COMMERCE—TRADE

WHEAT AT 61 CENTS WITH NONE SELLING.

Markets at a Standstill—Local Dealers Waiting for the Holidays to Pass—Rise in Meats Expected. Markets are at a standstill in every line. Not a single change is noticed among the staple articles of the day. Wheat remains at 61 cents a bushel, strong, with none selling but it is expected that the market will become active within the next few days. Local dealers have simply been waiting for the holidays to pass before attempting to push the market on wheat and now a brisk movement at any moment may be expected. Staple groceries have not changed in the last week neither has fresh meats. A rise in meats may be expected, however, at any time. A severe cold snap would cause beef to go up a few cents at any time. The following shows the prices paid on the local market:

- Pineapples, $7.80 a dozen.
- Parsnips, $1 per sack.
- Cabbage, 4c per pound.
- Cheese, per pound 25c.
- Onions, 3c per pound.
- Beets, per pound, 1 1/2c.
- Potatoes, $1.25 per hundred.
- Garlic, 12 1/2c per pound.

Wheat Market.

Portland, Jan. 1.—The wheat market is very quiet and nothing is doing whatever. The wheat shipments for the first half of the cereal year show a falling off of 3,900,000 bushels to that of one year ago. About four and one-half to five million bushels remain in the country in dealers' and farmers' hands and very little of this will be offered for sale for some time to come. Holders are very firm in their views as to the value of their holdings, and pretty stiff figures will have to be paid if the buyer wishes to dislodge any of this amount. Exporters have been paying more than the cereal is worth the whole season, and it is rather difficult to see how they can pay any fancy prices for the unsold wheat, unless the European market after the holiday season shows great and marked activity. Freight is low, and the cargo market very dull, and prices for wheat entirely too high at present. Millers are the most active buyers in securing wheat; but they cannot pay prices asked, as flour is too low to permit the same. It looks as if there will be a watery grave between buyer and seller. One of them will surely have to give away, and it looks as if the seller will have to make the concession. Prices are without change and rate for club, 72c; hinstem, 80c; valley, 76c per bushel.

San Francisco, Jan. 1.—The San Francisco wheat market is of a holiday nature; there is very little doing either for spot or speculation. Holders have not seemed disposed to let go; the demand for Europe is very light and new business for South Africa does not bob up. Rumors of new business for Australian accounts has been quite active, but no exporter in the trade has any definite news of this. In consequence, prices have dropped slightly and farmers are stubborn as ever. No. 1 shipping is quoted from $1.37 1/2 to $1.40; milling, $1.42@1.47 1/2 per cental.
