FACTORY ASSURED

RIGBY AND CLOVE TO BUY OUT BALTEZORE.

Will Make Sufficient Additions to Allow Them to Manufacture Their Harvesters Here.

The Rigby-Clove Manufacturing Company—W. T. Rigby and J. Clove—has consummated arrangements under which the manufacture of their combined harvester will be prosecuted the coming season.

First, the deal involves an option on the Baltezore & May foundry at the intersection of Alta and Court streets. Secondly, the foundry plant will be greatly added to by the purchase of thousands of dollars worth of lathes, a radical drill and a shaper, a steam punch and steam shears, a planer and considerable other machinery. The drill and shaper will be the very first brought into Eastern Oregon.

It is not possible at this time to state just the amount of money which will be expended in the expansion of the plant, but it is liable to reach $25,000 or $30,000. These additions will be made immediately, and within a month the everyday working force of the foundry will be increased to about 20 or 25 men. The intention is to this season manufacture from 12 to 15 of the combined harvesters and threshers.

J. Clove, the inventor of the contrivance, will return in about a week from San Francisco, where he has been for the past two months having initial patterns and roller bearings made with which to start proceedings in the Pendleton works. The Rigby-Clove Company will continue to do general repairing and custom foundry work as heretofore. Among the improvements will be a large addition

ABOUT FINISHED.

New Store Depots of the O. R. & N. at This Point.

The O. R. & N. Co. are erecting three new buildings at Pendleton. They are located just east of the freight depot. It is expected they will be finished within 10 days. One of them is to be used as a workshop by the carpenters and pipe men of the building and bridge department. Another is to be used as a store-room for dressed lumber, while the third will be a general store-room for the various supplies used on the road. In addition a new platform 75x75 feet for storing heavy materials is being put in.

J. H. Young, the store clerk, in speaking to an East Oregonian representative, said:

"It is not generally known that Pendleton is a general headquarters or supply depot for the whole system. We furnish practically all the signal oil and lubricating oil used on the whole system. It comes here in car-load lots. We correspond to a big wholesale house that supplies the retail trade.

"We keep on hand supplies of all descriptions, such as frogs and switches, lumber, bolts and all the other equipment needed on the road. We supply the branch stores located at La Grande, Huntington, Albina, The Dalles, Umatilla, Walla Walla, Starbuck, Tekoa, Spokane and Wallace, Idaho.

The departments making Pendleton their headquarters are the bridge and building department, under C. A. Cameron's charge, the motive power and car department, under F. P. Rounds, and the general road master's office, under W. Bollins.

Pendleton Pioneer Dead.

Miss Julia Haller, the cashier in the Boston Store, received word of the death of her father, William Haller, at his home in Albion, Idaho, on Sunday. The funeral and interment of Mr. Haller took place yesterday at Albion. Mr. Haller resided in Pendleton for about four years during the early '80s, and was well known to all the older settlers. He was 72 years of age. His surviving children are Miss Julia Haller of this place; John W. Haller, who is at Walla Walla, where he is associated with the Dean Abstract Co.; Mrs. D. W. Bailey, of Portland, and Mrs. Hazeltine, of Mendocino, California. John W. Haller was in town Monday and yesterday en route to and from Albion.

Injured at Wallula.

A. J. McIsaac is at the St. George. He went through the Wallula bridge that collapsed last Sunday, and sustained some injuries. His physician tells him there is a fracture of a projection of one of the lower vertebrae. His face is considerably bruised and one of his ankles jammed. He fell 10 feet from where William Hibbard struck, whose neck was broken and who was instantly killed. Mr. McIsaac is an ex-policeman of the Spokane force. He is undecided whether to return to Spokane or not.

Back to the Ranch.

A good many stockmen and farmers who own ranches near Pendleton and who spend the winter in the city, are moving out to their ranches. The spring-like weather we have been enjoying for the past week or 10 days is beginning to stir the latent forces of nature, and is turning the thoughts of the owners farmwards. The annual exodus to Butter Creek, McKay Creek, Pilot Rock and other nearby points will soon be on.

In our prescription department we use Parke, Davis & Co.'s fluid extracts. They are absolutely pure.

TALLMAN & CO. THE DRUGGISTS

PERSONAL MENTION.

R. E. Porter, the Meacham wood contractor, is in the city.

J. O. Hale, of Adams, has lately moved into his new cottage.

Miss Amy Anderson left last night for a two weeks' visit to Portland.

Mrs. William Blakley, of Eastland, was the guest yesterday of Mrs. O. F. Turner.

George H. and C. H. Smith started today for Sterling, Col., probably to remain there.

Frank S. Murphy, of Perry, manager of the Grande Rouse Lumber Company, is in town.

C. G. Andrus and V. F. McWilliams, representing the Chicago View Co., are in the city taking views.

Mrs. Jane Woody is spending the week visiting in Athena with her daughter, Mrs. Cass Cannon.

Miss Edith Crockett will be the new stenographer in the headquarters office of the Women of Woodcraft.

Professor C. Murray, the phrenologist, went to Weston today to lecture. He will remain there several days.

Leslie Matlock, of Heppner, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. T. W. Ayres, will return home Friday.

Mrs. B. S. Burroughs and her son, Een, arrived last evening from Sumpter for a few days stay in Pendleton.

Alexander Adams went to Walla Walla this morning to be examined by the pension examiner at that place.

W. E. Saunders, of Baker City, but well known in this vicinity, will soon return to his post on Switzer's Island.

Carl Sacariasen, who has been visiting Gus Planting at Grosewood, returned to his home at Quincy, Or., this morning.

Purl Bowman, the wealthy farmer, his wife and six children are all down with the scarlet fever, and it is said have a severe attack.

Mrs. P. P. Collier has recovered enough to be able to ride out, and she was yesterday taken to the home of her son, H. E. Collier.

E. H. Swisher, of Adams, is in the city. Mr. Swisher has lately remodeled a building in Adams for a billiard hall, and also put in a stock of tobaccos.

John D. Hargett, a prominent farmer from north of Juniper, was in the city yesterday. He reports the wheat as all right in his neighborhood, promising finely.

Mrs. George Hall has resigned her position in the headquarters office of the Women of Woodcraft and will start tomorrow for Pocatello, to join her husband there.

The latest advices from Miss Adnah Raley are to the effect that she has improved in health considerably within the last few days. She is still in the Portland hospital.

Joe Nelson, of La Grande, is taking Jack Lally's place as brakeman on Nos. 1 and 2 while the latter is at Union in attendance upon the damage suit against the O. R. & N.

W. W. Edmisten and family, of Eddyville, Neb., have arrived and will make their future home here. Mr. Edmisten is an uncle of the Hopkins brothers, W. R. and J. M.

The following will attend the shooting tournament at Heppner from Pendleton: Otto Boettcher, James Means, H. J. Sillman, F. W. Walte, T. W. Ayres, Wes Matlock, C. J. Ferguson and James Spence.

Newt Newton, an extensive farmer from the Van Byle country, was in the city yesterday visiting with his family, which resides in town during the school year. He has several children in the city schools.

W. H. Hately will go tonight to Walla Walla to meet there the general manager of the Pacific Coast Telephone and Telegraph Company, C. M. Reynolds, of Spokane, and other officials of the company.

E. Harrington of San Francisco, is stopping at the St. George. In company with Tom Boylan, he went into the country today in search of mutton lambs, and will probably purchase several hundred head in this county before returning.

Robert Brown, who was pitcher and catcher for the Pendleton baseball team last season, will arrive in the city in a few days from Iowa. Upon his arrival many possibilities in the way of baseball happenings will probably be either realized or dissipated. Anyhow, conclusions are expected.

Patronized by Travelers.

I. F. Tobey, superintendent of the State Home Finding Association, says that the contribution box in the Hotel Pendleton in this place is the second best patronized box in the entire state. "From it he collects an average of between $5 and $6 every 90 days. The offerings, which are not merely voluntary, but are self-suggested by the mere presence of the box, range all the way from a penny to a dollar."

An Open Meeting.

An open meeting of the Pendleton Socialist Club will be held Monday evening at the court house. The subject of the meeting will be, "The Advantages of Co-Operation." Rev. Jonathan Edwards will be the principal speaker.

AT PEST HOUSE.

Man Giving His Name as W. S. Wright, Dies of Smallpox.

A stranger who gave his name as W. S. Wright, died at the pest house last night of confluent smallpox.

He has insisted to Coroner Cole and to the nurse in charge that his name was Wright and that he came from Baker City, but he left no other evidence concerning his name or former place of residence, and as he was very reticent about himself generally, it is thought he might have made untruthful representations of the kind, as so many do, under the impression that he could gain access to the public's charities without being recorded as a citizen of the state.

He was well dressed and had no appearance at all of being a tramp or lobo. He was apparently about 40 years of age, and has been in the pest house three weeks, coming here during the first stages of the disease, and being quarantined immediately.

He is the second man to die of smallpox in the pest house in a good many years. The last one before him was a negro who died there about three years ago. The latter was nearly dead when discovered, and died in a few hours after being admitted.

AMUSEMENT PARLORS.

Improved Extensively — Everything First-Class—A Pleasant Place to Pass Your Leisure Time.

The amusement parlors under the W. & C. R. depot are undergoing some extensive improvements which will add greatly to the comforts and conveniences of people seeking a place to while away their leisure time. A large double stairway leading from Main street to the parlors has been built and the entire place has been put in first-class shape. In the amusement parlors will be found first-class bowling alleys with elevated seats for spectators, good pool and billiard tables and shooting galleries. A musical entertainment every evening. Temperance refreshments and cigars sold. The public is invited to call and spend their spare time enjoying good healthful pastimes.

Uncle Tom's Cabin Parade Good.

On account of the poor connections of the trains, Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin company did not get in until late this afternoon, so a great many people, both old and young, were disappointed in not seeing the parade at noon, as it was advertised to be, but about 4 o'clock the largest and best parade was shown on our streets that we have ever seen for an Uncle Tom's Cabin show. It was nearly equal to that of a circus. The ladies' brass band was exceptionally good. From the looks of the parade, the play will be filled with buck and wing dancing and old-time negro melodies.

May Locate Here.

Wistar Edickson, of Duluth, has just arrived here, and thinks of locating. He is a plumber by occupation. He will visit for a time, while making up his mind to locate or not, with his brother, James Nelson, the farmer who lives six miles northeast of the city.

Much Snow at Meacham.

P. P. Collier has returned from a trip to Meacham and Murdock Spur. Day before yesterday the thermometer registered 10 degrees below zero and the snow was five feet deep in the mountains. He was dealing with the wholesale woodmen.
