Walla Walla, reports in a letter that he is having brisk business and that his sales of property during the last 30 days have amounted to $41,000.
Among the sales were the Spafford ranch for $25,000, the Dad Cockburn farm, on Dry Creek, $10,000, and numerous smaller deals were made.
We feel a pardonable pride in pointing to Pendleton's popular purchasing place where popular prices prevail on pretty polished parlor pieces and a pleasing price proclamation puts plenty of these peaches and plums in reach of poor peoples' pockets. Why pay higher prices for poorer Xmas gifts purchased at other places? At Rader's, of course.

Pioneer Dead.

Robert Dutton, one of the earliest settlers of Oregon, who died at his home in Portland recently, at the age of 87 years, was an uncle of C. R.
Dutton, of this city. Mr. Dutton was one of the best known pioneers of the Northwest. He died from injuries received by falling from a ladder three months ago.

Heavy Snow Stops Work.

The heavy snow fall in the mountains has caused most of the loggers to suspend operations. At Fletcher's mill, 15 miles east of Weston, the snow is five feet deep, and logging has been suspended. The snow at the head of Rhine Creek is three feet deep and from every locality in the foothills comes the same reports.

Colorado's building at the World's Fair will undoubtedly be made a permanent structure and will remain as a monument to the enterprise as well as the resources of the Centennial state.

WILL BE SEVERE

UMATILLA INDIANS PREDICT
A HARD WINTER.

Stockmen Especially Exercised Over Early Winter—George Horsman, of the Potts Country, Sells Off His Stock.

"Are we going to have a severe winter?"
This is the question that is being asked by many. Stockmen especially are somewhat exercised over the deep snow in the mountains so early in the season and many are predicting a hard winter.

George Horsman, who is in the city from the Potts country, says that he has sold off all his stock and is prepared for one of the severest winters in the history of the country for several years past. He says that all signs point to a hard winter. For several years past the winters have been exceptionally open and it is about time that a severe winter was due.

Mr. Horsman predicts that the severe weather is coming early and we may look for it to continue for several weeks in succession.

Several other old-timers say that they expect a cold winter, but the safest criterion to go by is the predictions of the Indians. The old-time Indians are predicting severe weather and it is seldom that their calculations prove untrue in regard to the weather.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Large Party of Swedes and Norwegians Pass Through This City.

One of the most picturesque traveling parties that has ever passed through this city, was on the eastbound O. R. & N. train yesterday evening. It was a half dozen families of Swedes and Norwegians, numbering 40 persons, en route to the old homes in Europe. They expect to join a large party at Chicago, which will take a special tourist train from that place to New York City. Special rates on the ocean liners have induced many of these people to pay a visit to the homes of their childhood, which many of them have not seen for 20 years.

The steamship Urania will leave New York about December 20, and these people expect to sail to Europe on that vessel, with more than 1000 of their countrymen. This party was principally from Cold Springs, Wallula and Pasco. Another party which left the North Yakima country, will go by way of Spokane and expects to join this crowd at Chicago.
Many of these farmers will bring back relatives from the "old country" to settle permanently in this state.

RECALLS LARGE DAMAGE SUIT.

Locomotive Fireman Injured in Umatilla County, in the City Yesterday.

G. D. Simmons, the O. R. & N. fireman who was injured in a wreck at Kamela in May, 1901, passed through this city yesterday evening on his way to Los Angeles, where he will spend the winter.
The damage suit which Mr. Simmons brought against the company, was tried in this county, and resulted in a verdict for $20,700.

Livestock Breeders.

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 10.—A joint convention of the Pennsylvania Livestock Breeders' Association and the Pennsylvania Dairy Union began here today with an attendance of several hundred members of the two organizations from various parts of the state. The program covers two days during which time there will be addresses on subjects of interest to those engaged in dairying or stock breeding by Dr. C. D. Smead, of New York, Professor C. S. Plumb, of Ohio State University and other well known authorities. A large and comprehensive exhibit of dairy products and machinery is a feature of the gathering.

IS MURDERER INSANE?

Young Man Found Guilty of Killing Peter Nelson, at Pasco, Acts Very Querulously.

Pasco, Wash., Dec. 10.—So remarkable is the steadfast nerve displayed by Oscar Bradshaw, the convicted Pasco murderer, that many people are beginning to doubt if the youth is really in his right mind. Bradshaw laughs and jokes in the Walla Walla county jail, and appears to have far less concern over his prospects than the humblest petty larcenist in the jail. This is all the more remarkable because Bradshaw is but 19 years old.

When the verdict of murder in the first degree was announced at Pasco, and Bradshaw was led back to the jail he danced a jig on the cell floor, threw his hat in the air and remarked: "More good times coming, boys, I guess." He was the happiest man externally, in Pasco, and was an object of wonder to the men of Franklin county, many of whom have seen all kinds of men.

Miss Roosevelt's Debut.

New York, Dec. 10.—Miss Christine Roosevelt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Emden Roosevelt, and niece of President Roosevelt and of Senator John Keen, of New Jersey, was presented at a tea this afternoon at the family residence. The drawing rooms were profusely decked with flowers, those sent with the congratulations of friends being the principal ornaments.
Mrs. Roosevelt, the mother of the de-butante, introduced her, and Miss Alice Roosevelt, her cousin, was one of the assistants at the afternoon's reception.

Necktie and apron dance at Hendricks' hall, December 11. Kirkman's orchestra. All invited.

"THE LITTLE OUTCAST."

One Scene Requires the Services of a Sixty-Foot Car.

One of the acts in "A Little Outcast," which will be seen at the Frazier Tuesday, December 16th, requires a 60-foot car to hold this one set alone. The stage is cleared of every bit of scenery to make room for this gigantic setting, and when the curtain rises one of the finest stage pictures ever attempted is seen—a beautiful scene of New York harbor. The tall, tower-like edifices and the great dome of the World building, which are visible from the Battery, are brilliant with hundreds of lights and stand out against the night sky in a golden glory. The fire which leaps out from the great buildings along the dock, taxed the skill of the electricians to perfect it and the result of their work is so effective that it is difficult to believe that one is not in the presence of the real thing, and as a spectacular feature it is unriv-aled. Seats on sale at Frazier's.
