VANCE IS TO LIVE

DEATH SENTENCE HAS BEEN COMMUTED.

Governor McBride of Washington, Gives A. P. Vance a Life Sentence to the Penitentiary.

Walla Walla, Jan. 2.—Warden Catron, of the penitentiary, received a message from Governor McBride yesterday afternoon, stating that the death sentence of A. P. Vance, the Tacoma murderer, had been commuted to life imprisonment and that Vance would arrive at the institution perhaps tomorrow. The case of Vance has been bitterly fought, and after final appeal the sentence of death was to be carried out. Governor McBride was appealed to, and after going over the merits of the case, gave the young man the benefit of the doubt. This is the first time the governor has been called upon to exercise executive clemency in the case of a convicted murderer.

THE NEW SUPERINTENDENT.

John W. Dryden to Take Charge of the Washington Penitentiary Next Week.

Walla Walla, Jan. 2.—Grant Neal and C. S. Reed, members of the state board of audit and control, are in the city checking up the books of the penitentiary, preparatory to turning the institution over to John W. Dryden, the incoming superintendent. The work will require several days, as not only have the books to be checked, but an immense amount of property, including brick and grain bags, has to be inventoried. It is likely that the change will occur next week. Mr. Catron, retiring superintendent, has held the position for five years, and the institution has made a good record under his management. He expects to go East upon retiring from his labors here.

JAMES HAYES DEAD.

Well Known Farmer of Walla Walla County.

Walla Walla, Jan. 2.—James Hayes, a well known and wealthy farmer, died suddenly Wednesday night at his home, 10 miles from this city, heart disease being the direct cause of death. Mr. Hayes had been in the city during the day, returning home in the evening. About 9 o'clock he complained of illness, and a few minutes later expired. Mr. Hayes was an Irishman, about 60 years of age. Mrs. Hayes is at present in a local hospital suffering with a broken ankle. Deceased leaves a family of grown children.

Firm Dissolved.

The firm of Baltezare & Howe, proprietors of the Pendleton Machine Shops and Foundry, has been dissolved and is succeeded by E. E. Baltezare and A. F. May, under the firm name of Baltezare & May. The new firm took possession January 1.

In Police Court.

Three more drunken Indians spent last night in the city jail. This morning two of them, William Barnhart and William Jones, were sentenced to six days in jail by Judge Fitz Gerald. Charley Whirlwind, the third man, paid a fine of $5.

Tommy Ryan to Locate in Gotham.

New York, Jan. 2.—During the coming week, according to news current in sporting circles, Tommy Ryan, famous for many years as the middle-weight champion, will follow the example of "Kid" McCoy, Tom Sharkey and other pugilists, and open a saloon in New York. Ryan's former home was in Syracuse, but for the last year or two he has been engaged in the saloon business in Kansas City. The failure of the authorities to permit his fight with "Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien, is said to be responsible for his shaking the dust of Kansas City from his feet. It is announced that his removal to New York means that he has retired from the ring for good and all. He is worth about $60,000, and has been in the ring for almost 15 years. During that time he has figured in about 200 battles, losing about eight.

Art Exhibit at Boston.

Boston, Jan. 2.—The best exhibition ever made by the Boston Art Club was formally opened today. It is the 67th annual show and besides the large exhibition of canvases there are many notable pieces of statuary. There are on view almost 400 oil paintings, representing all the leading artists not only in Boston, but the whole country, while a number come from London, Paris, Berlin and other art centers of Europe. The exhibition will continue through the month of January.

On Tour of Inspection.

J. D. Matheson, of La Grande, traveling engineer of the O. R. & N. system, is in the city today. Mr. Matheson has supervision over all the engineers and firemen on the entire system, and is now on a business trip over the lines. He ran a passenger engine between La Grande and Umatilla for 15 years and is one of the most popular officials of the West.

TOP OF THE MARKET.

Cattle Averaging 1300 Pounds, Shipped From Walla Walla.

Walla Walla, Jan. 2.—Four carloads of fine beef cattle, averaging in weight nearly 1300 pounds, were shipped to the Pacific Meat Company, Tacoma, New Years eve. The price paid was the top of the market, and netted about $4000 to M. McDonald, the owner, who had fed the stock several months. An additional sale of 65 head to a local meat concern made up the sales for one day on the large farm of Mr. McDonald. This is one of the largest stock sales made in many months.

The Socialistic Tendency.

The people are coming to believe that organized capital seems to have little sense of responsibility and in seeking to avoid this Charybdis of irresponsible capital they are dashing toward the Scylla of socialism. The tendency is not to be mistaken and in awakening to the seriousness of the situation men cannot afford to blind themselves to the true causes.—Detroit Free Press.

Rich Enough to Be a Christian.

John C. Havermeier's reason for withdrawing from the sugar trust was that he couldn't be a Christian and stay in. It is noticed, however, that John's Christianity didn't strike in until he had made his pile.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.
