JACK COYLE PASSES WORTHLESS CHECK FOR $135

Signs the Name of His Former Employer, Joe Kennedy, and Cashes the Paper at Gratz's Saloon—Left for Heppner.

A warrant is out for the arrest of John J. Coyle, better known as "Jack" Coyle, in which he is accused of forging the name of Joseph Kenney to an order on the First National Bank of this place, the order being dated January 16. Coyle presented the check for payment at Gratz's saloon. He had properly indorsed it, and after considerable hesitation, the face of the order—$135—was cashed at Gratz's. This was between the time for the closing of the bank Saturday afternoon and its opening Monday morning. Coyle hiked out yesterday morning and has not been seen or heard of since. The direction he took from here is conjectured pure and simple. Coyle had been at one time an employe of Kennedy, who is one of Charles Cunningham's trusted associates in the sheep business. This fact served to make the Gratz people less suspicious than they otherwise would have been. Gratz's bartender, Samuel Roberts, paid over most of the cash on the check, and the entire amount was paid from Gratz's saloon. It is said that Coyle is known to have blown in the larger part of the money in the free-and-easy around town during Sunday night, and it is believed he had little more money left than enough to take him to Heppner, to which place he bought a ticket yesterday morning.

ED SPENCER SUICIDES.

After Killing His Sweetheart, Turns the Revolver Upon Himself.
Ed Spencer, a former resident of Pendleton, shot and killed his sweetheart in Spokane because of jealousy and then turned the revolver upon himself, blowing his brains out. The girl was shot through the heart and died instantly.

At the time of the tragedy Spencer was a waiter in a cheap restaurant. The girl was a recent flame of Spencer's, who was also desperately in love, according to a letter which he left, with a Pendleton girl—Miss Della Burton—with whom he had kept company before leaving Pendleton, and as near as can be ascertained, was not popular, or at least only in a very ordinary way. He was little over 20 years of age, and is described to a reporter as of "a kind of jealous disposition." In Pendleton he was generally employed as a waiter, or in some capacity or other about the restaurants and hotels.

Ed Spencer is a son of Mrs. M. A. Spencer, who resides several miles east of Walla Walla. The murderer has never been married as has been stated. An older brother, Charley, was married in Pendleton about two years ago and later left his wife. Spencer was born near Walla Walla and spent most of his life in and about that city.

The man is a nephew of Jap Scott, a prominent Walla Walla farmer, and also a half brother of John Macy, a brakeman on the Washington & Columbia River railroad, residing in Walla Walla.

Preparing for Thunder Mountain.
Martin King, an O. R. & N. engineer, running between La Grande and Umatilla, who spent last season in the Thunder Mountain district, is preparing to return to his prospects there as soon as spring opens. Mr. King goes in by way of Glenn's Ferry, Idaho, and will be joined this season by a large party of Oregon and Idaho prospectors and practical miners. He located some valuable property last season, and expects to make more extensive explorations this year. He has mined in that district for 20 years and was one of the first men to enter the Thunder Mountain region proper.

To be Finished Soon.
Work on the completion of the hospital of St. Anthony will be actively prosecuted next month. The architect, J. B. Barchet of Vancouver, Wash., will arrive and have personal charge of the building until its completion. In the main the building is far toward completion now. The principal work to be done yet is to put in the plumbing apparatus and do the plastering. The hospital will accommodate 50 patients when completed, and will be from end to end equipped strictly up-to-date.

Army Meetings.
The meeting of the Salvation Army since the re-organization are as follows: Sunday, 11 a. m., holiness meeting; 2 to 3 p. m., Sunday school; 3 p. m., free and easy; at 8 p. m., the regular salvation meeting. Monday evening, the private meeting, which corresponds with the gathering called the love feast in some other denominations. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, public meetings.

Clemens-Bowman.
D. H. A. Clemens and Miss Leola Bowman were married last evening at the residence of E. D. Weaver, on Coakle street. Rev. Edwards officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Clemens will make their home in Pendleton, residing for the present with Mr. and Mrs. Weaver. Mr. Clemens is one of the most valued employes of the East Oregonian, upon which paper he is employed, in the mechanical department. Mrs. Clemens is a type who has been employed in the office of the Daily Tribune. She was raised from her early childhood in Pendleton, and no young lady in the city is better known or more popular.

"Cuban Chickenpox."
The family home of George R. Rousks on West Railroad street, has been quarantined for the smallpox. The disease is said to be of a very mild type, but to be smallpox unquestionably. Mrs. Rousks was first affected, and had actually recovered from a light attack of the disease without summoning a physician. Not until three of the children had been attacked was a physician summoned. He at once pronounced the illness of Mrs. Rousks and all three children to have been caused by smallpox, and the quarantine was at once ordered. It is this type of the disease—scarcely any more virulent than chickenpox—that is known in the South and Middle West as "Cuban chickenpox."

New Adjutants.
Adjutants Mr. and Mrs. Howell are now in full charge of the Salvation Army post at this place, succeeding Lieutenant Wieman, who left for La Grande last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Howell have great confidence that the attendance at the Army Sunday school will reach 35 or 40 in a very short time. A class was organized last Sunday at the re-organization meeting, which was held at 2 o'clock. Furthermore, the attendance at the other meetings of the Army is steadily increasing.

New Street Crossings.
Street Commissioner Fee is overseeing the putting in of new crossings as follows: One at the corner of Ann and Court streets, one at the corner of Jane and Court, one across Ann, between Alta and Court, and a new 50-foot walk on Main street, just north of the bridge, near which is going in a 90-foot crossing. Extensive fillings are also being made on Jane street, between Court and Alta.

Stock in Good Shape.
Jack Baker, of Willow Springs, is in the city. Mr. Baker's neighborhood raises horses, cattle and sheep almost exclusively, and he reports stock out there as all in fine condition and an almost entire absence of disease among them, and no epidemic diseases at all.

Sunday School Teachers.
The newly-elected corps of teachers in the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school are as follows: G. W. Rigby, R. E. Tarbet, Mrs. L. L. French, Mrs. Minnie Warner, Mrs. M. M. Rigby, Mrs. A. J. Owen, Miss Nellie Kimbrell, Miss Rozene Epple, Miss Nina Coon.

Thursday Afternoon Club.
The Thursday Afternoon Club will meet on Friday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. E. P. Marshall, at 2:30 o'clock.

Two Indians Get Frolicsome and Tear Up the City Jail.

Willie Jim and Willie Lash were arrested last night by officers Fee and Scheerer as plain drunks with a tendency to develop side issues. Both were incarcerated. This morning it was found that during the night the stove pipe in the city jail had been torn down, several locks to the inner cells broken off and other damage done to the jail. When arraignment in court it developed that Lash had done the damage, and for that the judge gave him seven days in the jail. Jim was fined $5. Neither are Umatilla Indians. Both are supposed to be either Nez Perce or Columbia River men.

Preacher's 40 Years' Work.

To a Georgia clergyman belongs the proudest record in the work of the church. The Rev. D. S. McCurry of Gainesville, who is now 72 years old, has been doing active work in the Baptist church in that section for 40 years with wonderful energy. In that time he has preached 9800 sermons; to reach his appointments and deliver these sermons he traveled 50,000 miles, equal to two journeys around the earth; he has conducted 911 funerals, baptized 4013 persons and married 621 couples.

One of Wilder's Jokes.

Marshall P. Wilder recently attended a performance of grand opera at the Metropolitan opera house in New York, and several times during the performance he gallantly picked up the program which the lady who occupied the next seat accidentally dropped. "It is very good of you to trouble yourself," she said, after he had handed her the program for the sixth time, "and I'm afraid I'm very careless." "Not carelessness, madam," replied Marshall; "it's on account of the heavy music they play here."

It is reported that Lord Roseberry will marry Mrs. Alice Carr Chauncey, formerly of Louisville, Ky., but now of Cannes, France. Her younger sister is the wife of Lord Newborough.
