POSTOFFICE FIGHT

CITIZENS OF FREEWATER TO AIR THEIR GRIEVANCES.

Six Prominent Citizens Want to Be Cut Out of the Corporation—The Outcome of Appointing Vincent as Postmaster.

A merry war is being waged in Freewater between six of the prominent citizens of the town who want to be cut off from the town and the rest of the city population.

A. S. Pearson and several of the prominent citizens of the town, including the members of the city council, are here today conferring with Representatives of the county who are going to Salem in regard to the matter.

The affair is a peculiar one, and it is thought it grew out of a factional fight over the postoffice. There were two candidates in the field anxious to succeed former Postmaster Jones, who resigned on account of his health. These candidates were J. W. Arnold and N. M. Mumford. Each wanted the office badly and each had a lengthy petition signed by their friends and sent to Congressman Malcolm A. Moody.

The matter became perplexing to Mr. Moody, as he did not care to have it appear that he was siding with either man in preference to the other. This being the case and the sentiment being so evenly divided, he concluded that he would appoint a man not in the field for the office. As a result, J. S. Vincent was notified of his appointment. This caused some bitter feeling over the matter and the result was that six of the prominent citizens and property holders in the heart of the city want their property cut loose from the town.

These men were N. M. Mumford, William Lloyd, Ira Bunker, Joseph Irons and William Shaffer. These men came to Pendleton and employed A. D. Stillman as their attorney who will go before the state legislature and make a strenuous fight for the division.

The opposition to the division of the town are just as determined as the six men who wish to be out of the incorporate limits. They are holding a conference with the representatives and senators from this county and are laying their protests before them with the view of defeating the division plan. They have employed Colonel J. H. Raley as their attorney and representative to fight their battles in the legislature and a vigorous protest will be made.

That the city authorities are determined to see that the city incorporation lines are not changed is evidenced by their actions. At the last meeting of the council a resolution was passed that the city would spend every dollar in the treasury to defeat the division scheme.

The men who want to be cut out of the incorporate limits represent eight acres of land almost in the heart of the town and to cut this out would leave the corporate lines of the town in a very awkward shape.

A compromise has been offered by the divisionists but the opposition have refused to accept. This compromise embodies an offer that if the citizens will allow those wishing to cut loose from the town to do so, they will make the railroad the line between Milton and Freewater. This is what Freewater has wished for several years, but the citizens are not willing to compromise on such terms.

FRANKLIN BOUND OVER.

Is an Old Offender and the Federal Court Will Attend to His Case.

O. R. Franklin, the man arrested a few days ago for selling liquor to Indians, and who gave United States Deputy Marshal Roberts the slip and was caught by R. S. Bryson, was bound over in $500 bonds Thursday afternoon by United States Commissioner John Halley.

Franklin is an old offender. He is thought to have been responsible for a great many of the drunken Indians who have been bothering the town for the past few weeks. He has just finished serving a 90-day sentence in the county jail for the same crime, and it is likely that the federal court will not handle him with so much care this time.

A Somnambulist.

An interesting feat in somnambulism was recently performed by one of Ontario's citizens. A prominent young lady of that city had just completed the knitting of a very fine shawl, but on arising the next morning found she had arisen in her sleep during the night and unravelled the entire shawl, and carefully rolled up the yarn and placed it away. She had broken the thread once but found it again and completed the work as carefully as if awake. She is now making it over again, but will probably keep it under lock and key until completed, with the key in another's possession.

At an inquest on a case of suicide recently held in England, the foreman returned this remarkable verdict: "The jury are all of one mind—temporarily insane."—Law Notes.

E. H. CLARKE HOME.

Paid a Visit to the Heppner Coal Fields—Says They Are O. K.

E. H. Clarke, the wool buyer, is back in Pendleton to remain for several weeks after an absence of several months. Mr. Clarke has just returned from the Morrow county coal fields.

He says the discovery of coal in the Willow Creek district is causing Heppner and Morrow county to feel the impetus of a renewed business air. He also stated that there was no longer any doubt but that there was an immense quantity of coal of the best grade. This fact is so certain now that capital has offered great inducements in the way of loans on the property.

Messrs. Ely Bros.:—I have used your Cream Balm in my family for nine years and it has become my family doctor for colds in the head. I use it freely on my children. It is a Godsend to children.

Yours respectfully,
 J. KIMBALL.

Messrs. Ely Bros.:—I suffered greatly with catarrh and tried different remedies without effect. After using one bottle of your Cream Balm I found relief and I cannot praise too highly such a remedy.
