UNUSUAL FLOOD.

White River Valley Converted Into Huge Lake.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 7 .- A lake of vater 20 miles long, from one to five miles wide, and varying in depth from three to 20 feet, covers the entire White River valley between Seattle and Kent. The like was never known before in all the history of King coun-ty. W. H. Alvord, a farmer living near Kent, who settled there over 40 years ago, said tonight that never in his experience was there such a flood ns prevalls today.

The damage done by the waters in King county alone will reach at least $100,000, and in all likelihood when all the facts are known it will reach double this sum. At least 300 fami-lies in the valley have been rendered practically homeless by the floods, and their household goods have been well-nigh destroyed. Hundreds of head of sheep and hogs have been while other livestock has suffered.
