ROADS ARE TIED UP

NO TRAFFIC WEST OF CASCADES EXCEPT ON O. R. & N.

Six Northern Pacific Trains Pass Through Umatilla Sunday—Western Washington Branches Clogged—Slides and Washouts Cause Much Trouble.

Snow slides, washouts, wrecked bridges and blockaded tracks have caused all traffic on the Northern Pacific, west of the Cascades to stop.

Six Northern Pacific Passenger trains passed through Umatilla Sunday night, by way of the O. R. & N. line, to Portland. Five Northern Pacific and Great Northern passenger trains with many passengers on board are tied up at Lester and Kanaskata, Wash.

It is almost certain that the Great Northern trains will also be compelled to use the O. R. & N. tracks from Spokane to Portland and Northern Pacific tracks from Portland to Tacoma and Seattle.

Slides on the Northern Pacific between Castle Rock and Kalama, however, have stopped traffic temporarily on the Portland-Tacoma line.

Traffic is congested at all local points in Washington. Freight trains are concentrating in yards, crowding the facilities and making it impossible to make up or move local trains that can be run.

Heavy rains in the Cascades, chinook winds and melting snow have filled up every creek and washed out many small bridges on both the N. P. and Great Northern.

It is no uncommon occurrence for the Northern Pacific to use O. R. & N. tracks during the spring freshets, but it has not occurred before, at this season of the year.

Business on the main line of the O. R. & N. west of Umatilla is very good and the addition of Northern Pacific trains gives that city a metropolitan appearance for the time being.

While the streams of the Blue Mountains east of Pendleton are reported to be swollen by the warm weather of the past week, no serious consequences are apprehended.

Happily, the O. R. & N. has constructed some of the finest concrete piers for the steel bridges in the Blue Mountains that are to be found on the coast and no fears are entertained for the safety of these bridges.

Along the line of the Walla Walla branch and also on the W. & C. R., water has been very high, but no serious damage has resulted and all trains are running on regular schedules.

No. 1 on Time Today.

For the first time in several months train No. 1, on the O. R. & N. arrived on time this morning. The Eastern connections which have caused all the delays to trains on this line, are being run with more regularity and railway officials hope to be able to continue to keep at least one west-bound train on time.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Bert Ingle is in town from Ridge. James Crowner is in town from Vinson. E. E. Beltel, the hotel man of Pilot Rock, is in town. A. J. Leland, traveling freight agent of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, passed up the O. R. & N. to Baker City last night. Andy Rust is in town from his home in the Ridge country. He was accompanied to town by Mrs. Joe Sullivan, who has been visiting at his home. J. H. O'Neill, traveling passenger agent of the O. R. & N., was in the city Saturday evening en route to Walla Walla in the interest of his busy department. The dance at Cold Springs Saturday night given by the Gormans, was well attended considering the weather. High water kept many away, who would otherwise have been there. Robert Starkweather, of this city, left for Huron this morning to engage in the wood business. He took with him a carload of household goods, teams and wagons and will locate permanently at that place.

NEW COUNTY ASSESSOR.

C. P. Strain Now in Office—C. E. Nelson is the Deputy. County Assessor-elect C. P. Strain took his place in the office at the court house this morning, George Buzan, the old incumbent of the office, stepping down and out. Clarke E. Nelson, of Weston, has been appointed and was sworn in this forenoon as deputy assessor.

K. P. LODGE OF WESTON.

Files Articles of Incorporation With the County Clerk Today. Articles of incorporation of Stevens Lodge No. 49, Knights of Pythias, of Weston, were filed with the county clerk this forenoon. The object of the corporation is for mutual relief of the members of the Weston Pythian lodge, charitable pursuits and administration of the privileges and benefits of Pythianism. The value placed on the corporation is $700, consisting of cash, real-estate, and furniture. J. H. Price, H. E. Turner and Frank Saling, trustees of the lodge, are the incorporators.

OF INTEREST TO STOCKMEN.

O. R. & N. Extends the Limit of Tickets to Livestock Convention, to Sixty Days.

Anticipating a large attendance at the National Livestock convention, which is to be held in Kansas City, January 13-16, from the Northwest, the O. R. & N. has considerably extended the limit of return trip tickets from 30 to 60 days, in order to give delegates and visitors taking advantage of the cheap rate, an opportunity to make an extended visit to the East if they desire. The date of sale has also been changed to include January 10. The cheap rate will now be in effect January 8, 9 and 10, good for return in 60 days.

From all indications, at the present time, there will be a good attendance from Oregon, as the 1904 convention is almost certain to come to Portland, Baker City, The Dalles, Portland and Southern Oregon points have signified their intention of sending good sized delegations and Umatilla county will add to the swelling list.

Mr. Hallock's Successor.

E. R. Wolfe, formerly of Portland, but who has held the position of bill clerk for the O. R. & N. in this city for some time, has been appointed ticket clerk here to succeed Homer H. Hallock, who is now agent at Baker City. Mr. Wolfe's many friends note his promotion with pleasure and he enters upon the duties of his new position with the best wishes of a host of friends. It has been reported by the Portland papers that George W. Lounsbury, commercial agent of the O. R. & N., at Astoria, would take Mr. Hallock's place but there seems to be no foundation for the story, and Mr. Wolfe will be the permanent clerk here.

Sheep Inspector Bean.

John E. Bean, the sheep inspector was in the city Monday. He remained several days, visiting the sheep camps of J. E. Smith, Charles Cunningham, Douglas Belts and others, cleaning up his business for 1902. Mr. Bean says there have been about 40,000 head of sheep sold since September, and that there still remains in the county about 240,000 head. The demand for sheep during the year 1902 has been quite brisk, Yakima county, Washington, being the heaviest purchaser. The weather has been exceptionally favorable and as a consequence sheep are doing well.—Pilot Rock Record.

Election of Officers.

The socialists, at their meeting yesterday elected officers for 1903 as follows: President, George E. Robbins; recording secretary, W. J. Keyes; financial secretary, W. E. Haynie; organizer, W. C. Burgess. It was also decided to hold regular meetings every Sunday for the next few months.

New Sumpter Editor.

John G. Foster, the old time Baker City newspaper man, formerly publisher of the Daily Epigram, which is now the Herald, has leased the Sumpter Morning Reporter from J. Nat Hudson, and assumed editorial charge yesterday morning. Foster possesses an unerring nose for news and under his charge the Reporter will undoubtedly be greatly improved.

BOY IS BOUND OVER

TAKEN BEFORE COMMISSIONER JOHN HAILEY.

May Escape the Penitentiary—Admits His Guilt and Says He Does Not Care What They Do With Him.

Herbert Mundell, the boy postoffice robber, has been bound over in the sum of $500 to the federal court and will be taken to Portland to await sentence from Judge Bellinger.

Mundell is the 15-year-old lad who broke into the postoffice at Ukiah and robbed it of something like $70 in cash. Less than a week after the robbery he was detected in spending money at the Ukiah store and suspicion fell upon him as it was known he or his mother, who is a widow, had no money. Mundell was arrested and brought to Pendleton last Tuesday, and has remained in the county jail since. Today he was taken before United States Commissioner John Halley and bound over.

Just what will be done with the lad remains to be seen, but it is likely that he will escape the penitentiary and be sent to the reform school. He admits his guilt and says he does not care what they do with him.

Commissioner Halley undertook to give the lad a little good advice this morning, but he did not seem to care to profit thereby. The lad was told that by good behavior when he got to Portland he would be sent to the reform school, where he would have a good home and learn some good trade. He replied that he did not want to go to the reform school, but preferred to be sent to the penitentiary.

United States Marshal Roberts is here and will leave this evening or in the morning for Portland with the lad.

Parish Aid Society.

The Parish Aid Society will meet at the residence of Mrs. G. A. Hartman, on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30. As this is the date of the regular election of officers for the ensuing year, a full attendance is earnestly requested.
