We feel a pardonable pride in pointing to Pendleton's popular purchasing place, where popular prices prevail on pretty polished parlor pieces and a pleasing price proclamation puts plenty of these peaches and plums in reach of poor peoples' pockets. Why pay higher prices for poorer Xmas gifts purchased at other places? At Rader's, of course.

FIRST IN FOOTBALL

PENDLETON HIGH SCHOOL CLOSES SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

A Review of the Games Played by Pendleton Teams During Thei Season—Tables Showing Games Won and Lost by eighboring Towns.

The football season being over, it is well to give the standing and relative strength of the different teams that have played in Eastern Oregon.

Pendleton high school stands as the undisputed champion of this section of the state, with four victories and no defeats. The team was scored upon but once, and that by the weakest team it played—La Grande.

The team was composed of some of the best players in Eastern Oregon. The better style of play was too much for the opposing teams. The offense being fast and concentrated and the defense solid and strong. The forwards were the superiors of any whom they went against. They were able to break through and stop many plays before the opponents were fairly started. The back field was the fastest and best that was ever brought together in scholastic football in this section. The success of this team was largely due to the untiring efforts of Coach Bryson.

Baker City stands next on the list with two victories and a defeat. This team was hardly up to its standing of last year. The defense was very weak at times, and the offense was slow and loose, particularly the backfield. Pendleton's men choked up several plays before the Baker backs could get into operation. Baker City is given second place by beating Weston.

The team which represents the State Normal school was one of the surprises of the season. Although it was not always successful, it caused many of the other teams to heave a sigh of relief when the game terminated. When Coach Rupert of Albany, took charge, not a man on the team had any former experience, but with the raw material at hand, he created a team of which Weston might well be proud. Great things are expected of Weston next year. All her defeats this year were by very small scores and she is entitled to third place by defeating the Indian team.

The Indians are put in fourth place, both Weston and Pendleton having defeated them. The Indian team is composed mostly of old players from the prominent Indian schools in the United States. With more practice, the Indians would make a formidable team. The other teams in Eastern Oregon can be classed together, with probably the Pendleton Academy as the best of this class; La Grande and Union in second and third and Milton College in the last place.

It was unfortunate that Pendleton high school could not get a game with the local academy team. After issuing a challenge to play the winners of the Thanksgiving game, the managers refused to play or retract when he realized sure defeat to his team if it played the strong high school aggregation.

The Tribune printed several articles declaring that the high school was afraid to play with the academy. If the author of those articles had known the true situation he would never have written them as they were. The high school made several attempts to arrange a game but to this the academy would not consent, neither would those in charge retract the challenge. Such tactics put the high school in a wrong light. Many thought the academy wanted to play, when in reality that team was just trying to attract public attention and had no intention of living up to the challenge issued by the captain of the team.

Below is a review of the games that were played:

Pendleton vs. Weston, 6 to 0.
Pendleton vs. La Grande, 36 to 0.
Pendleton vs. Indians, 6 to 0.
Pendleton vs. Baker City, 11 to 0.
Baker City vs. La Grande, 45 to 0.

Weston vs. Baker City, 0 to 6.
Weston vs. Indians, 5 to 0.
Indians vs. Pendleton, 6 to 6.
Indians vs. Weston, 0 to 5.
Indians vs. Adams, 0 to 5.

How Ingalls Stopped Van Wyck.

"Van Wyck, who was in the senate from Nebraska, used to splutter and splutter when he was excited," said a senator. "One day he got up to make a speech. He stood immediately behind Spooner's desk. Senator Ingalls was talking to Spooner while the speech was going on. Van Wyck was nervous, and he sputtered and spluttered more than usual.

"Ingalls clapped his hands loudly. Van Wyck stopped suddenly to see what was the matter. A page ran up. 'Boy,' said Ingalls, loud enough to be heard in the galleries, 'bring Senator Spooner an umbrella and bring me a rubber coat.'

"Van Wyck sat down abruptly and never did finish his speech."—New York World.

Investigation proves that foodstuffs shipped to Honolulu from Japan and China via San Francisco, are responsible for the cases of plague recently appearing there. A number of Japanese on nearby plantations were taken with the plague and died in a hospital in Honolulu. An examination of their effects was made, but no trace of the germ was discovered until thorough tests had been made of some of the Japanese groceries found in the house. These foods, under the microscope, showed trace of the plague germs, and further examination made of Oriental stuffs showed that the diagnosis was correct. It was learned also that the foodstuffs had been imported at San Francisco and reshipped to Honolulu.

During the past year the pack of Alaska fish foots up 2,400,000 cases.

MEN'S OUTFITTERS

Back From Manila.

A ship comes sailing from Orient isles;
Those islands that smile in the tropic sea;
And her cargo; what is it the good ship bears
As she glides o'er the ocean, to you and me.

The ship coming home from that far off shore,
Of all that was precious and richest and rare,
Brings but a mem'ry, a heart-breaking message,
To those who are waiting with sorrow and prayer.

The cold, white faces of sleeping soldiers,
Who sleep the sleep that men call death;
Asleep in the midst of their youth and valor,
Their brave lives quenched by war's hot breath.

This the load the good ship carries,
Sailing from those islands far—
Coming back when friends are waiting;
Where mothers, wives and sweethearts are.

Many a loving gray-haired mother—
Many a sweet-heart dear and fond;
Wait and dread the white ship's coming,
With breaking hearts while the days go 'round.

Ship of death with sacreu burden,
Coming from the Orient shore—
Bringing back our sleeping soldiers;
Peace to them—for evermore.
Cross of Christ and love of country,
Make of them a trust apart.
Hail to you, oh, sleeping soldiers!
Sacred to the nation's heart.
