TIL TAYLOR ABROAD

BOISE PAPER DESCRIBES HIS SIGHTSEEING.

Sheriff T. D. Taylor Visits the Idaho Capital and Views its Wonders—First Sight of an Electric Car—Guest of the Chief of Police.

Sheriff T. D. Taylor visited Boise City Thursday, for the purpose of bringing the forger McCabe to this county, to answer for his crimes. From the tenor of the news item concerning his visit in the Capital News, the impression might go abroad that Umatilla county is entirely in the back woods, and that Sheriff Taylor is one of the rankest back woodsmen that ever bathed his face in the metropolitan sunshine of Boise City. But such is far from being true. While "Till" might have acted "countryfied" to some extent, it was due to his surprise in finding the capital of Idaho no more metropolitan than the county seat of Umatilla county. The News says:

"Sheriff T. D. Taylor, of Umatilla county, Ore., is a Boise visitor today after John McCabe, a fugitive from justice from Pendleton, on a charge of forgery. McCabe was apprehended at Nampa yesterday upon advices from Chief Francis, and Sheriff Taylor notified of the capture.

"The Pendleton officer is making his maiden trip to this city. He says he had heard so much of Boise in late years that he has always had a hankering to see the town before he died. He was the guest of Chief Francis today, and that officer has been busy showing him the wonders of Bill Borah's town. Taylor never before saw the electric car, and he gazed with astonishment upon 'Old Missouri' as it gamboled up Main street without horses or jumping the track."

REV. KING'S REPLY.

Will Discuss in a Friendly and Brotherly Spirit, "Israel's Gifts to the World."

Rev. R. W. King will reply to the scholarly lecture of Rabbi Wise, at the Baptist church, tomorrow evening. In taking up the arguments presented in that able and comprehensive review of "Israel's Gifts to the World," Rev. King is actuated by a desire to add to the worthy cause of bettering mankind by friendly discussion and a brotherly understanding. The impression has gained publicity that Rev. King will bitterly attack the sentiment expressed by Dr. Wise. Speaking of this subject, Rev. King said today:

"Those who were permitted to be present at the lecture of Dr. Wise on last Tuesday evening, listened to a splendid address on 'Israel's Gifts to the World.' In almost all that he said upon that occasion I heartily agree with and in some respects concerning the persecution of the Jews he might have said more. Nevertheless, there were some points touched upon, which I believe ought to be presented from the other side, and while some may think it the improper thing to do, I have, nevertheless, decided to take up some of the arguments of Dr. Wise and present the matter from the side of Christianity. Also I shall have many words to say in behalf of the Jew."

SUES WALLA WALLA.

To Secure $2500 Damages for Infringement of a Patent.
 Walla Walla, Dec. 12.—The suit of Charles P. Allen, of Denver, against the city of Walla Walla, has been begun in the United States court at Seattle, and service was secured yesterday by serving Clerk Reynolds, Mayor Hunt being out of the city at the time. The action is to secure $2500 damages for infringement of a patent held by Allen upon wooden pipe connections. The infringement is alleged to have occurred in the construction of a barrel flume by the city along Alder street. City Attorney Blandford will leave for Seattle to argue the motion for an injunction on Monday.
