

A MORAL CRUSADE

A RUSHING BUSINESS DONE IN DAYTON COURTS.

Sunday Closing Law to Be Enforced—Saloonkeeper Arrested—W. C. T. U. Take Up the Fight.

Dayton, Wash., Dec. 30.—A great wave of moral awakening struck Dayton yesterday and the courts had more business in consequence than they have had in many moons. In fact, a rushing business was done in both justice and superior courts, and the day will hereafter be known as the best in the history of the place, in point of fines and cash.

Ralph Harper was arrested for keeping open his cigar store on Sunday, and a fine of $25 and costs was assessed and paid. O. A. Bocker, proprietor of a saloon, was fined $30 and costs for allowing his place to be open Sunday. N. B. Fishback was arrested and fined $25 and costs for allowing minors about his place. This last fine was the result of the arrest of Roy Godman, James Stine, Robert Procter and Frank Guernsey, all sons of prominent people, in Fishback's saloon, where it was alleged they were in the habit of spending odd moments. Each of the youngsters was fined $5 and costs. Lorane Gates, John Galloway, Edward Sayres, Grover Cunningham and Cleveland McGill were fined $1 and costs each for having firearms in their possession in the city. Ira Jones, C. E. Weatherby, F. E. Murgon, were arrested for violating the quarantine laws in a case of smallpox, and the case was continued for trial.

Until a few months ago Sunday was not a really quiet day in Dayton. Then it was that the W. C. T. U. took up the fight to close the saloons on the Sabbath, and as a result the saloonmen forced all other places to close with them. For a time everything went smoothly, then slackness began, and for a time the law has been overlooked in many instances. The wholesale arrests yesterday will have the effect of closing the town up for a time.

"DOWN BY THE SEA."

Same Excellent Company That Appeared Here a Few Seasons Ago in "Tennessee's Pardner."

The successful playwright is one who can properly blend the elements of pathos and comedy. The author of "Down by the Sea" has done his work successfully and a more pleasing dramatic entertainment has not been seen on the stage for a long time. It is a play full of human interest, tender sentiment, manly spirit and wholesome comedy. Those who fancy "Down by the Sea" a sort of "blood and thunder" melo-drama will find themselves agreeably deceived by a series of stage pictures as unique and delightful as those in "Way Down East" and "Shore Acres." The acting company comprises the best talent of the theatrical profession most of whom have been previously seen here in leading roles with the most prominent stars and companies. The attraction will be seen here tonight with no advance in prices. Special scenery is carried for every act and new and up-to-date specialties will add to the completeness of the production.

"Shore Acres."

"Shore Acres" has been played upwards of 2500 times in this country, and is universally recognized as the greatest pastoral play ever written for the English speaking stage. It is strange, but true, that this interesting comedy drama was offered to every well known theatrical manager in America, and while a number of them thought "Shore Acres" a fairly good play, they did not care to risk any money in its production. All this happened over 10 years ago, and since then these astute purveyors of the drama annually count up the fortunes they might have earned with this charming idyl of American home life. In speaking of "Shore Acres" the Rev. Lyman Abbott said some time ago: "If there were more such wholesome plays as 'Shore Acres' the wholesale denunciation of the stage by the pulpit could not long survive." The play is underlined for presentation at the Frazer theater, Wednesday, January 7th.

To Present "Richard Carvel."

It is claimed in behalf of Andrew Robson, who appears at the Frazer theater next Friday evening, as "Richard Carvel," that he presents in each city he visits the entire scenic production, without change or elimination, that aided so materially in establishing the play as a success during the 17 weeks' run that was accorded it at the Empire theater in New York; that each of the 32 parts concerned in the development of the story is interpreted by a skilled actor or actress especially adapted to portray it; and that, unlike many modern stars, who seem to monopolize the center of the stage, Mr. Robson appreciates the praise bestowed upon the members of his company for successful and meritorious work performed by them, quite as fully as he does commendation for his own efforts. The popularity of Winston Churchill's novel should serve to attract a large audience to witness the play, and if the claims of the Robson management are made good by the performance, as seems to have been the case universally elsewhere, the play should be as firmly established in popular favor as the book. Seat sale will be open Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Prices 50c, 75c, $1 and $1.50.

NEW BUSINESS FIRM.

D. Kemler & Son Now Located in Convenient Quarters With New Stock of Groceries.

Dan Kemler, the veteran groceryman, has with his son Miles Kemler, engaged in business again under the firm name of D. Kemler & Son.

The senior member of the firm has been engaged in the grocery business in Pendleton for the past 18 years, with the exception of brief periods.

D. Kemler & Son are now located in the new brick building on Alta street, opposite the Pendleton Savings Bank, where they are nicely prepared to serve the public and have a very attractive store, and while the room is not large, it is so arranged that there is no waste space and a complete stock is thereby handled. The store serves as the sales room, but the bulk of the stock is kept in the stone warehouse on Johnson street and large or small orders can be promptly filled. The entire stock is new and fresh and was selected with much care.

Little Snow at Alba.

Alba, Dec. 30.—The chinook of the past few days has almost freed the hills here of their covering of snow. About all that is left is ice, a cold spell following the chinook. While it is not exceedingly cold, it is very disagreeable getting around.

NOT A RELIEF BUT A CURE

Yerington, Nev., Oct. 30 1902
Mr. C. A. Perrin, Helena, Mont.
Dear Sir:—I have nearly finished the former bottle and am practically well. My case was one most physicians would have pronounced incurable. My appetite is good, have gained 10 pounds in weight and feel like a new lease of life was given me. One of the bottles I send for this time is for a friend and the other for myself as I do not intend to be without it.
T. R. HARRIS.
