35,000 for Arkansas Indicates That the Walls Will Be the Next

Senator from Arkansas will give $10,000 for the construction of the Walls, a new bridge over the Mississippi.

SITUATION IN COLORADO

Senator Teller Can Be Elected Sot-ter by the Joint Assembly of the Democrats.

Denver, Jan. 23.—The indications here are that the Senator from South Carolina can be elected as the other member of the joint assembly of the democrats. It was apparent, when the democrats assembled at the first session of the legislature, that it would be only a failure. The general opinion was that the House would not be in session next year, and that the Senate would be the only body of the assembly that would be in session.
