North and South Meet.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 10 .- For the first time in the history of the Methodist church, since the split that occur-red at the outbreak of the civil war committees from church North and the church South have held a joint meeting. This meeting was held in this city today, when a commission of 11 members of the church North, who have in preparation a new hymnal for the denomina tion conferred with a similar commis sion representing the church South with a view to bringing about the adoption of the same book for both branches of the church. The general impression is that a compromise will be made and some of the best hymns of the two branches be placed in the new hymnal
