NEWS OF MILTON

LODGES INSTALL OFFICERS FOR THE COMING YEAR.

L. L. Berry Seriously Injured by an Ugly Bull—Vincet School Opens Monday.

Milton, Jan. 12.—The following lodges installed their officers last week for the following year: The Woodmen of the World Camp and the Women of Woodcraft Circle. Past counsel commander, Gus A. Winickler; consul commander, Dr. J. L. Hays; adviser lieutenant, William Bridgewater; banker, L. B. Hogan; clerk, F. A. Sykes; escort, W. H. Morris; watchman, H. F. Brown; sentry, J. B. Petree; managers, Dan Kirk, Dan Welch and J. A. Hayton.

Pendo lodge in Freewater: Past councillor, U. J. Groom; counselor, H. F. Brown; chaplain, Mrs. Butler; treasurer, L. Moore; warden, George Ireland; guide, Albert Wormington; sentinel, H. Groom; medical examiner, Dr. M. Dittebrant.

An Angry Bull.
Milton, Jan. 12.—L. L. Berry was seriously injured one day last week by an angry bull that he was trying to drive to town and narrowly escaped death. The bull became angry and made several attempts to gore his horse but failed; the last time it struck the stirrup with a horn, splitting it in pieces, bruising and mashing Mr. Berry's foot up in good shape. It struck with such force as to raise the horse from the ground, but not throwing it down; with the assistance of a man and pitchfork the beast was brought to town and safely corralled. Mr. Berry is able to limp around with the aid of crutches.

A New Restaurant.
Mrs. Malone, proprietor of the candy kitchen for the past 18 months, has sold her entire stock of goods to Mr. A. M. Baker, of Illinois, and will move into the Strain building. Mr. Baker will open up a restaurant in connection with his store. This is something that Milton has stood in need of for a long time and will, it is conducted in the right manner, be a good business.

Arms Paralyzed.
Mr. Ula State, the popular druggist of E. S. Smalley, has lost the use of his arms by paralysis. He is at Colfax receiving medical treatment, and in a letter to Mr. Smalley says that "it's all up with him," he thinks, "but hasn't given up hopes yet. Otherwise I am all right, but don't get enough to eat."

Will Build Residence.
Bennie Osburn has purchased 21 acres of the bottom ranch that he sold to Hodson & Frazier about a year ago and will build a house and barn on the same just as soon as the weather permits and he can get lumber.

School Closed.
On account of smallpox and scarlet fever near Banky's hall, the school has been closed and all public gathering stopped temporarily.

Local and Personal Notes.
Mrs. Serena Bolus and daughter, of Milton, spent Saturday and Sunday in Walla Walla.
Mrs. Chas. Berry and children are visiting in Walla Walla since last Tuesday.
C. P. Strain the county assessor of Umatilla county was in Milton Friday attending to business connected with his new brick store rooms, erected here last fall.
A car load of telephone poles were strung along Main street here last week and will be put in place this week, in order to give our people a more efficient telephone service.
Kate Fulton, May and Frank Harrington went to Waitsburg, Friday, to spend a few days with relatives and friends.
Miss Effie Wilson after spending holidays with her father and sisters returned to Portland last Thursday.
The Vincet school will open up again Monday the 19th, after a two weeks' vacation on account of smallpox.

Much interest is being manifested in the revival meetings held at the College chapel.
Charles Williamson, of Weston, spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday in Milton at Chastain's drug store while Mr. Chastain was in Portland.
Rev. D. C. Sanderson is assisting in a revival meeting at Oakesdale, Wash., since Tuesday of last week.
The horse and saddle raffled off here last week by William Stieker, was drawn by Ed Mohley for 65 cents. Stieker realized $89 out of it.
Four of the deputy postmaster's grandchildren at Freewater, are down with the smallpox, and all mails have to be fumigated as the smallpox is in the rear end of the postoffice.

RECORDS TRANSCRIBED.
The Glory of Union's Panhandle Passed to Baker City.
Baker City, Ore., Jan. 12.—M. C. McFadyen, formerly of this city, who succeeded in securing a contract a year ago for the transcription of records of the Panhandle, has finished his work and the books will be surrendered to the Baker county court at once. Mr. McFadyen receives $2,482.78 for the task.
Just one year ago today, January 10, 1902, the contract was let. It was un-there were 12 daughters of Marcus, who might otherwise have helped to engender the large audience, who remained in the humble and wholesome atmosphere of Reynolds Hall.—Walla Walla Union.

Pool Tournament.
New York, Jan. 12.—The sweepstakes pool tournament, for which preparations have been making for some time, will begin tonight at the Montauk academy, Brooklyn. Nearly a dozen of the most expert players of the country are entered and the battle promises to be lively. The entries include H. P. Stoffl, champion of the West; J. J. Duffy, of Newburg, N. Y.; George F. Smith, of Hartford, and Charles Weston, the "Cowboy Champion." Arrangements for the event have been completed, and from the interest that has been manifested in the matter, there is little doubt that the hall will be crowded nightly for a week.

Bricklayer in Convention.
Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 12.—The Bricklayers and Masons' International Union met in thirty-seventh annual convention in this city today with nearly 1000 representative members of the craft present from various parts of the country. The sessions are to continue two weeks, during which time a large number of questions of importance to the members of the organization will receive attention. The reports of the officers show that the union has made a gratifying gain in membership in the year just closed.

Kansas Stock Breeders.
Topeka, Kan., Jan. 12.—The Kansas Improved Stock Breeders' Association began its thirteenth annual session in Topeka today with representatives of every county in the state present. Two days will be devoted to the discussion of questions affecting the stockraising industry and at the close of the convention the delegates will attend the meeting of the national association in Kansas City. Among the participants from other states are W. W. Marple, of St. Joseph, Mo., and L. H. Kerrick, of Bloomington, Illinois.

It Will Surprise You—Try it.
It is the medicine above all others for catarrh and is worth its weight in gold. Ely's Cream Balm does all that is claimed for it.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.

My son was afflicted with catarrh. He used Ely's Cream Balm and the disagreeable catarrh all left him.—J. C. Olmstead, Arcola, Ill.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts, or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

DID NOT SEE "ZAZA."
Whitman College Girls Not Allowed to Witness the Play.
The "Zaza" question was yesterday pretty thoroughly thrashed out in the minds of those who have in their keeping properties to be observed by the students of Whitman college.
It seems that Miss Eliza Cobb, dean of women at the college, had given her sanction to about a dozen young women of Reynolds Hall to attend the presentation in this city last night of "Zaza" in which Florence Roberts essays the part that gives that drama its distinction.
The young women had accepted as escorts a like number of young men students at Whitman, and an evening's entertainment before the footlights had been anticipated with pleasure.
Later a woman whose interest in the college and its young men and women is very great, asked that the young ladies be not permitted to attend the production of "Zaza." It was her opinion, it is said, that it is a play not altogether suited to young and immature minds.
Accordingly last night when the curtain rose on the drama adapted from the French of Berton and Simon,

TWO DEMOCRATS.
New Officers Take Their Places in Walla Walla County.
Walla Walla, Jan. 12.—A general change in county officers occurred today, and in the new shuffle the democratic party gains two offices, as against none for years past. The change was made without being scarcely noticed, save in the office of the county auditor, a democratic capture.
In the sheriff's office A. F. Kees, at present at Olympia, as representative from this county, was displaced by Charles S. Painter, who has been chief deputy for two years. In the treasurer's office W. B. Hawley succeeds himself for a second term. Prosecuting Attorney Cain gave way to Lester S. Wilson, who has been a prominent railroad attorney for many years. Auditor McLean made way for W. J. Honeycut, democrat, who will make several changes in the personnel of the force. Chief Deputy Hart will remain, and Mayor McKinney, of Waitsburg, will be given a position at the counter. Clerk of the Superior Court Schuyler Arnold, was succeeded by Otto Hauerbach, a young college graduate and successful democrat. E. C. Mills, chief deputy, will be deposed, but the new deputy has not yet been announced. L. C. Goodwin succeeds J. C. Hillman as constable, and J. J. Huffman replaces William Claxford, the venerable justice who has served for many years as justice of the peace and police magistrate. Delos Coffin and Amos Cummings retire from the board of commissioners and their places are taken by W. W. Maxwell and Frank Smith. Edward Cornwell holds over and will likely be chosen chairman of the board, Mr. Coffin having acted in that capacity for four years.

A MANIA TO KILL
STRANGE INSANITY OF A WALLA WALLA MAN.
Asked to be Taken to the Asylum Before He Killed His Neighbor—Tempted to Kick Out Plate Glass Window.
Clarence E. Cucker, who yesterday requested Judge Brents to order him committed to the hospital for the insane at Medical Lake, was examined this morning and his request granted. He will be taken to that institution tomorrow morning. Mr. Cucker's case is one of the strangest insanity cases ever brought before the superior court here, says the Walla Walla Statesman.
Apparently well in mind and body he says that at times an insane desire comes over him to do bodily injury to some one. During these fits, as he calls them, he can hardly control himself, and for fear that he will do some one an injury he prefers to be sent to the asylum to see if a cure cannot be effected.
"I don't want to stay here until I become a raving maniac," he sadly told the judge yesterday at the court house. "I am afraid I will do somebody an injury if I stay here. I can hardly control myself when those awful feelings come over me. I have a friend, who is a neighbor of mine, and the other day I felt that I wanted to kill him. I had no motive for doing it, but the desire was so strong I could hardly resist it."
"Then again, the other day as I was walking in front of the Hotel Dacres I suddenly felt as if I should kick in the plate glass front, and it was all I could do to overcome the desire. I hurried away for fear that I might do it."
Dr. Stewart the examining physician says Cucker's condition is the result of melancholia. He is a son of James Cucker, a well known state line farmer, and has resided in Walla Walla for a number of years.
A sojourn at the asylum where he can be treated will probably soon restore his health and mind.
