O. R. & N. COUNTY SEAT FIGHT

ONTARIO AND VALE LOCK HORNS AGAIN.

Representative E. H. Test Elected on the Promise That Ontario Would Be Made the County Seat of Malheur—Road From Nyssa to Vale.

Nyssa, Or., Dec. 9.—The old feud between Vale and Ontario for the seat of government of Malheur county has once more taken form. Hope Bros. of Vale, the present county seat, have returned from a business trip to Chicago, where they raised funds with which to build a little railroad from Nyssa to Vale, with a possible extension to other interior points. A party of 14 surveyors are camped in Nyssa today. The new road has been donated a plot of five acres of ground near the new court house in Vale and also the right of way through all patented land along the proposed line.

Vale is wild with enthusiasm and property is rapidly advancing in price. Nyssa business men are taking advantage of the boom.

Hon. E. H. Test of Ontario, was last spring elected joint representative for Malheur and Harney counties on the flat promise that he would move the county seat from Vale to Ontario.
The Vale people have insisted all along that they should retain the seat because of the fact that they would have a railroad within two years. It is now claimed that the Oregon Railway & Navigation people have promised Vale to build the little road in the event of a falling bid by the wayside of the present proposition.
