FOUND MANY FRIENDS.

Eugene V. Debs Personally Acquainted With Many People Here.

Eugene V. Debs, during his short stay in Pendleton, found many old acquaintances here.

He was raised in Terre Haute, Ind., and for 25 years was a close neighbor to Laatz Bros., of this city.

He was personally acquainted with Engineer Al Stevens, who runs through Pendleton, on the Portland-Chicago special. He helped initiate Mr. Stevens into the order of Locomotive Firemen, to which he still belongs.

Engineer Jack Wright, of the Spokane run, who resides in this city, and Mr. Debs, were acquaintances in Indiana about 25 years ago. Conductor Norris, now running a freight train between Umatilla and La Grande, is an old acquaintance. They were together at the Galveston convention of Locomotive Firemen, in 1896.

Mrs. Al Stevens, wife of Engineer Stevens, is an old schoolmate of the noted reformer.

Jack McCarten, switchman in the yard at this place, knew Mr. Debs 10 years ago in Minnesota.

Many others here who were engaged in the railroad service during the stormy period of '94-5, met him on many occasions in the settlement of labor difficulties between the American Railway Union and the railroads.

Mr. Debs followed the occupation of fireman for several years, was afterward editor of the magazine of that order and was also an executive officer in its councils.

WRECK ON THE W. & C. R.

Engine No. 87 Off the Track at Killan—Does Not Stop Traffic.

Engine No. 87, the largest engine used by the W. & C. R. company, is buried to the boiler in the ground at Killan, a station 29 miles from here on the "high line."

Just what caused the wreck is unknown, but it is thought that a defective frog was to blame. At Killan is where the "Y" leaves the main line to run out to Athena. The engine was being turned off onto this "Y" to go to Athena, and went off the track. The main line was just cleared, so that trains can pass and the wreck has not blocked traffic on the main line. Little damage was done and no one was injured, as the engine sank into the soft earth until the wheels were almost out of sight.

DICK BRISBOIS IN JAIL.

Bound Over to the District Court, Charged With Horse Stealing.

Constable J. W. Dykes, of Milton, arrived in town on Wednesday evening's train with Dick Brisebois, bound over to the district court on the charge of horse stealing. Brisebois is charged with going to the pasture of W. D. Murray, several days ago, and spiriting the animal away. He denies his guilt, but the evidence is such that the justice before whom he was tried deemed it sufficient to hold the prisoner. Where the animal is cannot be learned.

CAUGHT THE THIEF

SECRET SERVICE AGENT ARRESTS AN EMBEZZLER.

After Shadowing His Man Across the Continent, Detective Jones Locates Him in This City—Secret Service Man Drives Slop Wagon.

A man whose name could not be learned, was arrested here by one of the government's secret service men Tuesday and was taken on the morning's train, in shackles, to Washington, D. C., to answer to the charge of embezzlement.

The nature of the crime, or the particulars could not be learned. The detective, who gave his name as Jones, would not talk, and all that is known of the prisoner was that he had been an employe of the government and embezzled $50,000 more than two years ago.

A reward of $5000 was offered by the government for the arrest of the man, who has been shadowed by detectives for the past two years. Jones will get half of this and the Pinkerton agency will get the other half.

Jones got trace of his man at Seattle after following him across the continent. He was given the slip there, however, and it was thought the embezzler came to Pendleton. On the 10th of November Jones came here. He represented himself as a working man and began to look for something to do. Pat Kline, who gathers up slop around town for his hogs, wanted a man to drive his wagon and Jones applied for the job. He went to work with a will, but his demeanor caused those who came in contact with him to see that he was out of place. The disagreeable work made no difference to Jones. He was looking for a criminal and believing that he would show up in Pendleton in due time, he stayed with the job because it took him all over town every day, as well as helped to cover his real purpose.

He worked 30 days at $1 a day and Monday evening told Mr. Kline that he was going to quit and return home for Christmas. Mr. Kline paid him off and Jones left the house. Tuesday morning he arrested his man and left with him for Washington.

It seems that he was located a week or more ago and all this time the detective kept him shadowed. It is thought the detective had an accomplice who helped in shadowing the criminal after he was located.

The man was discovered in a drunken row on Main street. Jones had his wagon and team near the St. George restaurant gathering up slop, and a row occurred near the corner of Webb and Main streets. He saw the crowd of men and went over to investigate, as he was watching every stranger. He was rewarded by discovering the embezzler in the crowd. No arrest was made then, but a strict watch was kept on the man who was taken in Tuesday morning, as above stated.

NEW TIME CARD.

Trains of the O. R. & N. Will Begin to Run Under Different Schedule Next Tuesday.

Next Tuesday a change of schedule will go into effect over almost the entire O. R. & N. system. The new time card has not yet reached the local office and for that reason the exact changes are not yet known.

Passenger train No. 1, going west, due here at 8:10, will not reach here under the new schedule until 10:30. This substantiates the statement that the Meacham eating station will be cut out. The morning train will reach that place later in the day and breakfast will be had at La Grande.

The time of the trains going east will not be changed so much. The Atlantic express No. 6, which passes through here now at 6:40 a. m., will go through 35 minutes earlier, or at 6:05. The Chicago-Portland special, or No. 2, arriving here now at 5:20, will be here 20 minutes later.

It is expected that the morning train leaving here for Spokane now at 8:20, will change time to connect with No. 1, which will take it out of here not earlier than 1:45 p. m.

The changes are made, it is understood, to give better service to the traveling public. The delay over the O. R. & N. line has been caused by delays on the Union Pacific and the new schedule will give this line more time to connect and bring the trains in nearer on time.

No Reliance in Vaults.

Since it has been proven that the strongest built vault can easily be opened by expert safe-crackers, the treasury department has decided to add to their massive vaults and complicated locks a novel electric burglar alarm. While the government is endeavoring to protect the nation's wealth in the best manner possible, it is very important that we should endeavor to protect our health from the inroads of disease. The safest medicine to do this is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. By strengthening the stomach, perfecting the digestion and purifying the blood, it prevents disease from obtaining a foothold. It will also cure dyspepsia, flatulency, constipation, biliousness, nervousness and malaria, fever and ague. One bottle will convince you of its value. Don't fail to try it.

OUR DOLL DAY

Last Saturday was a great success, and will cheer the hearts of many children this Xmas. We propose to do still better next Saturday. Read the offer below and learn how:

Saturday, Dec. 20, with a dollar purchase or more of crockery or glassware we will present a silver novelty worth 50c.

They consist of card trays, sugars, creams, bonbons, jellies, etc., and are lacquered so that they will not tarnish in the open air.

FURTHER—With a 50c purchase of crockery or glassware we will present a gold-plated picture frame worth 25c. Both presents will make fine gifts in themselves, and cost you absolutely nothing.

Come early, as our supply is limited.

Young man, if you want to touch a woman's heart, buy her a piece of china.

Buy your wife that silver set you promised her NOW

Josh Billings said, "Court the girl's mother half the time. The girl won't object and the mother likes it."

Josh was right. Buy the old lady a dainty piece of china and the old lady will do the rest.

When you stay out all night, come to us the first thing in the morning. Select a nice present and it will square you with your better seven-eighths. Nothing pleases a woman better than nice china.
