KNIGHTS IN SESSION

HOLD THEIR THIRD ANNUAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Over 300 Members Present From the Five Lodges of Umatilla County— Welcomed by Mayor Hailey.

Pendleton has been turned over to the Knights of Pythias. The occasion is the third annual district convention and the members of the five lodges of the county are here almost to a man, while many prominent Knights from other parts of the state are present.

One cannot walk down the street without being greeted on every hand by a badge worn by one of the Knights. These are red silk ribbon calling attention to the wearer being a member of the Knights and being in attendance at the convention.

As stated yesterday, the program is elaborate. The first thing today was the calling of the convention to order by Grand Chancellor Maloney, at 2:30 this afternoon.

While all who will be here tonight have not yet arrived, Music hall was well filled with members of the great order of Knights at the opening. Almost three hundred men were in the hall and it is expected that this evening's trains will swell the number almost to 400 for the evening session.

For the past three years the Knights of Umatilla county, comprising five lodges, Pendleton, Helix, Athena, Weston and Milton, has held an annual convention. The convention is to acquaint the members with each other and further the best interests of Knighthood. Formerly a drill contest has been an object of the convention, but this year this has been eliminated from the convention and will be held later in La Grande, when teams from several counties will compete. The grand lodge rank is conferred upon all past grand chancellors.

The election of officers followed the reading of the minutes of the last convention, and Mayor Hailey addressed the convention, delivering one of the finest welcome addresses heard in lodge circles for many a day. He made the visitors feel at home and good cheer reigned supreme.

Attorney Will M. Peterson, of Athena, responded to the mayor's address. Mr. Peterson, although young in experience in Knighthood, gave a very fine and elaborate talk. The rest of the afternoon was taken up by addresses and the conferring of the grand lodge rank. This evening at 7 o'clock a banquet will be spread for all in Armory hall and this over the Knights will again repair to the Music hall, where they will confer the Knight rank on a class of 18 members.

HURRY-UP REPORTS

Irrigation Committees Must Not Delay, if They Would be Included in State Report.

Secretary James M. Moore, of the Oregon Irrigation Association, is in receipt of several letters from the various county committees that have been appointed by the convention held in Portland a month ago, to look into the irrigation interests of their respective counties, says the Oregon Daily Journal.

It is the intention of the association to publish its proceedings as well as those of the committee, in book form, and to send a copy of this report to the United States engineers at Washington, so that they may prepare to come to Oregon and commence operations.

A letter has been received by Mr. Moore from C. J. Smith, secretary of the committee at Pendleton, inquiring whether it is too late to include the proceedings of their committee.

Mr. Moore said to a Journal representative this morning that there are several counties that have as yet not been heard from. They were to send full reports of irrigation matters and this delays their publication.
