ANOTHER HOLD-UP

SUGAR AND COAL OIL
CLIMBING SKYWARD.

Reasons for Raise Are That Supply in Northwest is Short—Sugar Goes Up 20 Cents Per Sack in One Day.

The sugar trust has again taken the bits in its mouth and raised the price of sugar. Yesterday the local market jumped from $6 a sack to $6.20 and within the past month just 90 cents has been added to this necessity of the household.

Last summer sugar reached the lowest figure it has attained in this city for several years, it being down to $5 a sack for several months. This was caused by a fight between refiners and jobbers, but this fall the difficulties between these people were patched up—the hatchet buried—and the price was again gradually shoved up. From $5 it went to $5.10 and the next jump was to $5.25. Here it remained for several weeks, when 10 cents was again added. Then it went to $5.30, $5.65, $5.80 and with two more bounds it reached $6. Yesterday the longest leap occurred, when it went at one bound to $6.20 a hundred.

There is no cause assigned for this increase in price further than that the trust just wanted to swell its profits at the expense of the consumers and it raised the price. There is no shortage of sugar reported and local dealers say that it was just forced up by the trust because it had the power.

Coal Oil Advanced.

Coal oil has advanced a little in Pendleton but Walla Walla consumers seem to be up against a bunco game proper. According to the Walla Walla Union, kerosene has jumped from $1.25 to $1.75 a can within the past few days. This is out of proportion with the price here. The best kerosene is retelling here at $1.60 per 5-gallon can, and local dealers are wondering what pressure can be brought to bear here and at Walla Walla to cause so much difference in price. It would almost pay consumers to ship their oil from here instead of buying of local dealers.

The Union quotes a Standard Oil man who says that the only reason given for the sudden rise in the price of oil is the fact that there is not a sufficient supply in the Northwest to fill the demand. If this is the case in Walla Walla, it is not known here. Local dealers say they have discovered no shortage. They have been able to secure all the oil they could dispose of at the regular price.

RAILROADED TO THE SCAFFOLD.

Sheriff Daly, of Boise, Makes Public Statement in Murder Case.

Boise, Idaho, Dec. 10.—Sheriff Joseph Daly has created a sensation by a public declaration that he believed that George Levy, a convicted murderer, is being railroaded to the scaffold, and that five of the prosecuting witnesses, to his own knowledge, have committed perjury.

George Levy was convicted in February last of the murder of Davis Levy, a miser and well-known business man of Boise. Although of the same name, the men were not related. Davis Levy was found in his room in a lodging house on Main street, which he owned, one morning in September, 1901, strangled to death. His hands and feet had been tied and his shoes taken off. He had been strangled by means of a rope. The first impression was that the old man had been murdered for his money, and had been tortured to make him give it up. The room had been ransacked. The police, however, became convinced that he had been murdered for revenge.

OPIE READ SHOCKED.

Says the Tenderloin District of Seattle is the Worst in the World.

Seattle, Dec. 10.—Opie Read, famed the world over as a novelist and newspaper man, stood in the midst of the so-called lava bed district of this city recently, after having been escorted through the vile dens of inquity by a police officer, and proclaimed the district to be the vilest tenderloin in the whole world.

"It is worse than Paris, Vienna or any of the noted European capitals," said Opie Read, and he has traveled through them all and consequently should know.

The situation is something awful. The whole criminal class of the city, which number many hundreds, have been buddled together in a few square blocks, into what is called the new tenderloin. Vice and crime flourish there and flaunt itself in the face of all who pass by. Perhaps the vilest den of them all is the Midway, which is the first ground floor crib house ever tolerated by the local police. This place is owned and operated by one of the largest wholesale and retail grocery firms in the city. They took a man out of their place of business at the grocery store and placed him in charge of the Midway.

The record of crime since this notorious place, the new tenderloin, has been established, has been as black as night. The local papers have published the record for November, and it makes an awful showing. Murder, burglaries, highway robberies, every form of crime, has been recorded. Very few arrests have been made and the situation seems to have reached a crisis.

LOOK OUT FOR CATARRH

When the cold wave flag is up, freezing weather is on the way. You are here in earnest, and with it all the miserable symptoms of Catarrh return—blinding headaches and neuralgia, thick mucous discharges from the nose and throat, a hacking cough and pain in the chest, a taste in the mouth, fetid breath, nausea and all that makes Catarrh the most sickening and disgusting of all complaints. It causes a fatal nasal defilement and mortification that keeps one nervous and miserable in the company of others.

In spite of all efforts to prevent it, the filthy secretions and mucous matter find their way into the Stomach and are distributed by the blood to every nook and corner of the system; the Stomach and Kidneys, in fact every organ and part of the body, become infected with the catarrhal poison. This disease is rarely, if ever, even in its earliest stages, a purely local disease or simple inflammation of the nose and throat, and this is why sprays, washes, powders and the various inhaling mixtures fail to cure. Heredity is sometimes back of it—parents have it and so do their children.

In the treatment of Catarrh, anti-septic and soothing washes are good for cleansing purposes of the head and throat, but this is the extent of their usefulness. Permanently, the blood must be purified and the system relieved of foul secretions, and the remedy to accomplish this is S. S. S.

no equal as a blood purifier. It cleans the blood to a natural, healthy condition, the catarrhal poison and other impurities are carried out of the system through proper channels. S. S. S. makes the blood all its good qualities rich, pure blood reaches the membrane and is carried through the circulation to all the Catarrh portions of the body, they soon heal, the mucous discharges cease, the patient is relieved of the most offensive and humiliating of all ailments.

S. S. S. is a vegetable remedy and contains nothing that could be most delicate constitution. It cures Catarrh in its most aggravated and cases apparently incurable and hopeless. Write us if you have and our physicians will advise you without charge.

MISS FAY LEE,

President of the Shakespearean Club, Kansas City.

"Your booklet came to my home like a message of health when I had suffered with headache, backache and bearing-down pains. I was weak, nervous and hysterical and had not consulted any doctor, thinking it would pass away in time, but instead I found that the pains increased and were more frequent. I decided to try Wine of Cardui and in a short time was much improved. It seemed to act like a charm. I kept up the treatment and the result was most satisfactory. Words fail to express my gratitude for the suffering that is now saved me. I am in fine health, physically and mentally. I can only say 'thank you', but there is much more in my heart for you."

BEARING-DOWN pains are the worst that women know. If you are suffering from this trouble you need not be uncertain about it. The pains in the abdomen and back that feel as if heavy weights were pulling down on the nerves of the stomach are "bearing-down pains". They may not be particularly severe at present but they are growing worse. That headache which nearly drives you distracted now is caused by the terrible agrain, as it has made a million women strong and healthy. By giving regular menstruation the system is relieved of the terrible drains. The ligaments which hold the womb in place are strengthened, healthy flow and that organ is set to its normal position. Real health is the result. This is Wine of Cardui has done for thousands of the best women in America.

If you need advice write The Advisory Department, The Oenoga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn., describing all your symptoms, and a letter of advice sent you. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Cardui from your druggist.
