Several real estate changes have been transacted in Milton and vicinity since the new year came in, and quite a number more are on the tapis of a trade.

The receipts of the box social at the Bolus school house amounted to $25.50, which will go towards their already fine school library. Among the callers in town last

D. Earf. of Walla Walla; W. J. Harrison and S. S. Stearn, of La Grande; D. C. Skiles, of Spokane; Elmer and Gladys Rhinehart, of Walla Walla,

A Spokesman-Review solicitor spent several days here last week in the interest of that paper and was liberally rewarded for his trouble.

Operation Successful.

Mrs Mortenson was operated on last week in Walla Walla for cancer. Mrs. Terwilliger, who was removed to the hospital about 10 days ago, was operated on the same day. The operwere successfully performed and both patients are doing nicely.

Hatchets Ready.

The following sign appeared not long since in one of the Freewater saloons: "All Nations Wanted Except Carrie." We suppose that they all applied, as the sign has disappeared, and we anticipate that the saloons will go too, in less than a year as there are several hatchets being made for Carrie to use.

Lively Runaway.

A team belonging to Chris Beauchamp, which was standing in front of the second-hand store, became frightened at a board that fell down near it, and started down Main street about as lively as it could go, but

He has an auction sale every Wednesday and Friday afternoon at which you can buy goods at your own price. Phelps has been in business here for nearly a quarter of a century and has many warm friends that regret to hear both of his failing health and retirement from business

Pioneer Dead.

James Boisee, an old pioneer of this county, died at the home of Millard Davis, three miles below Freewater. iast Thursday at the ripe old age of four score and seven years, five months and two days. Mr Boisee was born in the state of New York August 15, 1815; he came to Iowa In 1842, and in 1848 to California ther. in 1851, he settled in Oregon, where he has since made his home. remains were laid to rest Friday in the Ford cemetery near Walla Walla in a lot purchased by himself several years ago. Mr. Boisee had some pe-cullar ways, but otherwise he was a good loyal citizen and neighbor.

Hidden Treasures.

The Weston mystery recalls to our minds the time when Mr. Hessell of Weston, with a few members of the Commercial Club, armed with the proper implements, marched into this little burg and tried to dig a hole to get some of the "hidden treasures" of this city, which they thought buried here and no doubt is, but when they struck our mayor and council-men they hit granite and all the force even the $1200 in gold coin they of Gler, fered, to get the privilege to work at years. the hole a year (a fact not generally known) would not have the desired of-fect, so they loaded their tools, furnietc., and deposited it somewhere in Weston. Probably this is what they dug out and the Westonites were so full of (Wood) arcohol that they couldn't see all that was going on.
