NEW METHODIST CHURCH.

Funds Pledged for Building at Athena-Over $4000 Now in Sight.

Funds have been pledged, mostly on Sunday last, for the erection of a new Methodist Episcopal church at all obsteperous. Athena. The amount in sight $4025, and there are other funds available-enough that the church at that place feels justified in going ahead in the spring with the erection of a church building which will cost between $6000 and $7000, knowing upon it. The new building is to bu $15 per ton; on alfalfa, from $12.50 to seating capacity—the analtathat when it is finished -next fall 350. The lecture room, in which the Epworth League and Sunday school will convene, will seat 250. The structure will consist of a half basement with a full story above it. It will be site of the present church which will be dismantled and sold. Rev. W. E. Armsfield, who is pastor of the Athena church, is in town today for the purpose of inves tigating the question of building It is expected that either stone from the Wild Horse or from near the W. & C. R. railroad line north of Pendleton, will be used. Charged With Horsestealing.

G. L. Smith and G. S. Grant-or parties giving those names-were arrested yesterday near Athena, charged with horsestealing. When taken custody they were heavily armed. te proposition to organize a base league from Pendleton, Walla of Doom. The proposition to organize a base Walla La Grande and other towns in this section of the country does not strike George Hartman, Jr., favora-

He considers that to attempt anything of the kind at this juncture which means on top of the indebted ness incurred last year, would be inindicious in the extreme. He favors organizing a local team of the best available material, and play for money only by special arrangement determined by the conditions and demands that may arise as the season progre

On the other hand, W. E. Brock undismayed by the poor financial finish made last year, believes that such a league could be profitably organiz ed. It would, however, in his opinion necessary for the baseball people the towns proposing to organize a league to get together on essentials Mrs. Kern is survived by before the organization is effected, to her husband and by the following minimize the possibility of complica-children: Mrs. G.
