hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats.
Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth.
It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in a woman. It stops all unnatural drains and in-strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Wine of Cardui, in re-inforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any case of barrenness except cases of organic trouble. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering?
Wine of Cardui simply makes you a strong woman, and strong, healthy women do not suffer. They look forward to motherhood with joy.

WINE of CARDUI A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

A WESTON MYSTERY

ATTORNEY AND CLIENT RES-URRECT SUPPOSED TREASURE

The Story of George Hayes' Reputed Wealth and Final Poverty—An interesting Romance May Be Un-rapped up in This Unsolved Mystery.
Weston, Jan. 28.—Quite a stir was caused in this city a few days ago by the appearance here of H. E. Collier from Pendleton. He was armed with maps and plans and hunted up Mr.
Hessel, who keeps the corner saloon formerly owned by George Hayes, an old-time resident of Weston, who left here about 15 years ago. Measurements were made from directions on the maps and a hole was dug about three feet deep and something recovered, but neither Mr. Hessel nor Mr. Collier would give any information as to what it was, there being no one else present.

It was evidently something which had lain there many years, as it was necessary to take up some boards under the woodshed to do the excavating.

Various rumors are afloat. Some thinking that it was treasure buried there many years ago by Mr. Hayes, who was always reputed to be very wealthy, but when he died several years ago in one of the coast counties, his funeral expenses were paid by the Weston Masonic lodge, of which he was a member.

He was separated from his first wife to whom he gave the property where the supposed treasure was dug up.

He was married again but his first wife died only a short time ago and many suppose the second wife may have kept this secret until the death of the first wife. All old time residents of this county remember Mr.
Hayes very well, and it was a surprise when his lodge was notified of his poverty. His remains were brought to Weston for burial. No one in the Weston country seems to know where his wife is and many are the rumors afloat. Some of the old-timers asserting that Mr. Hayes not only had thousands in money, but that he had large sums invested in government bonds.

Mr. Collier's information undoubtedly came from some outside source as he has been a resident of the county but a few years and could not have known Mr. Hayes.

Perhaps time will have to tell the story if Messrs. Collier and Hessel will not.

M'ALLISTER ADDITION.

Has Been a Part of Pendleton Ever Since the Legislative Session of Two Years Ago.

It now transpires that the recently platted ground in the northwestern part of town known as the Mc-Callister addition is in the city and has been ever since the legislative session of two years ago.

The ground in the McCallister addition and also the 40 acres of ground lying west of it and adjoining it, were made a part of the corporation two years ago, according to information furnished us yesterday by Mr.
McCallister. Comparatively few people know it, however, and those who did were not apprised of the ignorance of the remainder, who were interested.

County Surveyor and City Engineer Kimbrell knew of the legal status of the ground all the time, but did not know that anyone supposed the ground was not in the city until some incident called his attention a few days ago to the effort being made to have the present legislature pass a bill enlarging the borders of the city so the McCallister addition would become a part of the city. There is a bill now pending in the legislature, introduced by Senator Pierce, for this purpose. It will undoubtedly be recalled.

The 40-acre tract lying west of the McCallister addition belongs to the Pendleton Mercantile Company, which is said to be an organization of young men, many of whom are not here now, or at least several of whom have moved away, who invested savings in the tract mentioned.

BOOK LOVERS FRIEND.

Pendleton Favored by Having a Circulating Library—Not Expensive to Read All the Late Books.

In many cities and towns throughout the country, clubs are formed by book lovers for the purpose of securing the latest popular books to read and books are passed from one member to another, but in Pendleton such clubs are not necessary as the circulating library established by L. G.
Frazier fills the bill to a nicety and answers all purposes. By the system in vogue at Frazier's book store, book lovers have at their service all the newest books as well as the standard works. There is no initiation fee or red tape. If you desire to read any book, call, and by the payment of a small sum you can rent it to read, and when finished, return it.
Frazier's circulating library has been popular since its inception and has proven itself a boon to book readers to secure all the new books at the present day when they are appearing so rapidly would be exceedingly expensive, and place in the homes many books that the reader would not have occasion to refer to again. Fra-zier's circulating library just fills the bill.

city, have rented the Joe Ell building no introduction to Pendleton people, and their many friends are glad to welcome them into the business circles as active members.

The new goods are expected to arrive in a very short time and the work of fitting up the building will be rushed.
