HAVE ADDED A WIRE

WESTERN UNION AND O. R. &
N. MAKE IMPROVEMENTS.

New System of Repeaters in This City —Increase of Business Called for Another Wire From Portland to La Grande and Walla Walla.

The immense telegraphic business of the past few months has caused the Western Union Telegraph Company to place a new wire in position between Portland and La Grande also between Pendleton and Walla Walla.

The work of putting up the wire is complete now, with the exception of a few miles east of this city, and linemen T. Donovan of La Grande, and J. F. Kreps of Walla Walla, are now engaged in making new connections in the offices in this city.

One of the most important features connected with the placing of the new wire, is the installation of a set of repeaters in the O. R. & N. and Western Union offices here.

Mr. Donovan and Mr. Kreps are busily engaged in placing these in position in order to use the new line and thus relieve the great business pressure on the through wires.

At present the local business between Portland and La Grande and Portland and Walla Walla is transacted over the through wires, which causes the through telegraphic business to become congested in the head offices.

With the installation of this new wire and the repeaters at the Pendleton office, the Portland office can transact local business with La Grande and Walla Walla without interfering with the through wires.

It will enable the companies to handle the increasing business with ease and will relieve much of the pressure from the offices all along the line, as they will have an extra wire to use, and will not be compelled to delay the transcontinental business in communicating with local offices and headquarters.

The increase of telegraphic business on this system has been phenomenal during the past four years. The entire telegraph line has been rebuilt from Portland to Huntington, new and larger poles, improved equipment and additional wires taking the place of the old system.

The offices in this city are to be equipped with the improved Milliken Automatic repeaters of the very latest design. Larger and more improved switchboards, better office attachments and other necessary improvements are being constantly made.

The operators are highly pleased with the prospects of relief, which the increased line service will afford and the company will be able to catch up with business at the head offices.

Alleges Cruel Treatment.

Nora Tause petitions for a divorce from Peter Tause, to whom she was married in Union, Or., in 1898. The complaint accompanying the petition alleges cruel treatment, abandonment and general neglect and non-support on the part of the defendant.
The complaint and petition were filed by J. A. Fee, who is Mrs. Tause's attorney. Mrs. Tause also asks for the care and custody of the minor child, and for attorney's fees and for such other relief as the court may think she is entitled to.

Today's Trains.

Train No. 5, which arrived at 9:20 this morning, took breakfast in this city. No. 8, the Spokane passenger, due to leave here at 8:15 a. m., waited for delayed No. 1, which arrived at 11:10 today. The trains from the east are still delayed by the eastern connections and travel in and out of Oregon is accompanied by annoyances that are as vexing to the company as to the public.

Petition for Divorce.

Mrs. Martha J. Hendricks has filed a petition for a divorce from C. C.
Hendricks, to whom she was married in September, 1901. The complaint accompanying the petition alleges cruel and inhuman treatment as the reason for the separation desired.
Adultery is also one of the alleged reasons for the divorce being granted. The petition also prays for a division of the community property, of the alleged value of $20,000.

Arranging for Contest.

The first meeting of the members of the Men's Resort to arrange for the contest for new members was held last evening. A second meeting for the same purpose will be held next Monday night, at which time it is expected the arrangements will be practically completed.

R. E. Porter Married.

Robert E. Porter, of Meacham, Ore., and Myrtle Minor, of this city, were married yesterday evening at the county court house by Judge Thomas H. Brents. Mr. and Mrs. Porter departed last night for Portland on a wedding trip.—Walla Walla Union.

CLOSING OUT SALE.

After 18 Years in This City, Joe Ell Decides to Retire.

The closing out sale of the entire stock of saddles, harness and robes of Joe Ell is attracting a great deal of attention from ranchmen, horse owners, livery men, farmers and people having use for saddle, harness, etc., and especially is this true among those who have called and learned the remarkably low price at which these goods are being offered.

Joe Ell has been in the saddle and harness business in Pendleton for the past 18 years during which time he has established a reputation for his products which makes them stand first in their line. Mr. Ell's decision to retire from business is a great surprise to his large trade, but he feels that 18 years continually in one business is sufficient to justify him from the arduous confinement in one line of business. The sale of the stock which is now in progress offers an opportunity for economical buyers to get the Ell Make of saddles and harness at remarkably low figures.

New City Editor.

A. H. Wait, an experienced journalist formerly of Lincoln, Kansas, later of Spokane, has accepted a position as local editor of the East Oregonian.
Mr. Wait comes to Oregon highly recommended and the East Oregonian takes this method of introducing him to the citizens of Pendleton and Una-tilla county.
