped into the ring and to umpire the bout but that there was to be no knock-out unless accidental. Then the principals were told to shake hands and time was called. The contestants stepped to the cen-Sweden have failed entirely, owing to the cold, wet summer. Collections hibition with the gloves was given for a few moments.
