Phillips of Amherst, preent upon or in anticipation of future profits. As a matter of fact the amount actually earned for the stock in the 12 months ending August 31, 1902 (the term of the fiscal year) was of preparatory school training and considerably in excess of 6 per cent.

$1,244,357 in the fiscal year preceding. The requirements for the debenture bond interest were only $135,-000 and the call for the 6 per dividends on the preferred stock $611,-

There is no mortgage lien of any kind on any of the properties, and the total of the debenture bonds is only $2,000,000. As far as the current liabilities are concerned these aggre-sate no more than $3,402,874 including $1,000,000 of bills payable, while on the other side of the account we find a total current assets in the sum of $8,051,817.

The amount represented on books by good-will is each year being
