NEWS OF MILTON

THE STICKLER CASE TO BE HEARD IN WESTON.

Mason Elect Officers for Next Year—Dallas Garred Home From Whitman College—Many Visitors During the Holidays—Personal Notes.

Milton, Dec. 29.—Prof. E. J. Cherry principal of the Adams school was in town a couple of days last week meeting old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pell, of Adams, spent a few days with Mrs. Celts' parents four miles above town last week.

Next Sunday at 11 o'clock Rev. Gibson, the presiding elder will hold services in the M. E. church at this place. The quarterly conference will convene on Saturday at 2 p. m.

Miss Effie Wilson, who has been in Portland for the past year, came home last week.

Mrs. Oscar Montgomery is quite sick with malarial fever.

Mrs. T. W. Hayes and wife, of Yamhill, are visiting their son Dr. J. H. Hayes of this city during the holidays.

Mrs. Ollie Cummins, of Portland, is at the home of James Frazier's.

Mrs. W. E. Putnam's brother and wife, Maud, Mrs. O. A. Storm, of Minnesota, are visiting in Milton this week.

Charlie Davis of Baker City, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Davis; Edward Davis, who is teaching school near Colfax, Wash., son of George; brother of I. N., are visiting their parents at I. N.'s home in Milton during the holidays.

Mr. Arthur Guild and Miss Pearl Fellows, both of Milton, were married in Walla Walla last Wednesday, December 24th.

Rev. Peck, who is here visiting relatives, has accepted a call at Sumner, Wash., for the coming year and will leave in a few days to begin his work.

J. L. Vinson has moved into his new home on Mill street and Mr. Henry, the shoemaker, will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Vinson.

Mr. Bennie Osborne, of Cottonwood, has been in town several days looking after his farming interests and visiting his mother and sister.

Frank Worthington came home from Wallula, Wash., to spend the holidays with his family. Frank is building a fine house for George Lamdon, at the above named place. Archie Harrison, who is laboring there, accompanied him home.

Dallas Garred came home from Whitman college to have a good time with friends, but E. L. Smalley needed a man behind the counter, so Dallas' scheme was upset and he will return to school a few dollars better off and feels just as good.

The defendant in the case of William Stickler and Richard Sheets, to recover money, asked for a change of venue in the justice of peace's court here last week, which was granted and will be tried before a Western justice this week. Judge Kirkland, of Milton, represents the plaintiff and J. T. Hinkle, of Pendleton, the defendant.

The Milton lodge, A. F. and A. M., at a regular meeting Wednesday night elected the following officers for the ensuing year: W. M., Dr. M. Dittbrant; S. E., E. L. Smalley; J. W. F. E. Wilcox; S. St., H. L. Frazier; J. St., S. A. Rogers; S. D., J. C. Campbell; J. D., James Romig; Sec. W. A. Banister; Treas. A. M. Elain; Tyler, G. W. Frazier.

VISITED CITY COUNCIL.

Ladies of W. C. T. U. Surprise the Officers of Milton.

Milton, Dec. 29.—About as exciting a time as ever was experienced with Milton's city dads, took place in the council rooms last Monday night while that honorable body was in session. Some one suggested sometime ago, that it would be a good idea for the citizens to visit those meetings and see how our lawmakers made laws. So the W. C. T. U., which made a raid on the club house some time since, that almost stamped the in-
