SAVED THE TRAIN

"HAIR OIL PETE'S" DARING
 AVERTS A DISASTER.

Laid Plans to Capture Baker County Outlaws—A Picturesque Figure of the Pioneer Railroad Days—A Texan Beau Brummel.

One of the most picturesque figures ever known in Eastern Oregon, was "Hair Oil Pete," a Texas scout and locomotive engineer, who ran an engine on the Blue Mountain division of the O. R. & N. back in the '80's.

"Hair Oil Pete" was so nick-named when he came to Oregon from Colorado, in 1885, and the euphonious title clung to him during his dramatic career in the Blue mountain region.

He was a typical Texan, strong lithe, impulsive, with keen black eyes swarthy complexion and a wealth of long, black hair that hung half way to his waist, and his crowning mark was always dressed in the most artistic manner, awaited in odorous oils and combed with the nicest precision.

He was an adventurer, rich in interesting traits, dashing, brave, dexterous with a gun and revolver, fond of notoriety, kind and generous to a fault, an endless story teller, a dramatic figure among men, with his long shining locks, laced boots of the most gorgeous design, a white sombrero and a dainty pair of buckskin gauntlets, neatly fringed and silk embroidered, snowy white bosom and broadcloth Prince Albert.

He held all the records for fast runs and daring dashes on the road while he ran an engine. He delighted to tell of his escapades and the crowds would linger late to listen to one of "Hair Oil Pete's" yarns.

He had been prospector, Indian fighter, scout, mining engineer, detective and railroad man—drew a good salary, always, and knew how to spend it in the most gallant manner.
 He was a Beau Brummel among the ladies, possessing in all its purity, that chivalrous Spanish air that made him the hero of all occasions. There was a fire in his eye that captivated and a soft bewitching tone in his voice that contained whole chapters of meaning.

It was "Hair Oil Pete" who organized a posse to capture the McCarty boys, who were accused of robbing the Joseph, Elgin and other banks in Eastern Oregon, and who were supposed to be in hiding on Powder river, in Baker county, near their great stock ranch, formerly known as the Bob George place.

The McCarty's were known to be brave men, good shots, nifty men as ever followed the trade of brigandage and horsemen beyond compare. They knew the rough country of Eastern Oregon and had friends everywhere, as they posed as stockmen for several years.

To search out and capture this gang of outlaws was the height of Pete's ambition and he made elaborate preparations to enter the hunt.
 He even secured a "lay off" from his run on the road and went to Haines and North Powder to investigate the case, when the McCarty's appeared about that time in Colorado, and spoiled his plans.

One of the most daring feats he accomplished while on the O. R. & N., one which resulted happily for the company and a hundred unsuspecting passengers, was performed at Kamela, while he was running a helper at that place.

In the spring of 1889, a "lap" order was given through a slight mistake of an operator to a freight and passenger train on the mountain. The freight was going east and got an order at Kamela to meet the passenger at Hilgard, 11 miles east, while the passenger train coming west, got an order at La Grande to meet the freight at Kamela, thus putting both trains in the same territory with the certainty of a horrible wreck before them.

The passenger had passed Hilgard and was climbing up the mountain to ward Kamela unaware that a wrong order had been given. The freight pulled out of Kamela and started down the mountain, expecting to meet the opposing train at the foot.

About the time the caboose of the freight disappeared around the first curve a mile east of Kamela the mistake was discovered and a message was flashed over the wire to stop the east bound freight.

A helper engine was humming in a monotone under steam pressure, on the sidetrack. "Hair Oil Pete" caught the words of the operator, gasped, and in an instant was out of the switch dashing down the grade on the helper. Bareheaded, eager-eyed, leaning out of his window to catch sight of that caboose, the engine careening and lurching around 10-degree curves, righting up again only to strike the next curve with a more terrific force, the whistle screaming a defiant warning at every point, his long hair streaming in the wind, his hand upon the brake valve ready to grip the flying wheels at the first sight of the moving train, he made a four-mile run in less than three minutes, and brought the freight train to a stop, within a mile of the passenger, toiling up the mountain ignorant of its peril.

The train crew of the freight heard the wild whistle behind them and knew that something unusual was wrong and were plowing down when the helper, manned by "Hair Oil Pete" dashed into sight and came to a stop a few feet from the caboose.

He backed up the mountain to Ka-melia and went about his business, coolly as if nothing extraordinary had happened. It was part of his life to execute just such adventures and he was uneasy only when there was no opportunity for excitement.

Finds Way to Live Long.
 The startling announcement of a discovery that will surely lengthen life, is made by Editor O. H. Downey, of Churubusco, Ind. "I wish to state," he writes, "that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is the most infallible remedy that I have ever known for coughs, colds and grip. It's invaluable to people with weak lungs.
 Having this wonderful medicine, no one need dread pneumonia or consumption. Its relief is instant and cure certain." Tallman & Co. guarantee every 50c and $1 bottle, and give trial bottles free.

Maybury's "Get-Coal" Convention.
 Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—In response to the call issued by Mayor William Maybury, of Detroit, delegates and others interested from various parts of the country are gathering in Washington for a national conference to discuss the coal situation.
 The gathering is in the nature of an adjourned session of the similar conference held in Chicago two weeks ago when Mayor Maybury was appointed chairman of a committee authorized to arrange for a national conference. The convention will be called to order tomorrow morning in Convention Hall. The leaders of the movement who are already here explain that their purpose is not to interfere with the work of the commission now investigating the cause of the anthracite coal strike, but to inquire into the conditions which are becoming so alarming throughout the country, and to devise, if possible, some means of relief. Another purpose in holding the convention in Washington is to bring the opinions of a representative body of men before the federal government and congress. By doing this it is hoped the federal authorities will be induced to take the necessary action for "the welfare of the people," instead of listening to the claims of the mine operators and distributors, who are more interested in getting exhorbitant prices, it is urged, than they are in supplying the actual necessities "of a freeing humanity."
