TEACHERS TO MEET

INLAND EMPIRE ASSOCIATION TO HOLD SIXTH ANNUAL.

Many Noted Educators to Gather at Walla Walla—E. Benjamin Andrews, of Nebraska, to Deliver Two Addresses.

The Inland Empire Teachers' Association is now making elaborate preparations for the sixth annual meeting to be held in Walla Walla, April 16, 17, 18, 1903.

This association was organized in Spokane in December, 1896, and has held meetings successively at Pullman, Walla Walla, Pendleton, Moscow and Spokane. Its membership includes all the leading educators of the Northwest and the former meetings of the association have been largely attended by teachers from each state represented.

At the Spokane meeting last April 400 teachers were present, and the management is now assured of an attendance equal to, or larger than this, at Walla Walla in April.

Among the well known teachers and educational workers to be present are the following: J. H. Ackerman, state superintendent of Oregon; J. A. McLean, president of the Idaho State University; J. F. Saylor, superintendent of city schools of Spokane; W. C. Beach, professor of Political Economy, Pullman; R. B. Bryan, state superintendent of Washington; A. H. Yoder, University of Washington at Seattle; and E. Benjamin Andrews of the state University of Nebraska. President Andrews will deliver two addresses before the association, one upon "Problems of Greater America," and the second on the timely pertinent subject, "Can the Public School Course be Shortened?"

Umatilla county teachers have signified their intention of taking advantage of this educational meeting, and advices from Union and Baker counties so far indicate that the entire force of educators from those counties will be present.

FROM NEW YORK.

Mrs. Clark, of the Peoples Warehouse, Writes a Letter Telling of the Late Styles.

The following letter has been received from Mrs. Clark, who is now in New York in the interest of the Peoples Warehouse:

The weather has been simply dreadful here; when it isn't snowing the wind is blowing a gale which makes me long for dear old Oregon again.

I spent three days during the past week visiting the importing houses on upper Broadway and Fifth avenue. Found many beautiful models which I am having copied in medium priced garments. The silk blouses and Monte Carlos are marvels of beauty. There are tailor-made gowns in all the new materials, and an endless variety of separate dress skirts.

Please say to my many customers that I have them in mind while buying, and will show a better and more varied line of costumes than has ever been shown in the city before.

Have bought several imports from Stein, Arison, and Collins. The silk blouses shown by this house are very chic and their waists are perfectly lovely.

With kind wishes for all, I am, Yours truly, ANNIE CLARK.

SENATOR ANKENY'S RECEPTION.

Walla Walla Tendered Her Distinguished Citizen a Cordial Greeting.

Walla Walla, Feb. 9.—A splendid reception was tendered Senator and Mrs. Ankeny at Odd Fellows' hall Saturday night, that being the first opportunity the people of Walla Walla had of expressing their appreciation of the victory gained by Mr. Ankeny at the legislature in the final settlement of the senatorial struggle. The large hall was handsomely decorated with flags, bunting and potted plants and an immense arch had been constructed under which Mr. and Mrs. Ankeny received their friends.

Early in the evening great throngs of people crowded the hall, and for two hours the crush was almost unbearable. Thousands of people passed the arch and greeted the new senator and his wife. In the banquet room punch was served and the Ninth cavalry orchestra furnished music. When the crowd had dispersed to a certain extent dancing was indulged in until midnight.

CARNIVAL A SUCCESS.

Red Men of Walla Walla and Their Merry-making.

Walla Walla, Feb. 9.—The Red Men's carnival closed last night, after a week of most successful merry-making. Financially, the carnival proved a success, while the features introduced were so good generally that every one voted the affair a splendid success from the standpoint of amusement.

Each evening last week from 1,500 to 2,500 people would crowd the armory and engage in merry-making, while the Walla Walla Military band would give splendid concerts. Battles of confetti and other forms of amusement were indulged in freely. Miss Anna Ames was crowned queen, and reigned with due splendor. At the close the body voted Miss Margaret Wooden the most popular teacher in the public schools and the Order of Eagles the most popular secret society.

AT GREAT EXPENSE.

Smallpox Cost Walla Walla Nearly $1,000 in January.

Walla Walla, Feb. 9.—Smallpox cost Walla Walla nearly $1,000 during January, and but for a severe criticism of bills by the council the amount would have been overreached. A large number of cases were treated at the pest house, and but a small percentage of the cases in the city were heard of at the detention hospital. The expense for the month was the largest yet contracted, and the council is at a loss to know what to do to clear the city of the disease and stop the burden caused by the pest house occupants. The city assumes no part of the expense where a party is quarantined at a private house.

Sheriff Withers, of Eugene, died Sunday morning of wounds received at the hands of Elliott Lyons, an escaped horse thief.
