TUTUILLA NOTES

SOME RIGBY STOCK WILL GO TO THE YUKON.

Purl Bowman's Family Have Scarlet Fever—Al Ragan Takes Contract in Washington—His Satanic Majesty on McKay Creek.

Tutuilla, Feb. 22.—Al Ragan has secured a plowing contract up in Washington, where he goes in the near future.

Purl Bowman and his entire family have been sick with scarlet fever but are recovering.

A perusal of a description of the skeleton recently unearthed on McKay Creek, might lead to the conclusion that the devil had been interred in that locality, but a McKay Creeker says there is a very healthy representative of his satanic majesty still doing business in that locality.

Al Hudson and Dave Nelson each have a gang of men at work on a new road which is being opened up to add to the facilities for reaching Pendleton.

M. J. Foster was up from Stage Gulch yesterday and says the real estate market in that neighborhood is still active, three quarter sections of land was recently sold to Eastern parties for $7,000.

Thomas Lonegan has a well boring machine at work trying to bore a more plentiful supply of water.

W. G. Rigby's sale on Friday was well attended from all over the county, some of the stock being purchased for the Yukon. The sale was conducted by William Yohnha, who was for 10 years an auctioneer in St. Louis, his father being an auctioneer before him, and is still in the business. This is a case where heredity seems to count for something, and the flights of eloquence which extolled the character of refractory mules and added to their value in dollars and cents on Friday, would have done credit to the old gentleman in his palmiest days. The sales of the various articles amounted to about $6,900, 80 per cent of which was paid in cash, a very creditable showing.

W. W. HARRAH RETURNS.

Had a Very Enjoyable Visit to the Old Home in Missouri.

W. W. Harrah and wife returned Saturday night from a seven-weeks' visit to Jameson, Mo., among the scenes of Mr. Harrah's childhood.

They left here on January 8, and enjoyed their trip very much, with one exception. Their little son, who had evidently contracted scarlet fever before leaving Pendleton, died on January 25, after a two-weeks' illness.

Mr. Harrah's parents are both living and a family reunion was held at the old home, at which all the near and distant relatives of the family were present.

He reports the weather very disagreeable all through the East. Heavy snows and high winds followed their train to the very summit of the Blue Mountains, and the only pleasant sunshine they enjoyed on the trip was encountered after the train started down the mountain this side of Kamela, into the balmy springtime of Umatilla county.

This is the first visit East in 11 years and the changes made even in the old settlements of Missouri are very noticeable.

Mr. Harrah came to Umatilla county.

VISITING RELATIVES HERE.

H. H. Nye and Son, of St. Louis, Stop Over in Pendleton.

H. H. Nye and son Robert E. Nye, of St. Louis, Mo., spent Sunday and Monday in this city, visiting relatives, whom they had not seen for many years.

Mr. Nye is a cousin of A. W. Nye, one of Pendleton's most highly esteemed citizens and of Thomas P. Nye, of Echo.

He has been in business in St. Louis for a number of years and is now on his way to Snoqualmie, Wash., where he will engage, with his son, in business.

This is Mr. Nye's first trip West of the Rocky Mountains and he is delighted with the country and business prospects so far as he has become familiar with them.

Robert E. Nye has been in business at Snoqualmie for several years.

They left on the morning train for Echo, where they will spend a few days with Thomas P. Nye.

The gentlemen are highly elated over the prospects ahead of the St. Louis Exposition and feel confident that it will be one of the greatest events in the history of Missouri. They also say that interest in the Lewis and Clark fair is constantly growing in the East and that it is the theme of conversation on all home-seekers' trains that are now battling westward among the snow drifts and blizzards of Wyoming and Nebraska.

Returns Home.

Charles Pierce, of Weston, the booming town of Umatilla county, is in the city. He has been watching the lawmakers at Salem for the past two weeks and will accompany his brother, Senator Pierce, back to Umatilla.—Oregon Daily Journal.
