The Shortest Month

1. Ethel got an amethyst.
And Edith got a pearl.
Flowers are such short-lived things To send to any girl.

2. Mabel got a box of gloves, Cologne got Marguerite, Genevieve a hoop of gold To bind her wrist petite.

3. Beulah got a turquoise pin, And Gertrude got a book,
To while away a summer's day In some sequestered nook.

4. And all these presents meant a bill Of most prodigious size;
In fact, it caused my hair to stand When first it met my eyes.

5. Well, February's always called The shortest month—oh! gee!
I guess that's pretty nearly right—I'm very short, you see.

—Joan C. Haven.

FOR STATE CONTROL

NEW YORK REFORM CLUB DISCUSSES BURNING ISSUE.

Municipal Ownership to be the Theme of Meeting in Gotham This Week—Prominent Speakers on the Program.

New York, Feb. 25.—A thorough discussion of the question of municipal ownership of public utilities, with exhaustive presentations of data and arguments on both sides, is the program mapped out by the Reform Club for the national conference to be held under its auspices during the three days beginning today.

The meeting is along the line of previous conferences held under the same auspices at which were discussed trade combinations and other questions of national importance.

The club has succeeded in securing strong speakers to present both sides of the question of municipal ownership. Some of those whose names appear on the program are: Robert P. Porter, former director of the census; Allen Ripley Foote, editor of Public Policy; W. R. Hill, president of the American Waterworks Association; Lieutenant Cahoon, secretary and president of the National Electric Light Association; Clinton Rogers Woodruff, secretary of the National Municipal League; Edward M.
Shepherd, counsel of the Rapid Transit Commission of New York; Prof.
Bemis of Cleveland; U. N. Bethel, general superintendent of the New York Telephone Company, and Socialist ex-Mayor Chase, of Haverhill, Mass., who will present the labor views of municipal ownership.

JOHN WESLEY'S BIRTH.

President Roosevelt Will Join in Celebrating the Anniversary With the Methodists.

New York, Feb. 25.—President Roosevelt will come to this city tomorrow to help the Methodists celebrate the anniversary of the birth of John Wesley. It will be 200 years on June 17, old style, or June 28, new style, since Wesley was born in Epworth, England, where his father was a Church of England rector, but the celebration is to be on an advanced date because the president could not come here in June, and because New York Methodists want to start the list of national celebrations, partly because the first Methodist church in America was on the site of the Methodist church in John street. The date of its dedication was 1768, but the first sermon preached in America was in 1766, the preacher having been the Rev. Philip Embury.

Tomorrow's celebration is to be in Carnegie Hall, under the direction of the Metropolitan Twentieth Century Commission, which is raising money to pay debts on New York Methodist churches. Besides the president, Bishop Andrews of this city, and Chancellor Day, of Syracuse University, will deliver addresses.

ENDLESS CHAIN TO FIND WIFE.

C. J. Murray Tries Unique Scheme in Hope of Finding Missing Woman.

Tacoma, Feb. 24.—The endless chain circular is being employed by Charles J. Murray and his two children, Earl and Beryl, in their efforts to find the missing wife and mother, Mrs. Hattie Murray. Circular letters are being sent out telling of Mrs.
Murray's disappearance and giving a description of her. Each recipient of one of these letters is requested to write out three copies and over their own signature to forward them to friends. They are also requested to give the letter to their home newspaper with a request that it be published.

Mrs. Hattie Murray disappeared from her home, 1653 South Fortieth street, August 19, and nothing has been heard from her since. The father and children have searched everywhere and made diligent inquiries, but without result. The following description is sent out with the letter:

"Mrs. Murray is 40 years of age, about 5 feet 3 inches in height, thick set, and weighs about 150 or 155 pounds, very erect carriage, brown hair slightly streaked with gray in front; round, rather full face, gray eyes, nose slightly turned up, small mouth, small mole on right side of chin near corner of mouth, small bunch on top of lobe of left ear.
Dressed, when she left home: Black skirt, pink shirtwaist, light colored straw sailor hat with three narrow velvet bands around crown and rosette of same on side."

Any information concerning the lady's whereabouts should be sent to Charles J. Murray, 1653 South Fortieth street, Tacoma.

BOOK OF THE ROYAL BLUE.

Story of Harper's Ferry Told by Heretofore Unpublished Correspondence.

There are many published accounts of the John Brown insurrection at Harper's Ferry, but the most interesting is probably that published in the February number "Book of the Royal Blue," in connection with the authentic dispatches and letters which passed between the principals engaged in capturing Brown.

The details, given step by step, the unusual prominence of the men connected with the suppression of the insurrection, and the personality of the correspondence, make a most remarkable document. The narrative is further intensified by old-time photographs of Harper's Ferry, showing the U. S. Army buildings as they were at the time of the insurrection, also the same views taken during the civil war, showing the destroyed railroad bridge, and armory buildings, and the remains of a pontoon bridge across the Potomac river. Portraits of the men who were foremost in the great tragedy are given, including no less personages than President Buchanan, Secretary of War Floyd, Governor Wise of Virginia, Pres. Garrett of the B. & O., W. P. Smith, master of transportation of the B. & O., and Colonel Robert E. Lee.

The story is especially valuable to schools and libraries for reference.
Single copies may be had for five cents each, on application to D. B.
Martin, manager passenger traffic, Baltimore & Ohio railroad, Baltimore.
The annual subscription to the magazine is but 50 cents, and each number issued monthly, contains some special article of interest.

Speed Skating Championships.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 25.—Among lovers of winter sports much interest is manifested in the indoor amateur speed skating championships which begin in the Duquesne Garden tonight under the auspices of the Amateur Skating Association of the United States. The tournament continues through the remainder of the week and as the entry list is large and of a high class it is expected that some records will go by the board before the competition is ended. The events are: Half-mile, one-mile, three-mile and five-mile amateur indoor championship of the United States; one-mile open indoor championship of Pennsylvania; one-mile novice; half-mile for boys under 16 annual meeting of the Montana State Horticultural Society, which is to continue three days, was formally opened today with a good attendance of prominent fruitgrowers from various parts of the state. Papers and discussions dealing with numerous questions of interest to other horticulturalists will occupy the sessions. An elaborate fruit display is a feature of the gathering, the exhibit of winter apples being particularly notable.

HIS PARLORS JAMMED.

The Great Palmist Doing a Land Office Business.

Professor Wallace is apparently having a carnival of his own in his parlors at the Columbia hotel, No.
634 Main street. So many were the engagements made to see the celebrated enigma this week that he was obliged to refuse any more applications until he learned definitely just how long he could remain. He looks into your palms and tells you more about yourself than you yourself know.

He tells you what ails you and often times gives you back your health, your lost nerve, energy and power.

He tells you whether or not you should make changes in your business matters, if you will be successful in your love affairs, if you will travel, if you will meet your obligations, and, in fact, he tells you the complete story of your life as told by the language of the hand. Prof. Wallace's stay is uncertain, but he is keeping the parlors open until 9 p. m., in order to accommodate the people. Yesterday he announced that he would give readings on Sunday from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m.
