GENERAL NEWS

Owing to the opposition of Japan to John Barrett, the president will send some other man to that point and Barrett will be given the first vacancy.

Secretary Hay has called the United States minister at Liberia to send him a truthful account of his alleged shooting of Thomas Fuller at Monrovia.

The American capitalists who are interested in the Philippines are endeavoring to get congress to allow a large immigration of Chinese into the islands as skilled labor.

General Sawyer, United States consul at Antigua, British West Indies, has been appointed to succeed the late Thomas Nast as consul-general at Guayaquil, Ecuador.

President Roosevelt has sent a negro, Thomas Fortune, to the Philippines to study the race and labor problems there. It is thought that our island possessions may prove an excellent field for our surplus negroes.

G. B. Wescher, who, during last season played left half-back on the University of Pennsylvania football team, is in the university hospital in a state of delirium. He broods over the defeats of the team and tries to play the game all over on the hospital floor.

In order to remedy a growing curvature of the spine, Seth Williams, of Brooklyn, recently submitted to a rare and dangerous operation at the Polyclinic Hospital, in Manhattan. The vertebrae were fractured and forced together by a system of weights. When they had been properly straightened, the young man was placed in a four-inch plaster cast. This was taken off several days ago and a thinner one substituted. Mr. Williams is now recovering.

OSCAR M'KINZIE ATTEMPTS TO END HIS LIFE

Had Trouble With His Wife, Who Sued for Divorce—Threatened to Shoot I. W. Durrell and Was Put in Jail—Had Brooded Over His Troubles Until Demented.

Oscar McKinzie, an inmate of the county jail, made a desperate attempt a few minutes before 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to end his own life.

McKinzie has received considerable notoriety lately for attempting to take the life of I. W. Durrell. McKinzie and his wife had been employed on the Rigby ranch, on the Unatilla reservation. Their domestic troubles had grown too much for the wife, who had sued for a divorce. McKinzie then came to town, where he remained several days. The longer he brooded over the matter the worse worked up he became and one day he secured a team and buggy to drive out to see his wife. He placed a revolver in his pocket and went out to the Rigby ranch. He found his wife doing her house-work and at once began trying to persuade her to withdraw the proceedings for divorce and return to him. This she refused. Durrell was only employed on the ranch and was vitroling wheat at the barn. He had occasion to go to the house to secure a pail in which to carry water and when he entered the door McKinzie pulled his revolver and ordered Durrell to not advance any further, at the same time remarking that he expected trouble when he started out and he had come prepared.

Durrell backed out of the door and got away. Then the crazed man turned on his wife and it is claimed by her that he forced her to come to town with him. Anyway, the two came in his buggy, but Durrell had come ahead of them and had a warrant out for McKinzie's arrest when he arrived.

McKinzie was bound over to the district court in the sum of $250 and in default of bonds has been in jail since. Many times he has shown signs of melancholy, but little attention was paid to it by the officers; they thinking he was only down-hearted because of his trouble. It is also claimed by those around the jail that he has frequently shown signs of mental aberration, but this was also attributed to his confinement and nothing serious was thought of the matter.

Yesterday, a few minutes after 4 o'clock in the afternoon, the other inmates of the jail were attracted by groans coming from McKinzie's cell. An investigation showed that he was suffering intensely from some cause. The alarm was raised and the officers at once telephoned for Dr. McPaul, who arrived a few minutes later and saved the man's life. From all indications, McKinzie had swallowed some large dose of oil of cloves and some other drugs which were in the cell.

When the doctor arrived McKinzie was in a very critical condition and it was by the most heroic efforts that he was saved at all. He fiercely fought off all attempts to save him and after many efforts and much work the doctor succeeded in getting antiseptics down him which produced vomiting. The stomach pump was also used to good effect and the poison was removed from the stomach.

This morning McKinzie was very weak, but is getting over the effects of his attempt to end his life. When asked why he drank the poison he refused to give any reason more than that he was tired of life. It is thought that he is mentally unbalanced and when he gets over the effects of the poison he will likely be examined for insanity, which has been brought on by brooding over his troubles.

The officers are now wondering why McKinzie did not succeed in his attempt at self-destruction. There was a bottle of toothache medicine in the cell which was marked poison, and had he swallowed this it would have been impossible to have saved his life.

UNBEARABLE ITCHING

Felt It Would Be a Relief to Tear Skin From Back. Cured by CUTICURA.

I had a breaking out all over my back. The itching was almost unbearable, and at times I felt that it would be a relief to tear the skin off my back. I tried doctors' prescriptions and general remedies, without result. I read of your CUTICURA remedies in the Indianapolis News. After three applications, my back felt better, and by the time the box of CUTICURA ointment was half used the breaking out had all disappeared.
